

ADJUSTERS WILL DETERMINE LOSS IN SEAVEY FIRE

Insurance adjusters will be here from Portland early next week to look over the ruins of the eight dry kilns and the warehouse on the James W. Seavey hop farm on the McKenzie river that was destroyed by fire Thursday, according to Alexander Seavey, son of the owner.

The exact amount of loss cannot be determined until a survey of the ruins is made and in the absence of the father Mr. Seavey said he could announce the amount of insurance carried on the buildings and contents. James W. Seavey, who was in Portland at the time of the blaze, had not returned to Eugene Friday.

Alexander Seavey said he did not know what would be done in the matter of rebuilding the kilns but it was the assumption that it will be necessary to have a new plant in operation by the time the 1935 crop is ready.

The last of the hops in the yard were picked Friday forenoon and these will be taken to the Seavey kilns near Corvallis. Pickers who had been encamped at the yard since September 6, when work was started, were picking up and pulling out Friday. The crop in this yard was good this year and many of the pickers made good wages.

Dick Franklin, superintendent of the yard, said that the origin of the fire had not yet been determined. The blaze was first discovered over the furnace in one of the kilns and it may have been that the furnace was overheated or possibly the blaze might have originated from electric wiring. Electric lights were used in all the buildings.

5-THE ELEVEN LATER AMENDMENTS WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT THE CONSTITUTION

This is the fifth of a series of six articles reviewing the history and contents of the U. S. Constitution, in observance of "Constitution Week" and the 147th anniversary of the Constitution's birth, Sept. 17, 1787.

BESIDES the Bill of Rights, the Constitution has had only 11 other amendments added to it in its 147 years of existence. These amendments, with dates of their adoption and their ratification, are:

- Amendment No. 11—Provides that the judicial power of the United States shall not extend to suits by a citizen of one state against another state, or by a foreigner against a state. (Adopted by Congress March 15, 1794; ratified Jan. 8, 1795.)
- Amendment No. 12—Provides for separate election of president and vice president by the electoral college. (Adopted Dec. 12, 1803; ratified Sept. 25, 1804.)
- Amendment No. 13—Abolishes slavery. (Adopted Feb. 1, 1865; ratified Dec. 18, 1865.)
- Amendment No. 14—Extends citizenship to all persons born or naturalized in the United States, and forbids any state to "deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law." (Adopted June 16, 1866; ratified July 23, 1868.)
- Amendment No. 15—Forbids discrimination "on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude." (Adopted Feb. 27, 1869; ratified March 30, 1870.)
- Amendment No. 16—Gives Congress power to tax incomes. (Adopted July 12, 1909; ratified Feb. 25, 1913.)
- Amendment No. 17—Provides for popular election of senators. (Adopted May 16, 1912; ratified May 31, 1913.)
- Amendment No. 18—Forbids the manufacture, sale, or transportation of intoxicating liquors. (Adopted Dec. 18, 1917; ratified Jan. 29, 1919; repealed by Amendment No. 21.)
- Amendment No. 19—Gives equal suffrage to men and women. (Adopted June 4, 1919; ratified Aug. 26, 1920.)
- Amendment No. 20—Abolishes "lame duck" sessions of Congress; provides for presidential succession; changes inauguration day to Jan. 20. (Adopted March 2, 1933; ratified Jan. 24, 1933.)
- Amendment No. 21—Repeals the 18th Amendment. (Adopted Feb. 20, 1933; ratified Dec. 5, 1933.)

NEXT: Proposed amendments.

INSURANCE SUIT STARTED BY COOP

Suit for $3195.57 fidelity insurance has been filed in the federal court in Portland by the Pacific Cooperative Poultry Producers against the Hartford Accident and Indemnity company.

The complaint alleges that the company has failed to settle for this amount, which, it is alleged, was lost by the cooperative through embezzlement of Ralph M. Ferry, for two years manager of its Eugene branch. His bond was with the Hartford company.

The embezzlement is alleged to have covered a considerable period of time. Ferry has not been connected with the cooperative since January 2 of this year.

Veterans Endorse Candidates at Meet

The Eugene Veterans' Voter league endorsed candidates of Fred Wentworth for treasurer, Cal Bryan for recorder, Wallace White socialist candidate for county commissioner and C. F. Hyde, democratic candidate for legislator at their meeting Thursday night.

The league took no action on candidates for city council, declining to work this matter to a committee to leave with the Affiliated Voters' league. It is thus expected the veterans group will endorse candidates favored by the other league.

Through an error, Thursday, it was announced George Halton was a candidate for councilman in the first ward. Mr. Halton is not a candidate. The candidates in this ward are Fred Carlson and John Conway.

"ALL-BRAN WILL ALWAYS BE A PART OF MY DIET"

Delicious Cereal Corrected His Constipation

If you suffer from constipation, read this fine letter:

"I have been troubled for years with constipation. During this time, I have tried almost every known remedy. Then some one recommended eating Kellogg's All-Bran, and the proper results followed immediately.

"Since eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN each morning, there has been a general improvement in my health without the ill effects that I formerly experienced when taking laxatives. Hereafter, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN will always be a part of my diet."—Mr. E. G. Himes, 1201 E. 7th St., Los Angeles, Calif.

Research shows Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to aid elimination. ALL-BRAN also supplies iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that in leafy vegetables. Isn't this "cereal way" safer than risking patent medicines?

Two tablespoons daily are usually sufficient to relieve ordinary constipation. With each meal, in serious cases. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Be sure to ask for Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. It contains much more needed "bulk" than part-bran products. In the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

CUMMINGS FEELS CERTAIN KIDNAP CASE IS CLEARED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Attorney General Cummings, speaking today of the arrest of Bruno Richard Hauptmann, in the Lindbergh kidnaping case said "There is no doubt but that the case is broken."

His comment came after disclosures that virtually all of Hauptmann's neighbors around his home in New York City either have been or would be asked about their knowledge of the prisoner's habits.

"There are a lot of things we have yet to learn," a high justice department official said, explaining that the department wanted to find out how Hauptmann paid his bills, and how he conducted himself generally in the community.

The department announced that the men who arrested Hauptmann were: Sergeant Jack Wallace of the New Jersey state police, Lieutenant James Flynn of the New York City police and Special Agent W. F. Seery of the department of justice.

The original ancestral family name of Charles A. Lindbergh was Mansson; his grandfather changed it to Lindbergh when he came to America from Sweden in 1830.

UMATILLA TO GET CONSERVATION OF SOIL EXPERIMENT

PORTLAND, Sept. 21.—(AP)—A five-year program for the demonstration of modern soil tillage and control of erosion will be undertaken by the federal government on about 30,000 acres of the best wheat land in Umatilla county.

The announcement was made here by W. A. Rockie, regional director, federal soil erosion service of the department of interior. The work will cost about $150,000 and will be carried on in the vicinity of Adams and Athena.

Rockie explained that while the Pacific northwest area still is a young grain country and yields abundant crops despite the tremendous losses from erosion, "the day is coming when it will be in the same plight as vast tracts of land in the midwest and other grain producing sections unless the experience of the past is heeded and preventive measures taken.

"Out in this part of the United States," he said, "there is still time for conservation measures."

Rockie said that last year erosion from flood waters alone cost the great region extending south from Spokane through the Palouse country to Walla Walla, more than sixty million tons of top soil.

Millions of tons of the same wheat-producing soil, he declared, are being lost every year through wasteful tillage.

Hills Creek Mill To Be Moved Back Into New Timber

The county road extending up Hills creek and now terminating at the mill of the Hills Creek Lumber company several miles above Jasper will be extended a mile and a half so the mill can be moved further back into the timber, it was announced Friday afternoon. County Commissioners Cal M. Young and O. E. Crowe and County Engineer P. M. Morse went over the route Friday forenoon and decided to extend the road in cooperation with the lumber company.

This company has been cutting lumber at the present site of the mill for many years and fluming it to its docks on the S. P. right of way at Jasper. When the plant is moved further up the mountain, where the company owns a large tract of timber, the flume will be extended.
