

KOTILLION DANCE IS SCHEDULED FOR TUESDAY; ASSEMBLY CLUB IS PLANNING "GUEST NIGHT"

Season's First Dance Planned By Group

TWO large dances are being given this week by the Assembly and Kotillion clubs.

The Kotillion club is planning a Halloween dance for Tuesday evening, to be given at the Craftsman's club on the campus at nine o'clock.

Officers for this year are Mr. Clubb, president; Mr. Prince, vice-president; and Mrs. Byrom, secretary-treasurer.

The Assembly club's dance Saturday evening will be the first of the fall season and will be "Guest Night."

Officers for this year are Mr. Clubb, president; Mr. Prince, vice-president; and Mrs. Byrom, secretary-treasurer.

CHAPTER H TO MEET Chapter H of the P. E. O. will meet Monday evening at eight o'clock at the home of Mrs. H. R. Gold.

MRS. COLEMAN TO PORTLAND Mrs. J. R. Coleman left this weekend to spend several days visiting in Portland.

FLEDGES HONORED Almas of Alpha Chi Omega honored pledges of the active chapter with an informal tea at the chapter house Saturday afternoon from four until five-thirty o'clock.

FROM LAGRANDE Mrs. Herbert R. Hanna of La Grande visited this week with her brother, Wil Landrum, and sister-in-law, Mrs. W. G. Beattie.

P. E. O. MEETING Chapter AM of the P. E. O. will hold its "guest day" program this coming Wednesday at three o'clock at the home of Mrs. John Jay Rogers.

GO SOUTH Miss and Mrs. Campbell Church Sr. and Mrs. George Howard left Saturday to drive to southern California.

IN PORTLAND Recent guests at the Sovereign Apartment hotel in Portland were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Osborn of Eugene.

MRS. BROWN HOSTESS Chapter AT of the P. E. O. Sisterhood will meet with Mrs. Percy Brown on this coming Wednesday at one o'clock for dessert.

TO PARADISE Miss Sally Elliott Allen left Thursday evening for Pasadena, California, where she will attend the presentation of her play, "What the Gulls Know," by the Pasadena Community Playhouse Saturday evening.

New Secretary Is Honored By Y About 150 students and faculty women called Friday afternoon at the tea for which the University Y. W. C. A. was hostess honoring the new general secretary, Miss Elizabeth Hughes.

MISS SHEDDON SETS WEDDING DATE November 8 has been set as the date of the marriage of Miss Marion Sheldon, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry D. Sheldon, to James R. Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Ferguson of Pendleton.

Sororities To Be Visited Several of the sorority groups on the campus will be entertaining national officers this fall.

Hallowe'en Dance Students of the Eugene Business college held a Halloween dance at the Del Rey cafe Friday evening.

Unusual... is the personal attention in our selected stock. Let us show you the newest in this line.

Hallowe'en Novelties

Permanent Waving by This Method $2.50-$3.50-$5.00

Valley Printing Co. Stationers Phone 470 - 78 W. Broadway.

Mrs. E. G. Kurth, who is chairman for arrangements for the Catholic Daughters of America's Silver Jubilee celebration which will be held this coming week-end in conjunction with the state meeting, also to be held in Eugene.

Silver Jubilee, State Meeting Of Catholic Daughters Is Event Of Coming Week-End In Eugene

THE Eugene Catholic Daughters of America will be hostesses to the visiting delegates of Catholic Daughters of the State on Saturday and Sunday, October 27 and 28, at the annual state conference which will be held in this city.

In connection with the annual state conference meeting the local Catholic Daughters of America will commemorate their silver jubilee. In 1909 the local court of Eugene was founded, as the first Catholic Daughters on the Pacific coast.

State Supervisor To Visit R. N. A. State Supervisor Erma Kibler will honor guest at the Royal Neighbors of America meeting this coming Friday evening.

Pauline Stivers Is Bride Of Mr. Bishop The thirtieth wedding anniversary of her parents, Miss Pauline Jeannette Stivers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Stivers, became the bride of Delroy Maxfield Bishop, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Bishop of Payette, Idaho, at a ceremony solemnized Friday afternoon at two o'clock in the First Christian church.

Medical Auxiliary Luncheon Monday Members of the Lane county medical auxiliary will sponsor a luncheon at the Del Rey cafe Monday afternoon at one o'clock to which a large number of guests are being invited.

Two Honored Miss Ellen Hammerickson and Raymond Iversen were honored at a party given by Emmaus Lutheran league this past week.

Year's Committees Named By P. T. A. Committees for the year were named at the regular meeting of the Whiteaker Parent-Teacher's association Thursday afternoon.

Campus Events The University campus has few social events scheduled for the coming week, although on the week-end several living organizations are planning pledge dances.

Miss Sheldon Sets Wedding Date November 8 has been set as the date of the marriage of Miss Marion Sheldon, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry D. Sheldon, to James R. Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Ferguson of Pendleton.

Sororities To Be Visited Several of the sorority groups on the campus will be entertaining national officers this fall.

Hallowe'en Dance Students of the Eugene Business college held a Halloween dance at the Del Rey cafe Friday evening.

Unusual... is the personal attention in our selected stock. Let us show you the newest in this line.

Hallowe'en Novelties

Permanent Waving by This Method $2.50-$3.50-$5.00

Valley Printing Co. Stationers Phone 470 - 78 W. Broadway.

Rainbow Officers Assume Duties Friday

AT a public ceremony in the Masonic temple officers for 1934-35 of Evangeline chapter, Order of Rainbow for Girls, were installed Friday evening.

Installing officers were Miss Barbra Brown, retiring worthy adviser, Miss Henryetta Mumme, Miss Norma Skeels, and Miss Jessie Rae Atwater. Miss Kathleen Hoglum was the musician for the ceremonies.

Incoming officers are: Miss Evelyn Wood, worthy adviser; Miss Margaret Spicer, worthy associate adviser; Miss Phyllis Atwater, charity; Miss Janice Flindner, faith; Miss Elizabeth Stetson, chaplain; Miss Dorothy Jane Lind, drill leader; Miss Jeanna Bovard, treasurer; Miss Betty Mae Lind, love; Miss Charlotte Cherry, religion; Miss Jean Hewitt, nature; Miss Betty Jane Knox, immortality; Miss Mildred Little, fidelity; Miss Eleanor Healey, patriotism; Miss Edith Paris, service; Miss Betty Jane Harr, musician; Miss Donna Bow, choir director; Miss Edith Bartlett, confidential observer; Miss Louise McCracken, outer observer.

Special guests for the evening were: D. Bulee Stuart, supreme deputy of Oregon; three grand officers of Oregon; Miss Mary Louise Olivier, grand worthy associate adviser; Miss Roberta Bennett; grand faith, and Miss Ruby Scully, grand charity, and Miss Jean Kleffman, past worthy adviser of St. Mary's assembly in Corvallis. Seventeen members of the Order of Demolay from Corvallis participated in the crowning ceremony for the new worthy adviser.

Patrons and patronesses for the dance were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lind, Mrs. Edna Brown, Mrs. Marlan Wood, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Cherry, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Little, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Paris, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McCracken, Mr. and Mrs. Sam C. Bond, Mr. and Mrs. Jay B. Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Fintner, Mrs. Vera Raye Lee, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Stetson, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Knox, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Spicer, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bovard, Mr. and Mrs. J. Atwater, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harr.

THE full celebration of Girl Scout Week, in honor of the birthday of the Girl Scout founder, Juliette Low, will be held from October 27 to November 3, McMorran and Washburne's will have a complete window display of Girl Scout equipment and accessories during the week and radio programs will be given through the courtesy of KORE. Saturday, October 27, is all-county play-day on the university campus, with Miss Betty Allen in charge, assisted by the lieutenants' troop. Games, contests and swimming are on the program. Every Girl Scout in Eugene and the surrounding communities is invited to attend this play-day from two until five o'clock in the afternoon. Ten cents will be charged for swimming.

Sunday, October 28, Girl Scouts will attend churches by troops. Monday is designated as thrift day. Tuesdays as handicraft day, Wednesday, founder's day, Thursday, hostess day. All Girl Scouts who have uniforms are asked to wear them during Girl Scout week. Friday, November 2, the Girl Scouts of troop No. 6 are serving at the Lane County Home. Products dinner at the chamber of commerce. Many Hallowe'en troop parties are being held during the week from October 27.

Girl Scouts of Troop No. 5 who are passing their cooking requirements for second class, are giving a dinner for the troop members at the home of their captain, Miss Hazel Seavey, Tuesday evening, October 23.

The examiner for the housekeeper badge is Mrs. A. H. Kunz, rather than Mrs. Nils Carlson, as formerly announced. Mrs. Carlson is examiner for the laundress badge. The regular monthly badge examinations were held Saturday, October 20.

A Girl Scout national training course for leaders will be given in Eugene in November by Mary Jane Littlefield, national camp advisor and regional trainer. All leaders and prospective leaders and others interested in the program are invited to attend.

Master Dale Erickson entertained the members of the Fitch-Harshorn Play school, 1713 Hilyard street, at a party given in observance of his fifth birthday this past Tuesday. The guests included Jo Ann Krummel, Robert Moursund, Marjorie Cord, Warren Meale, Eleanor Heydenburch, John Jones, Francine Shrods, George Dorris, Bobby Rubenstein, Joan Wernham, Michael Wernham, Paul McCormick, Charles Francis Hastings, Anne Harshorn, and Dale and Kenneth Erickson.

The Blue River Star club will meet this coming Friday at one o'clock for dessert and bridge at the home of Mrs. Agnes Volkstorf, 208 East Second avenue. Assistant hostesses include Mrs. Harry Bartow, Mrs. Walter Ransom, Mrs. Francis Lusick, and Mrs. Verma Little.

The Methodist union meeting will be held at the church Tuesday, beginning with a program at ten-thirty o'clock in the morning led by Mrs. F. C. Carlson, president of the home missionary society. Following luncheon at 12:30, when division three will PRE-SCHOOL GROUP The pre-school mothers' group of the Congregational Sunday school will meet at the home of Mrs. Nelson Bousing, 1972 East Twenty-Sixth avenue, Monday evening at 7:45. Dr. B. W. DeBusk will speak on "Present Tendencies in Child Welfare."

STAR CLUB The Blue River Star club will meet this coming Friday at one o'clock for dessert and bridge at the home of Mrs. Agnes Volkstorf, 208 East Second avenue. Assistant hostesses include Mrs. Harry Bartow, Mrs. Walter Ransom, Mrs. Francis Lusick, and Mrs. Verma Little.

M. E. UNION The Methodist union meeting will be held at the church Tuesday, beginning with a program at ten-thirty o'clock in the morning led by Mrs. F. C. Carlson, president of the home missionary society. Following luncheon at 12:30, when division three will your table... will look more perfectly appointed if you have your linens laundered by the New Service. Well laundered linen is just as essential as correct silverware and glassware - and that goes for your clothes, too - send them to us.

SEE ORGANIZATION PAGE 7

CONTOUR HAIR CUTTING Haircut Shampoo, Fingerwave 35c 50c LOVE'S BEAUTY SALON Telephone 991 492 Willamette

NEW SERVICE LAUNDRY 839 High Phone 825

Mrs. Joseph Franzwa, founder of the Eugene Catholic Daughters of America, the first of these groups to be organized on the Pacific coast. Since the Eugene society was formed many similar ones have been organized in many communities on the coast.

Mrs. Conklin Is Honored At Party

HONORING Mrs. Edmund S. Conklin, who leaves the latter part of the month for Bloomington, Indiana, to live, Mrs. O. R. Gullion, Mrs. Warren D. Smith, and Mrs. F. L. Stetson entertained at the Gullion home on Wednesday afternoon at an informal sewing party.

About forty of the honor guest's friends were invited.

Miss Preciso Married In Portland

Of interest to Eugene friends is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Mary Preciso of Portland and Van Valpreda of Clackamas which took place Saturday.

The ceremony was solemnized Saturday morning, at nine o'clock, at Our Lady of Sorrows church in Portland. Miss Gretta Wilhelm and Miss Alice Norrie were the bridesmaids.

A wedding breakfast for members of the bridal party, intimate friends and members of the families followed the ceremony.

After a two-weeks trip to Los Angeles the couple will reside at Clackamas.

Mrs. Valpreda formerly lived in Eugene and is a graduate of St. Mary's school with the class of 1932.

Tonqueds Continue Membership Drive

The membership drive started last Monday by Tonqueds, organization of Eugene girls attending the University, will continue throughout the coming week, according to Miss Roberta Moody, president of the organization.

At the close of the drive a mass meeting of all members will be held and plans for the winter's program completed. This will be followed by a reception to honor all Eugene girls and their mothers. Invitations for this affair will be issued later.

Miss Clara Nabsalm and Miss Lucille Williamson are in charge of the membership drive.

Miss Moody announced the appointment of Miss Mary Ellen Eberhart as publicity chairman and Miss Ethel Thompson as social chairman this week-end. Officers include Miss Moody, Miss Virginia Endicott, secretary, and Miss Eunice Elliott, chairman of mass meetings.

Birthday Party

Master Dale Erickson entertained the members of the Fitch-Harshorn Play school, 1713 Hilyard street, at a party given in observance of his fifth birthday this past Tuesday. The guests included Jo Ann Krummel, Robert Moursund, Marjorie Cord, Warren Meale, Eleanor Heydenburch, John Jones, Francine Shrods, George Dorris, Bobby Rubenstein, Joan Wernham, Michael Wernham, Paul McCormick, Charles Francis Hastings, Anne Harshorn, and Dale and Kenneth Erickson.

The examiner for the housekeeper badge is Mrs. A. H. Kunz, rather than Mrs. Nils Carlson, as formerly announced. Mrs. Carlson is examiner for the laundress badge. The regular monthly badge examinations were held Saturday, October 20.

A Girl Scout national training course for leaders will be given in Eugene in November by Mary Jane Littlefield, national camp advisor and regional trainer. All leaders and prospective leaders and others interested in the program are invited to attend.

Master Dale Erickson entertained the members of the Fitch-Harshorn Play school, 1713 Hilyard street, at a party given in observance of his fifth birthday this past Tuesday. The guests included Jo Ann Krummel, Robert Moursund, Marjorie Cord, Warren Meale, Eleanor Heydenburch, John Jones, Francine Shrods, George Dorris, Bobby Rubenstein, Joan Wernham, Michael Wernham, Paul McCormick, Charles Francis Hastings, Anne Harshorn, and Dale and Kenneth Erickson.

The Blue River Star club will meet this coming Friday at one o'clock for dessert and bridge at the home of Mrs. Agnes Volkstorf, 208 East Second avenue. Assistant hostesses include Mrs. Harry Bartow, Mrs. Walter Ransom, Mrs. Francis Lusick, and Mrs. Verma Little.

M. E. UNION The Methodist union meeting will be held at the church Tuesday, beginning with a program at ten-thirty o'clock in the morning led by Mrs. F. C. Carlson, president of the home missionary society. Following luncheon at 12:30, when division three will your table... will look more perfectly appointed if you have your linens laundered by the New Service. Well laundered linen is just as essential as correct silverware and glassware - and that goes for your clothes, too - send them to us.

SEE ORGANIZATION PAGE 7

CONTOUR HAIR CUTTING Haircut Shampoo, Fingerwave 35c 50c LOVE'S BEAUTY SALON Telephone 991 492 Willamette

NEW SERVICE LAUNDRY 839 High Phone 825

Rainbow Officers Assume Duties Friday

AT a public ceremony in the Masonic temple officers for 1934-35 of Evangeline chapter, Order of Rainbow for Girls, were installed Friday evening.

Installing officers were Miss Barbra Brown, retiring worthy adviser, Miss Henryetta Mumme, Miss Norma Skeels, and Miss Jessie Rae Atwater. Miss Kathleen Hoglum was the musician for the ceremonies.

Incoming officers are: Miss Evelyn Wood, worthy adviser; Miss Margaret Spicer, worthy associate adviser; Miss Phyllis Atwater, charity; Miss Janice Flindner, faith; Miss Elizabeth Stetson, chaplain; Miss Dorothy Jane Lind, drill leader; Miss Jeanna Bovard, treasurer; Miss Betty Mae Lind, love; Miss Charlotte Cherry, religion; Miss Jean Hewitt, nature; Miss Betty Jane Knox, immortality; Miss Mildred Little, fidelity; Miss Eleanor Healey, patriotism; Miss Edith Paris, service; Miss Betty Jane Harr, musician; Miss Donna Bow, choir director; Miss Edith Bartlett, confidential observer; Miss Louise McCracken, outer observer.

Special guests for the evening were: D. Bulee Stuart, supreme deputy of Oregon; three grand officers of Oregon; Miss Mary Louise Olivier, grand worthy associate adviser; Miss Roberta Bennett; grand faith, and Miss Ruby Scully, grand charity, and Miss Jean Kleffman, past worthy adviser of St. Mary's assembly in Corvallis. Seventeen members of the Order of Demolay from Corvallis participated in the crowning ceremony for the new worthy adviser.

Patrons and patronesses for the dance were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lind, Mrs. Edna Brown, Mrs. Marlan Wood, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Cherry, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Little, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Paris, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McCracken, Mr. and Mrs. Sam C. Bond, Mr. and Mrs. Jay B. Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Fintner, Mrs. Vera Raye Lee, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Stetson, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Knox, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Spicer, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bovard, Mr. and Mrs. J. Atwater, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harr.

THE full celebration of Girl Scout Week, in honor of the birthday of the Girl Scout founder, Juliette Low, will be held from October 27 to November 3, McMorran and Washburne's will have a complete window display of Girl Scout equipment and accessories during the week and radio programs will be given through the courtesy of KORE. Saturday, October 27, is all-county play-day on the university campus, with Miss Betty Allen in charge, assisted by the lieutenants' troop. Games, contests and swimming are on the program. Every Girl Scout in Eugene and the surrounding communities is invited to attend this play-day from two until five o'clock in the afternoon. Ten cents will be charged for swimming.

Sunday, October 28, Girl Scouts will attend churches by troops. Monday is designated as thrift day. Tuesdays as handicraft day, Wednesday, founder's day, Thursday, hostess day. All Girl Scouts who have uniforms are asked to wear them during Girl Scout week. Friday, November 2, the Girl Scouts of troop No. 6 are serving at the Lane County Home. Products dinner at the chamber of commerce. Many Hallowe'en troop parties are being held during the week from October 27.

Girl Scouts of Troop No. 5 who are passing their cooking requirements for second class, are giving a dinner for the troop members at the home of their captain, Miss Hazel Seavey, Tuesday evening, October 23.

The examiner for the housekeeper badge is Mrs. A. H. Kunz, rather than Mrs. Nils Carlson, as formerly announced. Mrs. Carlson is examiner for the laundress badge. The regular monthly badge examinations were held Saturday, October 20.

A Girl Scout national training course for leaders will be given in Eugene in November by Mary Jane Littlefield, national camp advisor and regional trainer. All leaders and prospective leaders and others interested in the program are invited to attend.

Master Dale Erickson entertained the members of the Fitch-Harshorn Play school, 1713 Hilyard street, at a party given in observance of his fifth birthday this past Tuesday. The guests included Jo Ann Krummel, Robert Moursund, Marjorie Cord, Warren Meale, Eleanor Heydenburch, John Jones, Francine Shrods, George Dorris, Bobby Rubenstein, Joan Wernham, Michael Wernham, Paul McCormick, Charles Francis Hastings, Anne Harshorn, and Dale and Kenneth Erickson.

The Blue River Star club will meet this coming Friday at one o'clock for dessert and bridge at the home of Mrs. Agnes Volkstorf, 208 East Second avenue. Assistant hostesses include Mrs. Harry Bartow, Mrs. Walter Ransom, Mrs. Francis Lusick, and Mrs. Verma Little.

M. E. UNION The Methodist union meeting will be held at the church Tuesday, beginning with a program at ten-thirty o'clock in the morning led by Mrs. F. C. Carlson, president of the home missionary society. Following luncheon at 12:30, when division three will your table... will look more perfectly appointed if you have your linens laundered by the New Service. Well laundered linen is just as essential as correct silverware and glassware - and that goes for your clothes, too - send them to us.

SEE ORGANIZATION PAGE 7

CONTOUR HAIR CUTTING Haircut Shampoo, Fingerwave 35c 50c LOVE'S BEAUTY SALON Telephone 991 492 Willamette

NEW SERVICE LAUNDRY 839 High Phone 825

Mrs. Evalyn Wood, who was installed Friday evening as worthy adviser of Evangeline chapter, Order of Rainbow for Girls, at a public ceremony held at the Masonic temple.

the training meetings. Announcement of the exact dates for the course will be made later. About twenty communities outside of Eugene are being invited to participate in this training.

The lieutenants' troop will meet Tuesday, October 23, at 7:30 at the Presbyterian chapel to complete plans for Girl Scout week.

Miss McCamant Is Honored At Tea

Honoring their new chaperon, Miss Fannie McCamant, who is being welcomed back to the campus after an absence of several years, the members of Pi Beta Phi entertained with one of the week's largest teas at the chapter house Thursday afternoon.

Receiving were Miss McCamant, Miss Marjorie Linebaugh, president of the active chapter, and Mrs. H. R. Crossland.

Mrs. Basil Williams and Mrs. Anne Landsbury Beck poured tea. Miss Helen Tillman was in charge of arrangements for the affair.

A. A. U. W. Delegates At State Meet

The Eugene branch of the American Association of University Women had four representatives at the eleventh annual conference of the Oregon state division which was held in Astoria on Friday and Saturday of the past week.

Mrs. Virgil D. Earl of Eugene completed her term as state president, and presided over the two-day session. Miss Bertha Cummings, president of the Eugene branch, Mrs. Nelson F. Macduff, vice-president, and Mrs. J. R. Jewell, chairman of the educational committee, also went to Astoria for the convention.

Dr. O. L. Huffaker of the University of Oregon was also present.

BEARD'S WOMEN'S WEAR

Phone 1996 957 Willamette

NEW YARDAGE

Fall and winter piece goods that are truly the last word in stylish patterns and colors. Visit our balcony and see these fine

SILKS VELVETS LACES Novelty Taffetas With metal threads for trimmings and frocks. $1.50 In popular shades $1.40 Beldings' All Silks

Canton Crepe A very fine, dependable fabric for fashioning the best dresses—39 inch. $1.49 Street shades...

"Beldings" (Canton) Silk Crepe New! Rough as to wear and in fall's smartest brown, navy, tile green. $1.49 black

Lovely "Spray" Transparent Velvet Rich black, "shower proof" velvet so much used in the new formal, dinner dresses and wraps. A fine quality 39 inch—yard $2.50

New Plaid Taffetas Attractive color combinations in big demand for trimmings, blouses, etc. 39 inch, yard 98c

New Metallic Crepes and metal cloth in white, rust, Yale blue, beautiful. See them! Yard $2.95

Plain Taffetas Beautiful shades, such as lipstick red, cocktail blue—a fine quality. Yard 89c

Black and Silver Laces for dinner dresses—yard $1.95 and $2.50

OATMEAL One of the most popular fabrics for dresses is OATMEAL. Crepes in rust, blues, green, brown, wine, black. 39 inches—yard $1.49

A Car Of New Kimball coming to us this week and we haven't room on our floors for them!

So What? Beginning Monday, Oct. 22nd, we will offer for sale every piano now in our stock, grands and uprights, new and used, at greatly reduced prices! You will Save $115 to $250

Don't Delay! Act Now! Remember these are the finest pianos made. No cast-off stock, brought in to sell at a price. Every one is a genuine New Kimball product, but they MUST BE MOVED to make room for our 1935 stock.

See us MONDAY at 68 West Broadway THE MUSIC BOX If you want to save money on a piano purchase. Ralph Wilson