

Coast Gridiron Teams Start Last Big Push

STANFORD-BEARS, WSC-WASHINGTON HOLD SPOT LIGHT

(By United Press)
CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 21.—(AP)—Hoping to win "Doc Red Franklin," the Oregon State squad leaves today for Los Angeles to meet U. C. L. A. in their last conference game and the last appearance on the coast of the fast-stepping Franklin, ace halfback.

PULLMAN, Wash., Nov. 21.—(AP)—Washington State strategy will pit Ed Goddard's ability to carry punts back against Elmer Logg's long distance kicking in the State-University of Washington game Saturday. The Cougars coaches think Goddard's punt returns will offset any advantage the Huskies may obtain from Logg's 55 and 60 yard punts.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Nov. 21.—(AP)—Coach Tyn Thornhill today named Bob (Bones) Hamilton, right halfback, as the captain of the Stanford team in the "big game" meeting with California Saturday.

BERKELEY, Cal., Nov. 21.—(AP)—California's chances against Stanford Saturday depend on the performances of two men to the Golden Bear varsity line, Nordstrom and Anderson, the tackles. They have pushed the veterans Lutz and Boone back to the second team.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Howard Jones is still juggling his Southern California line. Changes in today's lineup included Beard and Sanders at the guard posts. The Trojans play Washington Dec. 1.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Ted Key, hard-hitting fullback, today was definitely counted out of the lineup of U. C. L. A. will stack against Oregon State here Saturday. His loss will throw the entire burden on Remington Olmstead who distinguished himself by breaking up St. Mary's passing attack ten days ago.

WALLULIS SCORES 16 STRAIGHT WINS

SEATTLE, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Frank Wallulis, former Washington State footballer, of Roslyn, counted up his 16th straight win today since entering the fighting ranks, this time over Kenneth Lee, willing young heavyweight from Modesto, Cal.

Wallulis won on a knockout in the third of a scheduled eight rounder last night over a fighter who held Fred Lenhart, state heavyweight titleholder, to a draw at Tacoma on his last trip north. Wallulis weighed 201 and Lee 192.

The windup bout saw Ford Smith, formerly of Kallispell, Mont., and Al Morro, Los Angeles Italian, battle to an eight round draw, after Morro had taken an early lead with some terrific punches. Tiring, he let Smith catch up. Smith weighed 200, and Morro 200.

Eddie Terry, Vancouver, B. C., welterweight, wore down Billy Azevedo, of Oakland, to win a six round decision.

Newaby Millich, Sacramento middleweight, drew in four rounds with Dick Gordon, Bellingham; Young Corpus, Filipino lightweight, knocked out Gil Folks, New Westminster, B. C., in the second; and Roy Ockler, Portland lightweight, won a four rounder from Justo Pason, Filipino.

Hall to Head Net Groups For 1935
NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Tennis in this country will be ruled for another year by Walter Merrill Hall of New York, a former "First Ten" luminary.

Hall, who was elevated to the presidency of the United States Lawn Tennis association early this year, and four other officers have been re-named for 1935 by the association's nominating committee.

Officers named with Hall are: Holcombe Ward of New York, first vice president; Joseph W. Ivy of Kansas City, second vice president; Ralph W. Westcott of Chicago, secretary, and Lawrence A. Baker of Washington, treasurer.

Nominations in the past have been tantamount to election. The election will be at the U. S. L. T. A.'s annual meeting in Cincinnati on Feb. 9.

Return Game Asked For Saints, Broncs
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—(AP)—The San Francisco Knights of Columbus charity committee today awaited word from St. Mary's college and University of Santa Clara to its proposal that the football eleven of the schools play another game here in December.

While neither school has replied officially, from private sources it was learned that the plan will be rejected, despite the unsatisfactory conditions under which the teams played last Sunday, when St. Mary's won, 7-0, on a muddy field.

Tentative dates for the proposed games were as Dec. 16 and Dec. 23.

REACHES BIG TIME
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 21.—(AP)—Babe Pinelli, former Cincinnati infielder who umpired in the Pacific Coast league for the last two years, was signed as a National league umpire for next year, it was announced at the minor league convention today.

JUST BEFORE THE SLAUGHTER!

Here's Cal Clemens intercepting Maury Van Vliet's pass as the first quarter ended in the Oregon-Southern Cal game at Los Angeles Saturday. Clemens ran the interception back to Oregon territory, and the Trojans started the first of many goal-line marches. Terjeson, with the white bands on his arms, was intended as the pass receiver.

HIGHCLIMBER Takes 'em over

By RICHARD JOHNSTON
Why did Oregon lose to Southern Cal 33 to 0 Saturday? You've been promised an answer to that question all week, and here it is, to the best of our knowledge, gained from Coach Prink Callison and Bill Hayward.

There are a number of reasons. First and foremost, however, is the loss of Ralph Terjeson, at the end of the first quarter. Those of you who doubt that the loss of one man could possibly send a team into such a crushing defeat may well consider this fact: Of all key positions on the Callison squad, that of blocking quarter is just about the most important. The quarterback leads the interference, blocks for the ball carrier, and, most important of all, backs up the line.

This is not always true of the Callison system. Last year Prink had Iron Mike to catch the enemy ball-carriers as they came through. But Terjeson was the only man on the squad this year who could rate up behind the line of scrimmage and mow them down.

That's one thing. Another was the mistake in strategy early in the first period when Oregon planned deep into Troy territory, and then pulled a pass on second down, made considerable yardage on third and missed a first down by inches the last time. Had Oregon made that first down and subsequently scored, the result, all agree, would have been different.

You may point out that Cotton Warburton completed three passes, a batting average of .750. True, but Terjeson, in addition to backing up the line, was a valuable pass defense man, and from his buffer position could help diagnose opposition plays and call the turn on them.

But Southern Cal was roaring through that line to begin with, and when Terjeson went out the Oregon boys knew they were licked. Not in the sense of lying down, you understand, but they realized as well as Callison

Early this year the theory that Callison was specializing in quality rather than quantity was advanced. This is true. But the drawbacks of such a system are more and more apparent. Too much depends on the key players. And there's nothing, this year at least, that can be done about it.

So, all you downtown coaches and second-guessers, think things over before you start panning the Oregon team and coach. Those 33 points mean nothing. When a team is two or three touchdowns behind and hopelessly beaten, they don't kill themselves trying to hold down the score. They look ahead to the next ball game. It's the smart thing to do. It's a human nature, among other things.

Tomorrow: Oregon is playing USC at Los Angeles in 1935. Why this is an unavoidable circumstance will be explained in Thursday's Highclimber.

Yarnell, Onetime Turkey Red, KO's Klamath Battler
PORTLAND, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Private Torchy Yarnell, of Uncle Sam's army, knocked out Jack Hibbard, Klamath Falls, just before the end of the sixth round with a devastating left hook to the chin here last night. The end came as Hibbard was being along for a strong finish. Just previous to the knockout, Hibbard had rocked Torchy with a left to the chin. In the fifth round, Yarnell dropped Hibbard with lefts to the stomach for counts of four and five. Torchy weighed 160 pounds, Hibbard 155.

At Mustola, 120 Clatskanie, and LeRoy Gibson, 133, Wichita, Kan., went six slam-bang rounds to a draw. Mustola floundered the colored boy for a one-count in the fifth. Frankie Monroe, 137, Lakeview, accidentally fouled Russ Howard, 144, Klamath Falls, in the first of their scheduled six-round bout.

FRANKLIN SWAMPED
PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 21.—(AP)—Final week of play in the prep league saw Jefferson high school register a 20-0 victory over Franklin high gridder yesterday.

BOX IN PORTLAND
Two boxers from the Eugene Athletic club are to meet a pair of Multnomah club leather pushers tonight in Portland. Reuben Thomas, 155 pounds, will tangle with Johnny Saltes, while Joe Broadhead, middle, will meet Larry Caputo, who recently defeated Wilmer Tucker.

Announcement Of Rose Team Set Saturday

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—(AP)—The Pacific Coast representative in the Rose Bowl game at Pasadena New Year's day will be announced Saturday night, officials of the Pacific Coast conference said today.

A telegraphic vote of Pacific Coast conference members will be taken immediately after the Stanford-California and Washington-Washington State games.

While neither Stanford or Washington State has been beaten in conference play, it was believed that should both win Saturday Stanford will be chosen because of its undefeated record through the season. Washington State has lost two outside games.

The conference champion, traditionally the West Coast entrant in the classic, also picks the eastern team it desires as its opponent.

YMCA TRACK TEAM IS ORGANIZED HERE

A group of Eugene athletes and former college and high school track men have organized under the leadership of Louis Neale, star miler, and taking the name of the "Y. M. C. A. Olympic Track Team" will participate in meets this spring with various northwest schools.

The first meeting was held Monday night at the Y, with a turnout of about 25. Neale was elected captain, with Ethan Newman as secretary-manager. Plans are being made for several meets, and the group hopes to build up a strong unit, with strength evenly distributed throughout the various events. Only Y. M. C. A. members are eligible.

The following were present Monday night: Clarence Taylor, discus, javelin, shot and broad jump. Taylor threw the javelin 100 feet in unofficial trial.

Edgar Gerhard, 440 and 880; Roy Browning, 880, mile, 2-mile; Don Bowman, high jump and low hurdles; Ed Turner, 220, 100 and low hurdles; Russ Callentine, 220, 100 and relay; Bernard Cain, half mile and mile; Ethan Newman, 100, 200, 440 and relay; Louis Neale, half mile, mile and two-mile.

The next meeting will be Monday evening, November 26, at 7:30 in the Y lobby. Any young men interested in participating are urged to attend.

COMMISSION FIGHTS OVER FIGHT JUDGING

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—(AP)—The New York State Athletic commission, having failed to agree on a system of judging fights which would eliminate so many questionable decisions, has invited suggestions from the public.

Brig. Gen. John J. Phelan, although desiring to fight 100, has a modicum, favors the present combined system of point scoring and round awards. Bill Brown, his militant associate and former referee, would scrap the complicated code and give the referee sole power over the proceedings in the ring. The suggestions will be considered Friday.

Under the rules, a boxer may lose a round for any of a dozen minor rule infractions. The judges are required to count two points each for ring generalship, aggressiveness and defense, and four for effective punching, a total of 10 in each round.

Wheat Down One Cent; Stocks Gain Quietly

SEVERAL F. O. B. PORTLAND PRICES ON POULTRY UP

Wheat prices dropped one cent on the Eugene market Tuesday afternoon, to 85 cents a bushel for both red and white wheat.

Changes in several poultry prices were announced also Tuesday afternoon by the Pacific Co-Op. One cent advances were made by colored young roasters, 14 cents, No. 2's, 10 cents, capons, 6 pounds and up, 20 cents, and live ducks, 19 cents. The prices are F. O. B. Portland.

Hothouse cucumbers are very scarce and have jumped from 80 cents a dozen to $1.20, buying price. Parsimoniums, pomegranates, cocanuts and other winter fruits from warmer climates are on sale at local grocery stores now. Winter asparagus is on sale at several stores also.

Delicious apples are nearing the end of their season. They are beginning to get mealy and the sale is tapering off.
