Obituaries
Niels Borgaard
JUNCTION CITY, Dec. 21.—(Special)—Niels Borgaard died at the home of his son, Paul, on Wednesday evening, Dec. 19. He had been in poor health for four years and on Nov. 4 he suffered a stroke and has been bedfast since.
Niels Borgaard was born in Denmark July 4, 1856, and when a boy 18 years of age came to America and located in Marquette, Mich. Later the family moved to Illinois where he met and married Anne Margaret Paulsen in 1878. Soon after this the young couple went to Nebraska where they homesteaded and lived many years. Mr. and Mrs. Borgaard came to Oregon and Lane county in 1912. He and his sons bought land in the Harmony district. In 1918 they moved to town where he has since lived. Mrs. Borgaard died in 1926.
Two daughters and four sons survive: Mrs. Sarah Shannon, Norman, Neb.; Paul Borgaard, Junction City; Andrew Borgaard, Minden, Neb.; Mrs. Emma Matheson, Minden, Neb.; and Fred and Alfred of Chesire. One daughter, Mrs. Elsie Begonke, died in the fall of 1918, in Pasco, Wash. There are also 21 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren. There is one sister in Denmark and one brother, Rev. Jens Borgaard, in Salvand, Cal. Funeral arrangements will be made later, awaiting definite word from relatives in the east.

When the Mexican oil well Potrero de Llano No. 4 came in, oil flooded surrounding country to such extent that a 45-acre area was walled up and a crude-oil lake containing 105,000,000 gallons was formed.
