Local Markets Steady; Wall Street Day Dull

NO CHANGES SEEN IN PRODUCE PRICE IN LANE COUNTY

All market prices in Eugene were steady Friday. Eggs which have been fluctuating for some time past appeared to be at a standstill and poultry prices despite the demand for turkeys and chickens for Christmas dinners have been unchanged for several days.

Corn Futures Mart Showing Activity

CHICAGO, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Larger buying in the corn futures market than has recently been witnessed led to late advances of corn prices today, and helped to rally wheat.

Demand for corn futures was due more or less to the fact that prices had broken about 8 cents a bushel from the recent high point. There was some talk that in view of lack of subsoil moisture in the spring wheat area, the aggregate crop of all wheat for 1935 might turn out below normal domestic requirements.

Corn closed unsettled, 1-8 off to 5-8 up compared with yesterday's finish, May 86 1-2-5-8, wheat, 1-4-1-2 advanced, May 98 1-2-5-8, oats 1-8-1-2 down, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 10 cents.

EGG MARKET HIT BY PRICE CUTTING

PORTLAND, Dec. 21.—(AP)—While there were no official price changes in eggs today, there appeared more or less cutting. Card prices were being ignored, not only here but at Eugene and other points.

Weaker tone was again suggested for butter here but the code prohibits lower prices until officially named by the produce exchange.

Market for chicken was weak and live fowls were dragging with considerable stock unsold on dealers' floors. Prices were in spots a trifle down again.

Good quality dressed geese were finding favor here but the market was low on poor stuff. Good quality dressed ducks were also in favor with prices maintained generally. Capons were firmly priced.

Both veal and lambs were showing slight price betterment at the weekend. Hogs and beef were without further change.
