

PROGRAM IS PUT ON AT OAKRIDGE

OAKRIDGE, Jan. 3.—(Special)—A program of unusual merit was put on at the CCC camp Sunday afternoon by four young artists of Portland. The little group consisted of Marilyn and Muriel Bauman, daughters of Mrs. Carol M. Bauman, and Junior Bruno who attended Isadora Fordham school of dancing in Portland and Miss Gloria Padellini, a student of the St. Mary's Academy. Miss Padellini is well known in musical circles in Portland being a promising pianist, pianist and vocalist. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Padellini.

The program was put on through the efforts of A. E. Gerimonte of Astoria and the group were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gerimonte while in the city. Snappy dance numbers, singing and singing and peppy toasting was put on by the group. Especially enjoyable was the demonstration of the Continental and the dances danced by Junior Bruno and Miss Padellini. Little Miss Marilyn Bauman, who is only seven years old, went over in a big way when she gave her interpretation of the hula-hula, and at the same time singing a Hawaiian number. Junior Bruno received much applause on his acrobatic numbers. Beautiful costumes worn by the little company added much color to the numbers. The CCC orchestra accompanied the dancers. Miss Padellini played two piano selections during the afternoon. A large number of townspeople were invited to see the company of the officers and members of company 943 for the entertainment.

There is six feet of snow at the summit now and it keeps several S. S. crews busy keeping the right-of-way cleared. The trains have been running on regular schedule in spite of the hazard. According to reports the snow is not yet suitable for skiing.

The Arnez Construction company has ceased operations on account of the weather and work will not open up until the weather clears up. Several feet of new snow has fallen at Astoria where the company is operating, and this greatly hinders the work which is a continuation of the Willamette highway. The company has completed the buildings which will house the workers, the cook house and the machinery.

Mike Boebert has returned to his home in Silverton after visiting several weeks with his grandmother, Mrs. Tabitha Lamm, and his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Nystrum. Mr. and Mrs. Harland Hyatt of the Hood forest district were visitors at the home of Ranger and Mrs. H. McFarland during the Christmas holidays. The Hyatts formerly lived in Oakridge.

Miss Maude Clark has returned to her home in San Francisco after spending the Christmas holidays with her parents and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie O'Hearne of Dayton City were here over the holidays with Mrs. O'Hearne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hill.

Fred Reicher and Luther Rogers are returned to their home here on Heather where they have been employed with Arnez Construction company.

Best Adams, Charles Paddock, Jr., and Brittain Ash returned Tuesday to their studies at the University of Oregon.

C. R. Jones and daughter, Betty, and Mrs. Caroline Strong were in Eugene Monday.

Mrs. C. E. Gage is home after a week's stay in the Eugene hospital. C. E. Gage and J. E. Paddock accompanied her from Eugene.

Best Adams spent the Christmas holidays with his mother at Pryor. He is a student at the U. of O.

The high school basketball teams have Friday for Marcola to play their fourth conference game.

Paul Lamm of Ryderwood, Wash., spent the Christmas and New Year holidays with his mother, Mrs. Tabitha Lamm, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Nystrum.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS
E. E. West et al to Charles J. Hill et al—lots 5 & 6 blk 58 Hills add acreage $10.
C. A. Daltell et al to Ernest Worth et al—tract in blk 4 Shaw's 2nd add acreage $10.
Charles T. Felsbee et al to Warren Smith et al—29 A to 17-4 W $10.
Wilhelm Coll et al to Minnie Frank et al in Hunts add Springfield $1.
George T. Ray to John L. Padden et al—17-4 W $300.
John W. Stornment et al to True Lynne Bigelow—tract tp 17-1 W $10.
Martha R. Stornment to Marion A. Bigelow et al—tract tp 17-1 W $1.
Russell B. Remis et al to Charles Remis et al—W 1/2 lots 3 & 4 blk 1 Lyons add Cottage Grove $510.50.
Roy Bellows et al to Theodore Decker et al—223 A sec 29 tp 20-3 W $10.

W. B. Lee et al to Goldie M. Harris et al lots 6 & 7 blk 6 Melrose add acreage $10.

Cottage Grove News

COTTAGE GROVE, Jan. 3.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Loucks were given a reception at the Christian church, Cottage Grove, Tuesday night in honor of their golden wedding anniversary. Rev. I. G. Shaw, pastor of the church, read the service in front of wedding bells at which the couple repledged their vows and a reception followed. About 50 were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Loucks were married at Trent, South Dakota, Jan. 1, 1885. They have resided in Cottage Grove the past 20 years. They are the parents of three children, Mrs. Gladys D. Ide, Ph. D., of Philadelphia, who is director of special education; Glen R. Loucks, engineering expert with the Federal Land Bank, Oakland, Cal., and Mrs. John Earl Van Nortwick of Cottage Grove. Mrs. Van Nortwick is a graduate of the University of Oregon, and member of Kappa Delta sorority. Mr. Loucks is a retired lawyer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Helliwell were hosts to the O. W. Dinner club Tuesday evening. Additional guests were Mrs. Helliwell's mother, Mrs. Nannie Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Nelson who were in place of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Grube of Penza who were unable to be present. Also Mrs. Adams of Oakland, Cal., guest of her son Charles Adams of Eugene. Holiday decorations were used and the evening was spent socially.

Attendance at seven Cottage Grove churches last Sunday was 1922. This was 900 less than the previous Sunday. The average attendance during the past three months was 1840, the highest attendance being 2012, Dec. 23, Christmas Sunday, and the lowest attendance was 1451 Sunday, Nov. 4. Church attendance usually is higher in the period between Christmas and Easter than any other time in the year, and it is hoped that the attendance of the several churches will exceed 2000 many Sundays during the next few months.

The Cottage Grove Ministerial association will hold its regular monthly

Creswell Community News

CRESWELL, Jan. 3.—(Special)—A gay group of young folks accompanied by "Pop" (C. O.) Groshong and "Ma" (J. E.) Smith, who supplied the congee, made the trip to Lost Creek ranch the morning of New Year's day and spent several hours enjoying winter sports. The owner of the place was a cordial host and this, the first experience for several, proved to be a thrilling one. A chicken dinner was served at the grange hall for them upon their return. Those making the trip were C. O. Groshong, J. E. Smith, Frank Clark, George Kwyther, Ruth Holbrook, Jean Bell, Ruth Bell, Erlene Grousbek, Kathryn Treaner, Barbara Campbell, Earl Grousbek, Harold Gwyther, La Verne Miller, Carol Gwyther, Robert Smith, Clarence Redmond and Robert Sly.

The members of "The Bank of Music" met at the home of their teacher, Miss Tryon, Saturday afternoon. Those who gave piano numbers were Pauline Land, Muriel Olson, Celeste Warner, Marguerite Hubbard, Beverly, Barbara Jo and Bobbie Traxler, Doris Benton, Elizabeth Ann Miller and Dorothy Wright. After the earnings for the month were deposited in the Bank of Music Dorothy Wright was found to have the largest sum which entitled her to be president for the month. The other officers according to their deposits were: first vice-president, Doris Benton; second vice-president, Muriel Olson; third vice-president, Pauline Land; fourth vice-president, Celeste Warner; cashier, Beverly Traxler; assistant cashier, Ruth Brynne; teller, Marion Olson; assistant teller, Mary Louise Stone; directors, Barbara Jo Traxler, Marguerite Hubbard, Donna Jean Allen, Leola Kent, Martha Yoder, Pauline Hubbard, Jean Myrna, Mabel and Elizabeth Ann Miller and Bobbie Traxler.

Mayor and Mrs. C. S. Scarbrough are rejoicing over the birth Wednesday morning of a daughter at the Nelson maternity home. This is their first child and the mayor is wearing a smile that won't wash off. Congratulations.

Franklin Viles, a former student of Creswell high school and Lawrence Minton of Eugene visited Tuesday at the home of Clarence Redmond. Franklin is with the telephone crew of the CCC camp now stationed at Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry George and daughters Mabel and Marie were meeting Saturday, Jan. 5, at 1 p. m. at the Methodist church.

There will be a joint meeting of the official board and mid-week service on Thursday, Jan. 3, at 7:30. Topic for discussion will be "The Work of Our Church in 1935."

Bernard Cook of San Francisco visited Sunday at the home of his aunt, Mrs. F. B. Van Nortwick.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Stewart were dinner guests Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Parker at Dexter. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Parker were also present. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parker, are remaining at Dexter for a week's visit.

Dinner guests Tuesday of Mrs. Lee Williams were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bilderback of Wendling, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Peterson and son Lawrence of Springfield.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Andrew Brund.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Van Nortwick are building a new cottage of the English type on South Second street.

F. E. Oxner of Monterey, Cal., and daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hastie of Eugene visited Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Van Nortwick.

Mrs. N. E. Manock and daughter Louise and son Eugene of Aurora, were holiday guests at the home of Mrs. Manock's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Van Nortwick.

Among students returning to their respective schools Tuesday were Madeleine Reider, Frances Mackin, Carolyn Gramis and Albert Smith, Jr. Victor Goff, Eugene; Dorothy Stewart, Albany; Fay Stewart, Harold Mackin, Melvin Brees, Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kline went to Portland Wednesday on a visit.

Mrs. Inez Glazier, grand associate conductress of the grand chapter, Eastern Star of Oregon was in Cottage Grove Wednesday en route to her home from Eugene. Mrs. Glazier has recently returned from a trip to Florida.

News of Marcola

MARCOLA, Jan. 3.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schroeder and daughter spent the holidays with Mrs. Schroeder's sister and family at Vancouver, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. John Purcell, Mrs. Adrian Trapani of Corvallis and Mr. and Mrs. Pettijohn of Springfield were calling on relatives and old-time friends here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Baxter of Wendling, Cecil Baxter of Portland, Louise Boesen, Ella Boesen of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Riley Garrison were visitors at the C. N. Baxter home at Thurston Sunday afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Savage of Springfield visited with relatives here recently.

Dale Fischer spent part of the time with his parents here during the vacation at the U. of O.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Healy visited with Mr. Healy's parents at Dallas during the layoff.

Earl Hill sprained his left ankle quite badly and will be laid off from his work for some time, when he slipped on the wet porch at the Oscar Page home here last week. It was at first thought the ankle was broken.

Mrs. Amanda Gwathney, Mrs. Jane Bruner and Mr. and Mrs. Emitt Simmonds, all of Lebanon, spent Christmas here with Mr. and Mrs. Calbert Wilson and family. Mrs. Bruner is the mother, and Mrs. Gwathney is a sister, of Mrs. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. William Howe entertained a number of friends Saturday evening. The evening was spent in playing cards. There were five tables of five hundred in play. Those present were out of town guests, Mr. and Mrs. James Wheeler and son William of Bradwood, Mr. and Mrs. Geo.

The Walker grade school, Miss Margaret Gwyther teacher, will open Monday of next week.

Miss Vera Gwyther has a position in the Pacific hospital in Eugene.

Miss Leda Everson, who has spent the holidays with her people, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Everson and family, left Tuesday for Fort Dodge, Iowa, where she is an instructor in music.

The annual meeting of the Creswell Consolidated Telephone company will be held Saturday afternoon, January 5, at 2:30 in the Scarbrough hall. A large attendance of patrons is urged.

New Year's Dinners Are Held at Halsey

HAISEY, Jan. 3.—(Special)—New Year's day dinners were not so numerous as were the Christmas day dinners but some were held both in town and the country nearby. Mr. and Mrs. Eldon F. Cross entertained with a family dinner on that day. Those enjoying the baked goose and trimmings were Mr. Cross' mother, Mrs. Clara LaFollette, and husband, his brother, Jess O. Cross, and wife and son Barton, his aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth J. White, his brother George Cross, and wife and two nieces, Miss Mary Umstead, of Salem and Miss Julia Umstead, of Eugene, and James S. McWilliams.

Clarence Evans and his sister Maria Evans from the Irish Bend neighborhood are having an extensive vacation in eastern Oregon on a combined business and pleasure trip. Mr. Evans is seeing after his farming interests near Athena and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bressler and family motored to Lebanon Sunday and brought their little son and brother, Buster Bressler, home from the Lebanon hospital where he was operated upon Christmas day for a rupture caused by falling down a flight of stairs the night before. He is recovering satisfactorily.

The next meeting of the P. T. A. will be held at the school house Jan. 14. Mrs. James S. McMahan, president, announces.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Siskels and two sons Harold and Dale enjoyed the company of Mr. Siskels' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chancy Siskels, and four grandchildren, Louise, Dee, Chancy, Jr., and Lynn Barnes, and his sister Mrs. Charles G. Hamer and husband and son Jimmie, Sunday for dinner. Juanita Hamer spent the day visiting the Godykoontz girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ray of Monmouth and Mr. Ray's daughter, Mrs. Frank Reif and husband and daughter Donna of Princeton, spent Sunday visiting Mrs. Ray's father, E. A. P. LaFollette and wife.

Herman Koontz, George Cross and Gordon Palmer motored to Eugene on Monday on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay P. Moody and son Cedric and daughter Coralea of Marshfield have been visiting the last few days at the Dana C. Rossman home. They were Christmas guests of Mr. Moody's brother, Fred Moody and family near Pine Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. George Scott of Harrisburg were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Scott's brother, Fred Moody and family.

Miss Doris Jones was brought home from the Pacific Christian hospital Monday afternoon and it is reported that she is convalescing satisfactorily following a major operation for appendicitis the day after Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Tutill and infant daughter, Patricia of Oakland

Daugherty were dinner guests Wednesday of Mrs. Clara Wallace.

Don Bertsch returned home to Eugene Tuesday after visiting over the week-end with his grandmother, Mrs. Cora Olson.

Guy Edward Leabo, son of Loyal Leabo suffered a badly bruised hand and arm Tuesday when he put them into an electric winger at the C. E. Leabo home. He was taken to Eugene for treatment where no bones were found broken.

Mrs. Ethel Treaner, Dolbert Saffley of Cottage Grove and Lloyd Albrecht were dinner guests New Year's day of Mrs. Cora Olson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Kent and daughter Lucile, Mrs. Clara Wallace, Mrs. Nadine Quigley and Everett Daugherty were guests at a waffle supper Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Grousbek and family.

Earl Redmond was home from the Oakridge CCC camp Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Walker grade school, Miss Margaret Gwyther teacher, will open Monday of next week.

Miss Vera Gwyther has a position in the Pacific hospital in Eugene.

Miss Leda Everson, who has spent the holidays with her people, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Everson and family, left Tuesday for Fort Dodge, Iowa, where she is an instructor in music.

The annual meeting of the Creswell Consolidated Telephone company will be held Saturday afternoon, January 5, at 2:30 in the Scarbrough hall. A large attendance of patrons is urged.

Miss Elizabeth Sedgwick left Wednesday for Dallas where she will take up her duties Thursday in the city schools.

Miss Harriet Olson was home from Eugene Tuesday. She is employed in the office of the Pacific hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Clark and son Gerald, Miss Alma Grousbek and her guest, Everett Daugherty were among those from here attending the winter sports carnival up the McKenzie New Year's day.

Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Burgoyne and daughter Ruth were dinner guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Land and family.

C. S. Faunce of Eugene, former superintendent of the Creswell schools called on Creswell friends Wednesday. He is now with the Fuller Brush people.

Miss Alma Grousbek and Everett

Daugherty were dinner guests Wednesday of Mrs. Clara Wallace.

Don Bertsch returned home to Eugene Tuesday after visiting over the week-end with his grandmother, Mrs. Cora Olson.

Guy Edward Leabo, son of Loyal Leabo suffered a badly bruised hand and arm Tuesday when he put them into an electric winger at the C. E. Leabo home. He was taken to Eugene for treatment where no bones were found broken.

Mrs. Ethel Treaner, Dolbert Saffley of Cottage Grove and Lloyd Albrecht were dinner guests New Year's day of Mrs. Cora Olson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Kent and daughter Lucile, Mrs. Clara Wallace, Mrs. Nadine Quigley and Everett Daugherty were guests at a waffle supper Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Grousbek and family.

Earl Redmond was home from the Oakridge CCC camp Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Walker grade school, Miss Margaret Gwyther teacher, will open Monday of next week.

Miss Vera Gwyther has a position in the Pacific hospital in Eugene.

Miss Leda Everson, who has spent the holidays with her people, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Everson and family, left Tuesday for Fort Dodge, Iowa, where she is an instructor in music.

The annual meeting of the Creswell Consolidated Telephone company will be held Saturday afternoon, January 5, at 2:30 in the Scarbrough hall. A large attendance of patrons is urged.

Miss Elizabeth Sedgwick left Wednesday for Dallas where she will take up her duties Thursday in the city schools.

Miss Harriet Olson was home from Eugene Tuesday. She is employed in the office of the Pacific hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Clark and son Gerald, Miss Alma Grousbek and her guest, Everett Daugherty were among those from here attending the winter sports carnival up the McKenzie New Year's day.

Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Burgoyne and daughter Ruth were dinner guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Land and family.

C. S. Faunce of Eugene, former superintendent of the Creswell schools called on Creswell friends Wednesday. He is now with the Fuller Brush people.

Miss Alma Grousbek and Everett

Daugherty were dinner guests Wednesday of Mrs. Clara Wallace.

Don Bertsch returned home to Eugene Tuesday after visiting over the week-end with his grandmother, Mrs. Cora Olson.

Guy Edward Leabo, son of Loyal Leabo suffered a badly bruised hand and arm Tuesday when he put them into an electric winger at the C. E. Leabo home. He was taken to Eugene for treatment where no bones were found broken.

Mrs. Ethel Treaner, Dolbert Saffley of Cottage Grove and Lloyd Albrecht were dinner guests New Year's day of Mrs. Cora Olson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Kent and daughter Lucile, Mrs. Clara Wallace, Mrs. Nadine Quigley and Everett Daugherty were guests at a waffle supper Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Grousbek and family.

Earl Redmond was home from the Oakridge CCC camp Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Walker grade school, Miss Margaret Gwyther teacher, will open Monday of next week.

Miss Vera Gwyther has a position in the Pacific hospital in Eugene.

Miss Leda Everson, who has spent the holidays with her people, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Everson and family, left Tuesday for Fort Dodge, Iowa, where she is an instructor in music.

The annual meeting of the Creswell Consolidated Telephone company will be held Saturday afternoon, January 5, at 2:30 in the Scarbrough hall. A large attendance of patrons is urged.

Miss Elizabeth Sedgwick left Wednesday for Dallas where she will take up her duties Thursday in the city schools.

Miss Harriet Olson was home from Eugene Tuesday. She is employed in the office of the Pacific hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Clark and son Gerald, Miss Alma Grousbek and her guest, Everett Daugherty were among those from here attending the winter sports carnival up the McKenzie New Year's day.

Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Burgoyne and daughter Ruth were dinner guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Land and family.

C. S. Faunce of Eugene, former superintendent of the Creswell schools called on Creswell friends Wednesday. He is now with the Fuller Brush people.

Miss Alma Grousbek and Everett

Daugherty were dinner guests Wednesday of Mrs. Clara Wallace.

Don Bertsch returned home to Eugene Tuesday after visiting over the week-end with his grandmother, Mrs. Cora Olson.

Guy Edward Leabo, son of Loyal Leabo suffered a badly bruised hand and arm Tuesday when he put them into an electric winger at the C. E. Leabo home. He was taken to Eugene for treatment where no bones were found broken.

Mrs. Ethel Treaner, Dolbert Saffley of Cottage Grove and Lloyd Albrecht were dinner guests New Year's day of Mrs. Cora Olson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Kent and daughter Lucile, Mrs. Clara Wallace, Mrs. Nadine Quigley and Everett Daugherty were guests at a waffle supper Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Grousbek and family.

Earl Redmond was home from the Oakridge CCC camp Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Walker grade school, Miss Margaret Gwyther teacher, will open Monday of next week.

Miss Vera Gwyther has a position in the Pacific hospital in Eugene.

Miss Leda Everson, who has spent the holidays with her people, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Everson and family, left Tuesday for Fort Dodge, Iowa, where she is an instructor in music.

The annual meeting of the Creswell Consolidated Telephone company will be held Saturday afternoon, January 5, at 2:30 in the Scarbrough hall. A large attendance of patrons is urged.

Miss Elizabeth Sedgwick left Wednesday for Dallas where she will take up her duties Thursday in the city schools.

Miss Harriet Olson was home from Eugene Tuesday. She is employed in the office of the Pacific hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Clark and son Gerald, Miss Alma Grousbek and her guest, Everett Daugherty were among those from here attending the winter sports carnival up the McKenzie New Year's day.

Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Burgoyne and daughter Ruth were dinner guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Land and family.

C. S. Faunce of Eugene, former superintendent of the Creswell schools called on Creswell friends Wednesday. He is now with the Fuller Brush people.

Miss Alma Grousbek and Everett

Daugherty were dinner guests Wednesday of Mrs. Clara Wallace.

Don Bertsch returned home to Eugene Tuesday after visiting over the week-end with his grandmother, Mrs. Cora Olson.

Guy Edward Leabo, son of Loyal Leabo suffered a badly bruised hand and arm Tuesday when he put them into an electric winger at the C. E. Leabo home. He was taken to Eugene for treatment where no bones were found broken.

Mrs. Ethel Treaner, Dolbert Saffley of Cottage Grove and Lloyd Albrecht were dinner guests New Year's day of Mrs. Cora Olson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Kent and daughter Lucile, Mrs. Clara Wallace, Mrs. Nadine Quigley and Everett Daugherty were guests at a waffle supper Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Grousbek and family.

Earl Redmond was home from the Oakridge CCC camp Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Walker grade school, Miss Margaret Gwyther teacher, will open Monday of next week.

Miss Vera Gwyther has a position in the Pacific hospital in Eugene.

Miss Leda Everson, who has spent the holidays with her people, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Everson and family, left Tuesday for Fort Dodge, Iowa, where she is an instructor in music.

The annual meeting of the Creswell Consolidated Telephone company will be held Saturday afternoon, January 5, at 2:30 in the Scarbrough hall. A large attendance of patrons is urged.

Miss Elizabeth Sedgwick left Wednesday for Dallas where she will take up her duties Thursday in the city schools.

Miss Harriet Olson was home from Eugene Tuesday. She is employed in the office of the Pacific hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Clark and son Gerald, Miss Alma Grousbek and her guest, Everett Daugherty were among those from here attending the winter sports carnival up the McKenzie New Year's day.

Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Burgoyne and daughter Ruth were dinner guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Land and family.

C. S. Faunce of Eugene, former superintendent of the Creswell schools called on Creswell friends Wednesday. He is now with the Fuller Brush people.

Miss Alma Grousbek and Everett

Daugherty were dinner guests Wednesday of Mrs. Clara Wallace.

Don Bertsch returned home to Eugene Tuesday after visiting over the week-end with his grandmother, Mrs. Cora Olson.

Guy Edward Leabo, son of Loyal Leabo suffered a badly bruised hand and arm Tuesday when he put them into an electric winger at the C. E. Leabo home. He was taken to Eugene for treatment where no bones were found broken.

Mrs. Ethel Treaner, Dolbert Saffley of Cottage Grove and Lloyd Albrecht were dinner guests New Year's day of Mrs. Cora Olson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Kent and daughter Lucile, Mrs. Clara Wallace, Mrs. Nadine Quigley and Everett Daugherty were guests at a waffle supper Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Grousbek and family.

Earl Redmond was home from the Oakridge CCC camp Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Walker grade school, Miss Margaret Gwyther teacher, will open Monday of next week.

Miss Vera Gwyther has a position in the Pacific hospital in Eugene.

Miss Leda Everson, who has spent the holidays with her people, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Everson and family, left Tuesday for Fort Dodge, Iowa, where she is an instructor in music.

The annual meeting of the Creswell Consolidated Telephone company will be held Saturday afternoon, January 5, at 2:30 in the Scarbrough hall. A large attendance of patrons is urged.

Miss Elizabeth Sedgwick left Wednesday for Dallas where she will take up her duties Thursday in the city schools.

Miss Harriet Olson was home from Eugene Tuesday. She is employed in the office of the Pacific hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Clark and son Gerald, Miss Alma Grousbek and her guest, Everett Daugherty were among those from here attending the winter sports carnival up the McKenzie New Year