Annual Party Is Event Saturday Evening

THE end of Yuletide was celebrated with traditional merriment and the burning of the greens by members of the Eugene Shakespeare club, Saturday evening, who gave their annual Twelfthnight dinner and party at the Osburn hotel. About fifty attended.

Mrs. Lawrence W. Manerud, Mrs. S. D. Allen, and Mrs. David B. Evans were the committee in charge for the event this year.

Mrs. John Stark Evans, club president, extended the greetings in rhyme. Roll call was answered by members who gave quotations on women from Shakespeare's plays, Dr. W. P. Boynton sang "Romeo and Juliet."

Mrs. Evans explained the occasion of Twelfthnight. A feature of the evening was the wassail, brought in and taken about the table. Carols were sung by George Bishop, Dale Cooley, and Leonard Rebe, accompanied by John Stark Evans.

Miss Virginia Wapenstein and William Schloeth, university students, presented a skit from "Taming of the Shrew." The burning of the greens concluded the evening's program. Although twelfthnight comes today the club made its observance Saturday evening.

In addition to club members and their husbands, the guests included Mrs. W. F. Jewett, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Chambers, Captain and Mrs. W. A. Wapenstein, Misses Emma and Nettie Chase, Miss Betty Anne Macduff, Miss Helen F. Staples, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. E. W. Bird of Spokane.

The Shakespeare club is to hold its regular meeting Monday afternoon at the McMoran and Washburne store. The group will continue on King Lear, taking up Scene VI of Act II.

Vaughan-Skene

The marriage of Miss Pamela Skene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Skene, to Wilbur C. Vaughan, son of Mrs. E. Vaughan of Portland, was solemnized Tuesday morning, New Year's day, at ten o'clock in the study of Rev. Clay E. Palmer of the First Congregational church. Only members of the families attended the wedding. The couple was unattended. The bride wore a suit of dark red with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias. A floral dinner was served later at the McCrady cafe. Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan are to make their home in Portland. Both are former students of the University of Oregon where the bride is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority.

Bridge Tourney

WELFARE League members are busy the next three weeks with work for the International Olympic bridge tournament, which League members are sponsoring in Eugene for the benefit of their new program establishment of a children's ward at the Pacific hospital.

The tournament is to be played here the evening of February 1 at the Osburn hotel at seven-thirty o'clock. It is played the one evening only in connection with the international tournament. It will be to duplicate or progressive, and foursome to play at its own table.

Mrs. Arthur A. Rogers, chairman, Mrs. Wilson H. Jewett, Mrs. George F. Schaefer, Mrs. George Hopkins, and Mrs. L. B. Sigwart are the committee in charge. Tickets may be obtained from any of the committee.

The League voted this past week to fix up the ward for children coming under its care in its program of philanthropic and social work. All proceeds from the bridge tournament will go to aid this project.
