

Harvard Names Dick Harlow As Grid Coach Eggs Are Higher Here; Stocks Gain Moderately

OLD REGIME AT CRIMSON SHAKES UNDER NEW STYLE

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 7.—(AP)—Harvard has named Dick Harlow as its new grid coach.

Announcement that Harlow would succeed Edward J. "Eddie" Casey, who resigned Dec. 3, came as a surprise from the committee on regulation of athletic sports last night. At least six dozen others, most of them more prominent, have been mentioned as candidates.

Never before has Harvard gone outside alumni to select a coach, nor has it given any coach the free rein to be taken by the veteran from the little Westminster, Md., school.

"Harlow will have the entire responsibility of selecting his assistant coaches," said the announcement. "Not only will he recommend his choices of assistant varsity coaches, but also of all junior varsity and freshman coaches. He will be in Cambridge for spring football practice, will be a year-round man, and will not coach any other sport."

Also it was indicated that Harlow has been tendered a long term contract, which also is new for Harvard. While his salary was not mentioned, it was reliably reported a Harvard-Yale agreement limiting the head coach's salary to $80,000 (based on a policy of not paying the coaches more than professors) had been reached.

In withholding the salary figure the committee asserted, however, that its purpose was "to engage coaches on a permanent basis, not on a year-to-year basis."

Harlow, a native of Philadelphia, and 44 years old, played tackle at Penn State, 1908 to 1911, and is a World War veteran. He has turned out winners at Penn State, Colgate and Western Maryland in two decades of coaching.

Next season he will have excellent material for a tough schedule, with prospects bright for one of Harvard's best years since the Haughton era, followed by the gloomy days of the Bob Fisher, Arnold Hodween and Eddie Casey regimes.

He comes from a college with an enrollment of about 500 to a university of some 5,000—known as the "crucible" of the Ivy League.

SHADY, HUH? CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 7.—(AP)—The Harvard Crimson, undergraduate daily, referred today to Dick Harlow of Western Maryland, newly appointed head football coach at Harvard, as one whose connection has always been "with colleges of somewhat shady character in the matter of proselytizing."

The Crimson, commenting editorially on the Harlow appointment, said: "Reconciliation of the idealistic speech of William Bingham (director of Harvard athletics) before the coaching meeting, with the hiring of a football coach whose connection has always been with colleges of somewhat shady character in the matter of proselytizing is difficult."

The editorial referred to Bingham's remarks at the recent coaches' meeting in New York, where he condemned subsidizing schoolboys to come to college for football and denounced recruiting in general.
