

OLD BIBLES SHOWN AT HALSEY MEETING

HALSEY, Jan. 9.—(Special).—An interesting meeting was attended by a medium sized crowd Sunday evening at the M. E. church when a Bible was the subject of the service. Rev. David Hardy presided upon the subject of the Bible. He brought his Bible and all to bring their Bibles or other interesting volumes. Four interesting volumes were brought. A Charles Straley brought her father's and grandmother's Bibles in which all births, marriages and deaths were recorded. Rev. Hardy had a Jewish Bible there. S. McWilliams brought his Bible purchased in 1884 soon after his coming to Oregon. The Bible was more highly prized volume and was printed in 1808, and was a Latin Bible, property of McWilliams' grandfather, Thomas Kendall, who founded Oakville Presbyterian church and one at all bridge, long ago abandoned, also one near where Harmony neighborhood now stands. This service was held in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the American Bible society. Mrs. George Starr of the 23rd Psalm and Miss June of the 13th chapter of First Corinthians.

Lafayette Kellogg and wife suffered minor injuries Friday afternoon when their car turned over after skidding on the icy part of the Pacific highway north of Eugene. At this point has a particularly bad crown, it is reported. Mr. Kellogg and family were on their way to Seattle after an extended stay throughout the East. Mr. Kellogg is assistant cashier of the National Bank of Commerce of Seattle. The car had all windows broken and other damages. The occupants were only unnerfed, scratched and sprained from the accident. The car was towed to the Holman garage here for repairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cummings, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Thompson of Lost Creek enjoyed Sunday in Albany.

Professor J. Alan Wickham and wife motored to Roseburg Saturday afternoon and returned to their home here after a visit with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davis and children, LaRene, Margaret, Muri, motored to Wells Saturday and were guests of Mr. Davis' mother and his sister, Douglas and family.

H. Davidson and wife, accompanied by Miss Katherine Pugh and Mrs. B. M. Bond motored to Eugene Friday evening and attended a regular meeting of Eastern Star chapter Order of Eastern Star in which they held initiation and installation of officers.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Hamer, daughter, Juanita, motored to Sunday on a combined business and pleasure trip. While there Hamer was sworn in as a farm enumerator by Attorney Curl. Miss Eliza Jackson of Halsey also given a position as one of enumerators from Halsey. Mrs. Hamer has Knox Butte, Santiam Price districts while Mr. Jackson has East and West Halsey and Halsey.

The Duran society of the local Methodist Episcopal church will be entertained by Miss Mary Smith at home Thursday afternoon of this week for its regular monthly meeting. Mrs. W. H. Beliveau, president, presided.

The Thimble club of the local Neighbors of Woodcraft will have its regular monthly meeting Saturday afternoon at the home of the banker, Mrs. Ada Corcoran.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Hamer, children, Jimmie and Juanita, Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Hamer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Suckles.

Great Values in
DINNERWARE

This store's supremacy in showing greatest values in Dinnerware can be seen during our special feature this week of

32 PIECE SETS
For everyday use select one of our Plain White Dinnerware at the low price of

32 Piece Set $2.35
FANCY IMPORTED CHINA
Dinnerware in several patterns to select from. Priced from—

32 Piece Set $3.19
American Made DINNERWARE
All of the newest patterns featured in 32 Piece Sets. Priced up to—

32 Piece Set $3.85
Headquarters for
Festive Table Glassware
Quackenbush's
180 East Broadway
Eugene, Oregon

SWASTIKAS SHOW SYMPATHY OF SAAR!

When the main body of British troops assigned to assist in the international army to police the Saar basin during the plebiscite on January 13 marched into Saarbrücken, the Hitlerite leanings of the area's capital was immediately apparent to all. The Tommies are pictured above marching down the main street of the city amid a profuse display of Nazi swastika flags.

Cottage Grove News

COTTAGE GROVE, Jan. 10.—(Special).—The South Lane Game Protective league was in charge of the annual meeting of chamber of commerce Tuesday evening at Hotel Barre, at which R. S. Drenner, former field representative of the Isaac Walton League of America, and now a rancher on Row river near Cottage Grove, was principal speaker of the evening. Representing the game league Mr. Drenner appealed for protection of our national resources, telling of the various types of wild animals in the west and the urgent necessity of co-operation in defending them.

Annual election of officers followed the speaking resulting as follows: Earl Ballou, president; Elbert Bede, first vice-president; Damon Scott, second vice; O. V. Breese, secretary; T. C. Wheeler, treasurer. R. C. Kuehner, county agent, was present and gave an address.

The Presbyterian Aid society met Wednesday afternoon at the church parlors. After devotionals and a brief business meeting, a contest was a feature at which Mrs. Nellie Blackmore was winner. Hostess committee was Mrs. Schofield Stewart, Mrs. S. L. Godard, and Mrs. Mary Van Denburg. Mrs. Godard was in charge of the contest. Mrs. Walter Hillman was a guest. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The Mothers' club met Monday for an all-day session at their club rooms.

and a covered dish dinner was a feature. Election of officers resulted in the following: Mrs. Eva Hatch, president; Mrs. H. C. Shaeffer, vice-president; Mrs. Finley Whippis, secretary; Mrs. George Curran, treasurer; Mrs. Ross Curran, chairman of the welfare committee.

Cash prizes awarded for the Peters buck deer contest are announced as follows: Dale Hammond, The Dalles, receives $50 prize for the largest black tail deer, weighing 261 pounds; D. H. Long, Lebanon, wins the $50 prize for the largest mule deer, which weighed 260 pounds.

James Powell was unanimously re-elected for adviser of the senior Christian Endeavor of the Christian church. The society plans to take a group to the Lane county rally at Creswell, Saturday, Jan. 12, and will leave the church at 7 o'clock.

The topic for the 5 p. m. vesper service at the M. E. church Sunday will be "When the Steering Wheel Broke." Special music will include a number by a young women's sextet, Joan Moore, Dorothy Siemann, Phyllis Monson, Jean King, Dorothy Gallo and Kathleen Moore and a vocal duet by Mrs. J. G. and Grace Grimes. The orchestra will play hymn requests at 4:45. Communion service will be held at 11. Topic will be "Reconciliation."

Rev. M. A. Groves and Edwin Cone will attend a district Epworth League cabinet meeting in Grants Pass Friday, Jan. 11.

There will be a joint meeting of the Sunday school board of the M. E. church with the mid-week service, Thursday, 7:30. Topic for discussion, "How to Improve Our S. S."

Mrs. K. K. Mills, chairman of the local health group, is calling a meeting at city council room for Monday, Jan. 14, at 3 o'clock to discuss health problems and work for increasing the membership of the club.

The Research club met Tuesday night at city library. The group are taking the university extension course on modern social problems and this was their sixth lesson. Mrs. S. T. Rose was leader. Topic for the evening was "Great Intellectual Transformation."

Mrs. C. C. Cronson has received word that her sister, Mrs. Minnie Lund of Portland was recovering from a major operation.

T. C. Wheeler has received word of the death of his brother Alfred in Portland last Saturday. Funeral will probably be at Colburg next Sunday.

The women's golf club will hold its covered dish dinner at the home of Mrs. Carl King, Thursday, Jan. 17, and cards will be featured in the afternoon.

The Kensington club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Stella Baker. Quilting formed the social pastime and a covered dish dinner was held. Mrs. Claude Kime will be hostess to the Tuesday Bridge club at the Colonial, Tuesday, for a 1 o'clock luncheon.

The senior endeavor society will have charge of the evening church service Jan. 13, at the Christian church. Spiritual songs will be featured through scriptural readings. Mr. and Mrs. William Thum, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Emphrey were dinner guests Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Ferrin.

Mrs. Frank Smithson of Eugene is very ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Susie Garoutte, in Cottage Grove. Mrs. Lucy McCulloch and Mrs. John Sanders of Crow, also daughters of Mrs. Smithson, were summoned.

Junction Meeting Topics Announced

JUNCTION CITY, Jan. 10.—(Special).—The Ficus Evangelistic company, leading the evangelistic meeting in the Junction City Church of Christ, announces the following features for the remainder of the week:

Thursday, "If the Dead Could Talk to Us, What Then?" and the Junction City men's chorus will sing "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen."

Friday, "An Adequate Saviour." This is young people's night. A social hour will be held in the church basement following the service.

Saturday, "What I Would Do If I Were the Devil." The children will present special numbers showing their work in the daily Bible study.

Sunday, "Why I Believe the Bible." Mrs. Lola Thompson will present special numbers on the accordion.

The meetings will continue each evening, except Monday, at 7:30 o'clock.

Deerhorn News Notes

DEERHORN, Jan. 10.—(Special).—The McKenric card club will have its regular meeting Saturday night of this week at the Woodm n hall in Waltersville. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

The regular dance sponsored by the Vida school board will take place Saturday night of this week at the Vida gym.

Mrs. John West of Vida had car trouble in Deerhorn Tuesday evening and was given help by men on the Thimble ranch. Mrs. West was on her way to Springfield where she is employed in the telephone office. Mr. and Mrs. West are building a nice house on their 80 acres which they purchased a few months ago across from the Goodpasture home.

E. E. Thielen and Jean Barreau were visitors in Eugene Wednesday. Mrs. W. C. Thielen has been ill the past week but is somewhat improved at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard (Dinty) McCollum have moved in one of the Montgomery cottages.

The regular preaching service will be held at Leaburg church on Sunday evening following the Christian Endeavor.

The P. T. A. will meet on Friday evening at Deerhorn school.

PLANNING TRIP

Thursday afternoon is the deadline for registrations for the trip planned by Girl Scouts of Eugene to the snowline, Saturday. Girls may call or telephone the office. Dean Karl W. Onthang of the Girl Scouts council and Miss Alice Spurgin, director, are in charge of the trip, which is planned to Last Creek ranch on the McKenzie. Scouts are to bring their lunches, warm clothing, skis, sleds, and other snow equipment.

Enskin was cheaper than buffalo hide in 1883.

CRESWELL FIREMEN CHOOSE OFFICERS

CRESWELL, Jan. 10.—(Special).—J. R. Clark was re-elected chief of the Creswell volunteer fire department at the regular meeting of the group Tuesday evening. D. V. Clark heads the department as president. Other officers elected were Arthur Olson, vice-president; L. E. Zinkler, secretary-treasurer; assistant chief, Melvin A. Miller. Earl Haner was listed as a new member. The refreshment committee for next time consists of J. A. Coleman and Everett Clark. This organization ever its fourth year. A very dependable department has been organized. A fire engine with all equipment needed has been purchased and a fund created for maintenance purposes to which receipts are added from time to time through public entertainments. Fifty dollars is also on hand in an accident fund. A junior volunteer department has also been organized and regular instructions given.

Mrs. Mary Lindsay and Miss Maude Lou Lindsay were hostesses at a social afternoon Tuesday at their home, honoring Miss Mary Lindsay whose engagement to Elmer L. Kivett was announced during the afternoon. Refreshments of cake and chocolate were served to the following guests:

Mrs. Flossie Van Prooyen, Mrs. Minnie Keene and son Jimmy, Mrs. E. J. Henschel, Mrs. P. A. Russell, Mrs. C. H. Jennings, Mrs. C. E. Wright, Mrs. V. E. Gronsbeck, Mrs. Van Prooyen, Mrs. E. L. Clark, Mrs. Clara Wallace, Mrs. Aden Miller, Mrs. A. Meyer, Mrs. Roy Sanders, Mrs. F. J. Sly, Mrs. R. E. Wright, Mrs. William Kivett, Mrs. N. F. Simpson, Mrs. C. Wakley, Mrs. M. T. Jackson, Mrs. Abe Van Prooyen, Mrs. C. E. Overton and children, Una Lee, Ona Dee and Albert, Mrs. Ben Jackson, Miss Leta Wakley, Mildred Lindsay, the honor guest and the hostesses. No date has been set for the wedding but it will be some time in the late winter.

Members of the junior group of Girl Scouts under the direction of Mrs. H. N. Traxler report a one hundred per cent attendance at the regular meeting Tuesday after school. Ruth Kirkpatrick passed her sewing test. Plans were made for each member to pass at least one test a month. The bandaging of sprained and broken arms and ankles was practiced. The members were urged to respond with their dues at the next meeting.

Fourteen Boy Scouts reported at the regular meeting Monday evening at the grand hall. Robert Sly and Harold Gwyther were in charge. Plans were made to be ready for the Court of Honor in Eugene Jan. 20. Games and a short business meeting completed the program of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Haines of Brooks visited Sunday at the home of his cousin, V. E. Gronsbeck and family.

Enskin was cheaper than buffalo hide in 1883.

Walterville Notes

WALTERVILLE, Jan. 10.—(Special).—Mrs. Gina Momb and son George, Mrs. A. A. Campbell, Martha and Howard Campbell were guests Monday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Easton. Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Koozer and nephew, Ward Koozer, were in Waltersville on business Tuesday afternoon on their way to Eugene.

Mrs. Vern Ellis received word on Wednesday morning from Vernonia of the death of Mrs. Graves, the grandmother of Mr. Ellis. Mrs. Ellis left Wednesday afternoon for Vernonia to attend the funeral services. Mrs. Ellis returned from Vernonia Christmas day from attending the funeral services of Mrs. Bates who was also Mrs. Ellis' grandmother. The two deaths occurring about three weeks apart. Both Mrs. Bates and Mrs. Graves made their home with Mr. and Mrs. Ellis, Sr., at Vernonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schwering and son Jesse motored to Eugene Tuesday evening to call on their daughter, Mrs. Bert Hodson and day-old granddaughter, Beverly Marie Hodson. They found both Mrs. Hodson and daughter getting along nicely.

HARVARD, ARMY TO MEET
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 10.—(AP).—Harvard will meet Army and Navy for the first time, in 1936 and both games will be played in the Harvard stadium, according to the schedule for next year announced today. Navy, Amherst and University of Virginia are newcomers to the schedule.

"Western Auto's" Mid-Winter

Battery SALE

6-Volt
13 Plate
SPECIAL
$2.95

WITH YOUR OLD BATTERY
Batteries Installed FREE!

Put "ZIP" in your starter... with this powerful, guaranteed battery... Air processed oxide, pressure rolled plates, guaranteed all new material... and the West's leader among low priced batteries... No. 1 size case.

"WASCO" Batteries On SALE

Genuine "Ebak" one-piece case and cells, Air Processed Oxide, plates 4 1/2 inches high, .08 inches thick with genuine cedar separators. For long service and power, in light car use, the "WASCO" is unequaled at these low prices.

6 VOLT-13 PLATE NO. 1 CASE	6 VOLT-15 PLATE NO. 2 CASE	12 VOLT DODGE CASE
3.45 WITH OLD BATTERY	5.25 WITH OLD BATTERY	7.45 WITH OLD BATTERY

Ask For SALE PRICES
on Western Giants and Wizards
For heavy duty cars, trucks and buses

Heavier, huskier, more powerful, with many features that give you longer service and GREATER VALUE.

Prices slightly higher on batteries and all in some cities outside of this immediate vicinity because of transportation costs.

And Sensational OIL SALE

LONG-RUN
2 Gallons
S.A.E. 20-30-40-50

54¢ In your can

5 Gallons $1.29
S.A.E. 20-30-40-50

A safe, lasting winter oil, specially refined by one of the largest refiners of quality Western oils. Good body, does not "drag" in cold weather, and is remarkably free from carbon... A wonderful value at our LOW SALE PRICE...!

PENN SUPREME
100% Pure
Pennsylvania Oil

The ideal motor oil... selected Pennsylvania crude, DOUBLE DISTILLED, and SPECIALLY FILTERED and PROCESSED to remove waxy elements and impurities that cause cold weather drag and carbon. Stock up NOW—SAVE on your winter oil supply.

1 Quart 14¢
S.A.E. 20-30-40-50
In your can... In gallon lots

More Than 150 Stores in the West
Western Auto Supply Co.

608 WILLAMETTE
Telephone 664

Empty cans loaned on small deposit

Empty cans loaned on small deposit

Empty cans loaned on small deposit

Empty cans loaned on small deposit

"NIP AND TUCK"

ARE STILL GOING STRONG AT THE

GILBERT SHOE STORE

881 WILLAMETTE

The prices have been "NIPPED" so low, you can "TUCK" away a real saving on every shoe in the store, Men's, Women's and Children's. The response to this sale has been so great we are holding it over all of next week. But you should come in while you have a good size assortment to select from.

Here is one example—A 12-in. oil tan, double sole shoe for men which sells regularly for $6.95—now $4.99

Here is another—All of our Men's Brogues in heavy grains that sold regularly at $4.95 and $5.95—now $3.69

"Star Brand Shoes are Better"

"TUCK" says—

"You sure tuck away a nice saving on the shoes at Gilbert's the way the prices have been 'nipped'."

BILL... A WASHING MACHINE! I'VE WANTED ONE FOR AGES

NO WIFE OF MINE IS GOING TO RUIN HER HEALTH SCRUBBING CLOTHES

OH, I FORGOT TO TELL YOU—HE SAID TO BE SURE AND USE RINSO

NEXT MONDAY IT'S WONDERFUL, BILL! BUT I WISH YOU'D ASK THE MAN WHO SOLD IT TO YOU HOW I CAN GET THE CLOTHES WHITER

ONE WEEK LATER DARLING, LOOK! I USED RINSO IN MY NEW WASHER TODAY, AND THE CLOTHES ARE 4 OR 5 SHADES WHITER

RINSO is just as wonderful for rub washing, too. Its rich, lively suds SOAK out dirt without scrubbing or boiling. Clothes last 2 or 3 times longer—you'll save lots of money.

A little Rinso gives thick suds—even in hard water. Recommended by makers of 34 famous washers. Easy on hands. No soap gets clothes clean in faster time than Rinso. But no matter how long you soak your wash in Rinso suds you can be sure that it's absolutely safe. Tested and approved by Good Housekeeping Institute.

THE COLORED CLOTHES ARE BRIGHTER, TOO. I'M SO GLAD THAT WASHING MACHINE SALESMAN TOLD YOU ABOUT RINSO! IT'S SAFE FOR THE CLOTHES—EASY ON MY HANDS. AND IT'S SIMPLY MARVELOUS FOR DISHWASHING!

Rinso

THE BIGGEST-SELLING PACKAGE SOAP IN AMERICA