moisten well with mayonnaise and place a large spoon full of cherries on lettuce, slice a few pieces of bananas on top, then top with a dab of mayonnaise sprinkle with chopped nuts and paprika. This is truly delicious. (Use cherries that have previously been sweetened when canning. You may use these kind of cherries with cottage cheese. Surround the spoonful of cheese with cherries prepared in the same manner. A surely healthy salad, too.—Mrs. R. O. Evans, 318 Adams St., Eugene.

"Egg on Toast"

Bake a devil's food cake or ginger bread in a square tin. When baked cut in squares about 4 by 4 inches. Place on each square of cake a large tablespoonful of whipped cream and on top of cream place half a canned peach with the hollow side next to the cream. With a little stretch of the imagination this dessert resembles a poached egg on toast.—Mrs. Leslie Brakel, 1091 West 11th St., Eugene.

Apricots With Molded Rice

1 can apricots
2 cups cooked rice
1 cup scalded milk
2 eggs
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla

Beat eggs, add to sugar then stir in hot milk. Cook over hot water until creamy, stirring constantly, add cooked rice, stir well and put in buttered mold. Cool and when set turn out on plate, fill with apricots, drained and place around outside. Any fruit may be used.—Mrs. C. L. Royds, Crow stage, Eugene.

Human beings are attacked by the "flying cockroaches" with which many vessels in the South seas are infested.

Greek is the source of the word "hippopotamus;" it means "river horse" in that tongue.

Hi School Debaters Discuss Federal Aid

Charles Devereaux and Warren Waldorf defeated Jack Cole and Charles Porter Friday, to win the Eugene high school inter-class first series of debates on the subject: Resolved that the federal government should adopt the policy equalizing educational opportunities throughout the nation by means of annual grants to the several states for public, elementary and secondary education. The winners, however, will be challenged frequently by other debaters for the title. The final winners will debate John Luvaas and Kenneth Marpole, last year's varsity debators.

Harold W. Allison, adviser to the debate class, is planning to send some of his teams to the Oregon high school debating league tournament in McMinnville the first part of February.

The class has been studying all of the first semester on the subject to enable them to better complete in the inter-school and conference debates.
