Wednesday, Jan. 9, the Elmira girls basketball team played Eugene Red Sox. The score was 25 to 25. The Elmira boys were defeated by the Red Sox, score 46 to 39, although making a strong rally in the last half. The cooking class under the direction of Mrs. Dan Campbell sold hot dogs and hamburgers at the game.

The Home Economics club of the Wealthy Transient Boosted From Camp

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Preferring to hitch-hike and live again by charity rather than go home, John La Leur was on his wandering way again today.

At a transient center here suspicious persons were aroused when a bank book showing $400 on deposits in Centralia was found in his pocket. Investigation revealed La Leur had several sizeable bank accounts, property valued at $400,000 near Bloomington and a $10,000 deposit in a Seventh Day Adventist trust fund.

He paid the transient center $11.69 for board and lodging before being shooed on his way.

Fashion Showings—Sailor Dress

Edited By
For many years Assistant Professor of Household Arts, Teachers College, Columbia University, New York, N. Y. Just the merest hint of "nautical" feeling, so beloved by schoolgirls marks this smart little dress.

The first model carried out in navy blue woolen was especially effective with its bright red collar trimmed with navy grosgrain ribbon. As for cotton—there's Scotch plaided gingham which is very attractive in this model.

In checked or plaided woolen, striped, percale, plain linen, etc., it's also practical and smart.

Style No. 3466 is designed for sizes 6, 8, 10 and 12 years. Size 8 requires 2 yards of 39-inch material with 1/2 yard of 35-inch contrasting, 3 1/4 yards of braid and 1 1/4 yards of 5-inch ribbon for tie.

ADULT CLASSES IN RECREATION WORK TO START TUESDAY

First classes in the adult recreation program for Eugene will be held at 7:30 o'clock, Tuesday evening.

The schedule of the classes and places is as follows: Tuesday, 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock, women at Woodrow Wilson junior high school, 650 Twelfth avenue west; Tuesday, 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock, men at Roosevelt junior high school, 1787 Agate street; Thursday, 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock, men at Woodrow Wilson high school; Thursday, 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock, women at Roosevelt school.

The program as worked out here is part of the adult education plan that is being carried on everywhere in the county.

There is no fee, nor are there any prerequisites. No special uniform is required, although rubber soled shoes and some kind of bloomers or shorts for the women and gymnasium trousers for the men would be desirable.

The work will include the following: For men, volleyball, basketball, wrestling, boxing, tumbling, all sorts of mat work, as well as less highly organized games, such as ping pong, shuffle board, ring tennis, badminton, etc.; for the women: Rhythmic activities, folk dancing, clorging, natural dancing, "fundamentals" for suppleness, flexibility and body poise, stunts and tumbling, mat work of all sorts, reducing exercises, and the variety of games, relay races, deck tennis, shuffle board, badminton, ping pong, basketball, volleyball, etc.

The two centers are being supervised by Miss Florence Alden of the department of physical education for women at the University of Oregon. This program is being done under FEPA funds and is part of the movement for adult education and for wider use of public schools. The school buildings, tax supported, are used by the people about 1000 hours in the year out of a possible 4000.

A well trained group of leaders has been engaged to further the program. For the women, Frances Kovynovich, Lois Howe, and Dorothy Bergstrom will be in charge, and for the men, John Hamilton and Jim Watts will conduct the classes. All have had varied experience in teaching or in Y. M. C. A. and similar organizations.

HERE IT IS - THE CAR THAT MADE 175 EXPERTS Guess Wrong!

So Much Luxury, Style and Value in the New 1935 DODGE, Experts Overguessed its Price... Couldn't Believe It Would Sell for So Little.

"I KNOW GOOD LOOKS when I see them," says Russell Patterson, famous artist and illustrator, "so it's no wonder that I guessed the price of the new 1935 Dodge too high."

"DAZZLED BY BEAUTY," says Miss Doris Bishop, buyer and value expert, "I guessed the new 1935 Dodge to be worth hundreds of dollars above its actual price."

"I GUESSED this new 1935 Dodge to be priced much higher than it actually is," says Homer H. Bailey, former buyer for a mail order house. "Even though I'm wrong, I still think the car is worth it."

"THIS NEW 1935 DODGE looks like a real winner," says Earl P. Lusker, value expert. "Was I surprised to find it costs so much less than I would have figured on when it came to guessing the price."
