No Robbery, But Money Bag Found

ALBANY, Ore., Jan. 17.—(Special)—Bankers here could not explain how the La Salle, Ill., bandit gang obtained a money bag bearing the label of an Albany, Ore., bank.

Albany has had no bank robbery in more than 30 years. Neither police nor local bankers knew of any money bag missing from here.

Bankers said the bag found at the home of Arthur Thelen at Rockford, Ill., might have been issued to a customer or possibly have been stolen from a bank or store elsewhere.

Creswell School Notes
The students and faculty of the Creswell high school were grieved Monday to learn of the death of Veri Alford of the class of "1934" and this week's issue of the "Crescendo" was dedicated to his memory.

The students are appreciative of the radio presented the high school by Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Groubeck as a Christmas gift. It has been put into good service from the beginning. The opening of congress and President Roosevelt's speech were both heard during the classes.

Marie Hubbel and Edith Marquart, graduates of 1934 were in the department team from Albany college which took charge of the local Presbyterian church services, January 6.

"The first girls' league meeting of 1935 was held recently. The program consisted of group singing led by Jane Alyce Emerson; several numbers by the trio, Ruth Holbrook, Jane Alyce Emerson and Pearl Redmond; a concertation song directed by Miss Loomis; reading, Emma Hager. Refreshments were served by Clara Marshall, Catherine Miller, Martha Warner, Ruth Holbrook, Frances Bibby, and Phyllis Wulfschlegel. Emma Hager, Ida Hager, Carol Gwyther and Gladys Fisher were in charge of the program.

Under the direction of Mr. Nordhoff practice on the two-act operetta, "The Ten Horses of King Lo," by Geoffrey F. Morgan was begun this week. Approximately seventy voices will be heard in the production, expected to be presented about the middle of February. Miss Loomis will have charge of the steps, postures and marching. Clarence Redmond, Catherine Miller and Gladys Fisher will compose the executive committee. The operetta furnishes solos, duets, trios as well as both boys and girls solo work. The selection of the cast will be made soon.

Mrs. J. Kirkham was presented with a bath robe as a Christmas gift from the school. Fumes Hager, chairman of the committee, selected it and delivered it to the hospital where Mrs. Kirkham was a patient.

Grade News—First and second: June Bahr has returned after an absence of four weeks. Backing pictures have been included in the art work. Third and Fourth: The fourth grade is memorizing the twenty-third psalm. Fifth and Sixth: Earl Eastman of Locane has entered the sixth grade. Dale Smith is at home with the chickenpox.

Seventh and Eighth: Earl Marquart will receive a badge from the State Fire marshal for writing the best story on fire prevention in Lane county. Elvira Woodson received second place. There were eight entries from Creswell.

OREGON COACH MAY OFFICIATE AT TILT

PORTLAND, Jan. 17.—(Special)—Football fans who attend the professional game here Feb. 3 between the New York Giants and a team of pros who played on coast college teams, may see the four northwest conference coaches acting as officials.

The committee in charge of the game, a Rose Festival benefit, had arranged for regular conference officials, Tom Loutitt, Mike Moran, Tom Shea, and Jerry Buckley to work the game, but they were barred by Herb Dana, high commissioner of coast conference officials.

A way out of the dilemma was sought today by Aaron M. Frank, leading the committee on arrangements when he telegraphed four unquestioned professionals asking them to officiate at the game.

Those he telegraphed and the jobs he asked them to fill were: Jimmie Pheasant, Washington, referee; Orin E. "Babe" Hollingsworth, Washington, line judge; Frank Callison, Oregon, head linesman; and Leon Stiner, Oregon State, field judge.

Communists Bother Navy Says Swanson

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—(Special)—Secretary of Navy, Claude A. Swanson said today communists are making efforts to spread propaganda among navy men, particularly on the Pacific Coast, causing naval officers to take measures to prevent propaganda getting aboard naval vessels.

The secretary believed the communists were making little progress, however, and said this impression also prevailed among other fleet officers.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Shanly entertained at dinner at their home Saturday evening having as guests Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Schultz and Miss Ruth Ralston.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kibbreath were guests at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Stone, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Stone had as guests last Friday Mrs. Stone's mother, Mrs. Lillian Van Darwick, her brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Van Darwick, all of Eugene, and her aunt Mrs. Le Nora Southwick, and Ed Southwick of Tacoma.

T. D. Elam, who spent the fore part of the month visiting the homes of his sons Martin and Lynn Elam and families, returned to his home at Seaside, Sunday. Mrs. Martin Elam accompanied him as far as Sherwood where she will spend some time in caring for her mother who is ill.

Gilbert Nelson returned home last Thursday following a visit of several days at Silverton, Dees and Portland. Mr. Nelson was accompanied by his uncle, Ben Gilbertson of Baker, his brother Peter Nelson of Silverton and his brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Nelson of Dees, all of whom spent the week-end here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson and family.

A. L. Hook of Harrisburg arrived Saturday to spend some time visiting at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Sheridan.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Swanson and family and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Sheridan were in Eugene Saturday.

THURSDAY PROGRAMS

HEILIG—"Imitation of Life," with Claudette Colbert, Warren William, Ends Thursday.

COLONIAL—"No Greater Glory," with George Brent, Frankie Darro, Ends Thursday.

McDONALD—"Double Bill," "I Am a Thief," with Ricardo Cortez, plus "Transatlantic Merry-go-round," with all-star cast. Ends Saturday.

STATE—"Double Bill," "The World Moves On," with Madeline Carroll, plus "Bachelor Bait," with Stu Erwin, Pert Kelton, Ends Saturday.

REX—"One Hour Late," with Joe Morrison, Ends Thursday.

"One Hour Late," at the Rex, is an entertaining little film about a couple of office employees who love, fight, fall out of love and back in again. Joe Morrison sings, and there's a happy ending.

"No Greater Glory," which we have been recommending for George Brent and Claudette Colbert, closes tonight, and we urge every person with an appreciation of fine acting, artistry in direction and expert delineation of character and plot, to attend.

New show at the McDonald, "I Am a Thief," and "Transatlantic Merry-go-round." First stars Ricardo Cortez, is robbery on a train. Second has a host of stars, is "grand hotel" of ocean liners.

"Bachelor Bait" with Stu Erwin headlines the State bill today. A very amusing comedy of a marriage bureau, with Pert Kelton getting in some pretty fast wisecracks. "The World Moves On" completes the bill.

"GENTLEST" NAMED
VATICAN CITY, Jan. 17.—(Special)—The world's gentlest dictator, if Marquis Camilla Serafini, governor of Vatican City, may be called a dictator, is the civil head of this little papal state. Pope Pius, in a sweeping decree, has just given him all legislative power in Vatican City for six months during which to make an extensive reorganization of the civil administration.
