Obituaries

Mrs. T. B. Sprenger
 SHEDD, May 28.—(Special).—Mrs. T. B. Sprenger died May 26. She was one of surviving pioneers of Oregon, crossing the plains with her parents when she was ten years old, by ox team, settling on a farm near Peoria where she spent her girlhood days until she married Thomas B. Sprenger, Feb. 17, 1875. They lived 50 years on the Sprenger donation claim taken by Mr. Sprenger's parents, later moving to Shedd where they have lived for the past ten years. To this union was born nine children, all living, who helped celebrate their sixtieth wedding anniversary of last February.

The children are: Mrs. Zaida Carey, Falls City; Mrs. Winnie Fisher, Okla. Albert; Canada; Wallace Sprenger, Shedd; Mrs. Mable Ruder, Eugene; Clate Sprenger, North Bend; Mrs. Arzelia Hofflich, Albany; Mrs. Thelma Whitlatch, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Ethel Commons, Halsey; Thomas Sprenger, Shedd. There are also 22 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

FROM BIRTH TO GRADUATION THEY'RE TOGETHER

These Iowa triplets have kept the same pace together from birth to young womanhood, and all three will be graduated late this month at Christian College, Columbia, Md. A mischievous-looking trio are Dorothy, Doris and Dorcas McPherron from Oakland in the Hawkeye State, but they don't let their fun interfere with their scholastic standing. Each will receive an associate in arts degree.

pepper to taste. Then make a salad dressing as follows: One-half cup vinegar, one teaspoon sugar, 1/2 teaspoon mustard, three slices of good bacon chopped fine and well browned in frying pan. Mix, add one well beaten egg, place on quick fire and boil three minutes stirring all the while, then pour over salad and mix well. Garnish with parsley.—Mrs. R. E. Stata, 1403 Villard St., Eugene.
