Lone Pine School Presents Unusual Closing Program

LONE PINE, May 28.—(Special)—Honoring the four eighth grade graduates at the Lone Pine school the stage at the school was transformed into a beautiful garden of ferns, snowballs and other old-fashioned flowers for one of the most beautiful graduation exercises in the history of the school. Mrs. Harriet Ingram, principal of the school, had charge of an interesting program. The graduates are Elsie Williams, Lenora Chambers, Roy Etchison, and Merle Callaway.

The program included piano solo by Mrs. Reed; a song by Mr. Reed accompanied by his daughter, Mildred; initiation of a graduation class by four sixth and seventh grade pupils; piano solo by June Telford; violin solo by Norma Lettlemacher, accompanied by Miss Bouquet; violin duet by Miss Lois Kappe and Miss Doris Graham, accompanied by Miss Betty Jane Henderson; introduction of Queen of May, Miss Maxine Chambers; "The Spirit of Old Pine," Lee Reetz, told the class history and Donald Reetz gave the class prophecy. The boys' toy band led by Mr. Telford and Mrs. Ingram gave the graduation address followed by a piano solo by Mildred Reetz, and after the presentation of the diplomas by Mrs. William Telford Elsie Williams gave the acceptance address in behalf of the class.

Mrs. Telford awarded perfect attendance certificates to Lenora Chambers, Dorothy Troxel, Barbara Benton, Charles Shields and John Nichols. She then announced that Mrs. Ingram had accepted a position in the Oregon school and extended the thanks of the community for her untiring efforts while teaching here. Mrs. Ingram was presented with a gift from the pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lowery and two little daughters Cora Lee and Corinne of Marshfield arrived here Saturday afternoon and spent the week-end visiting Mrs. Lowery's mother, Mrs. Gladys Palmer and her sister, Miss LaVelle Palmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Worthington and two little children of Canyonville were Sunday visitors at the B. M. Bond home as they were en route home after a visit in Portland and having attended the grand lodge and Rebekeah assembly sessions at Salem last week.

Gloria Rae Lushy of Corbett arrived here last Sunday when her parents Mr. and Mrs. George Lushy and sister Donna brought her up to remain for three or four weeks visiting her aunt, Mrs. Vera Isom and other relatives.

Miss Enid Veatch returned to her home here Saturday after having completed another successful year as a high school teacher in the Roseburg junior high school where she had taught for the last several years.

Wayne Veatch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Veatch graduated last Friday from Hopkins law school of the University of California located at San Francisco.

YOU'VE GOT MORE PEP THAN TEN GIRLS PUT TOGETHER

I'M NOT A BIT TIRED I COULD DANCE ALL NIGHT and then they were married

BUT IT WILL BE A GREAT PARTY... AND I PROMISED BILL WE'D BE THERE

I DON'T CARE WHAT YOU PROMISED. I SCRUBBED AND BOILED THE CLOTHES TODAY AND I'M EXHAUSTED

but today IT'S REMARKABLE THE WAY YOU CAN DO A BIG WASH AND STILL LOOK SO RADIANT

THAT'S BECAUSE I HAVEN'T USED A WASHBOARD OR BOILER SINCE I LEARNED ABOUT RINSO. IT SOAKS MY WASH 4 OR 5 SHADES WHITER

AND YOUR SHIRTS—MY LINENS—EVERYTHING WILL LAST 2 OR 3 TIMES LONGER NOW THAT THEY'RE NOT SCRUBBED THREADBARE

THE way Rinso's rich, lively suds soak out dirt without scrubbing or boiling is marvelous to see. Clothes come 4 or 5 shades whiter—safely. Colors come bright and fresh. And clothes last 2 or 3 times longer—because they are not abused by hard, washboard rubbing.

With Rinso you don't need bar soaps, chips or powders—none in hardest water. Rinso's creamy suds make dishwashing and all cleaning quick and easy. Kind to hands—tested and approved by Good Housekeeping Institute. Recommended by makers of 34 famous washes.

Above all, when the children enjoy ginger ale ... of course, it's CANADA DRY "The Champagne of Ginger Ales"

No wonder Canada Dry is so pure and wholesome. It is manufactured from the finest ingredients under constant, rigid, laboratory control. It's the one ginger ale with water clearer than distilled water and the full, gentle flavor of real Jamaica ginger.

Prince of all dinner wines is this extra dry La Bohème CHIANTI

Strong and dry, yet very mellow is the California Chianti that bears the label La Bohème. Both the red and the white Chianti can be had under the La Bohème mark of quality.

Both come in gay, imported flasks, straw covered, which recall the gracious Chiantis of the Siena district, in Italy.

Pour from a flask of the red ... note the true ruby clearness. Try the white ... note the brilliant amber—characteristic of Chianti at its best. Raise a glass toward your lips ... mark the delicate aroma.

La Bohème Chianti is specially priced today at your dealer's in single bottles and in packages of a dozen. It's worthwhile to stock your shelves at the present money-savings.
