

New Hepburn Picture "Break of Hearts", Opens Sunday at Heilig Theatre

Rex Will Hold Over Mae West Picture; Deitrich Picture Comes Thursday

"Break of Hearts," starring Katharine Hepburn and Charles Boyer, opens today at the Heilig. It is a heart drama, a story of love and sacrifice. It is also a heart drama, a story of love and sacrifice. It is also a heart drama, a story of love and sacrifice.

The story of the picture centers around a heartless Spanish eiren who gives many men her lips, but none her heart. Atwill, long a favorite of the stage and screen, plays Miss Dietrich's mid-aged lover. As an officer in the Spanish army, he lavishes his fortune on the faithful girl, facing ridicule and the loss of his position for her smile.

When his young friend, Cesar Ro-

THIS WEEK'S BILLS

McDONALD—Sunday to Wednesday, double bill, "Our Little Girl," with Shirley Temple, plus "Ladies Love Danger," with Gilbert Roland, Mona Barrie; Thursday to Saturday, double bill, "Under the Pampas Moon," with Warner Baxter, plus "Dinky," with Jackie Cooper.

HEILIG—Sunday to Wednesday, "Break of Hearts," with Katharine Hepburn, Charles Boyer; Thursday to Saturday, double bill, "Eight Belles," with Ann Southern, plus "Mystery Man," with Robert Armstrong.

REX—Sunday only, "Goin' to Town," with Mae West, plus "It's a Small World," with Spencer Tracy; Monday to Wednesday, "The Devil Is a Woman," with Marlene Dietrich, plus "After Office Hours," with Clark Gable.

STATE—Sunday, Monday, double bill, "Grand Old Girl," with May Robson, plus "42nd Street," with all-star cast; Tuesday, Wednesday, "Grand Old Girl," Thursday to Saturday, double bill, "Great Hotel Murder," with Edmund Lowe, plus "Northern Frontier," with Kermit Maynard.

tero, falls in love with this heartless charmer. Atwill attempts to dissuade him, pretending that he is trying to save the boy from her fatal lure. But the boy learns the truth and they become open enemies. Heartlessly, the eiren plays these two men against each other, until finally, after a wild and riotous carnival, they meet in a duel. On the field of honor events occur that change the lives of the three principals. "After Office Hours," with Clark Gable, completes the bill.

also accompanied by Dorothy Davis.

Either Worden is editor-in-chief of the 1935-36 handbook being put out by the National Honor society. Her staff consists of Louise Shull, Alice Rogers, Richard Chambers, and Robert Cox. Material for the use of old and new students and faculty members is contained in the book and the books will be given out with student-body tickets in the fall.

Bob Shuler was elected president of the "E" club at the meeting held last week. Wendell Kaufman was elected vice-president; Lloyd Malos, secretary-treasurer; and Gordon Bishop, sergeant-at-arms. The club decided to have a picnic and dance at Swimmers' Delight Monday evening, June 3, at 6:30.

The following boys will be initiated into the club immediately after school on Monday, June 3: Francis Celoria, Pete Igou, Herbert Hayner, Crawford Lyle, John Edwards, Floyd Bevel, Bartley Goldbar, Robert Porter, Lester McIntyre, Glen Cougill, Stanley Warren, Don W. Good, Bill Brechtel, and Paul Thunemann.

Lucille Coffman, Doris Dunberg, Ruth Johnson, Helen McDonald, Jean McDonald, and Maxine Reets have earned the required number of points, and will receive their pins, which have recently arrived. According to Miss Hazel Fishwood, art instructor, the club has had a successful year.

The French club held its picnic at Riverside Park, Monday afternoon, May 27. Guests were Miss Clara M. Rains, adviser to the club, and Mrs. Small and Mrs. Shull, mothers of two of the members.

The election of Junior Girls' League representatives will be held Friday morning instead of Wednesday morning, as originally announced. Candidates are Lois Wright, Roberta Frye, Mildred Little, and Alice Hope.

The following won prizes in the recent W. C. T. U. essay contest. This contest included high school pupils from Lane county. First prize, $3.50, Helen Michael; second prize, $2.00, Clyde Mullen; third prize, $1.00, Gladys Keith. Honorable mention, Charles Porter.

The result of the Junior election is as follows: President, Raymond Bond; vice-president, Edith Paris; secretary, Ruth Chambers; treasurer, Bill Schardt; student council, Herbert Hayner and Estelle Thompson; Girls' League representatives, Gladys Callentine and Mary Kathryn Taylor.

Individual photographs used in the annual can be had by calling at the book exchange.

Next Monday, all girls will have a chance to sign up for the department of the Girls' League that they wish to work in. The departments from which they may choose are the social, clerical, financial, and auxiliary.

Senior day was Friday, May 31. In the morning an assembly was held, at noon came the luncheon at the Eugene hotel, and in the afternoon, the picnic at Swimmers' Delight. Baccalaureate will be held at the Baptist church June 2. Commencement exercises will be at McArthur court June 6.

Walker High School

WALKER, June 1.—(Special)—The last meeting of the year for the Girl Scouts was held last Thursday. Two of the girls, Marie Hohmann and Opal Meyers, have passed their second class tests.

Wednesday afternoon of this week the Girl Scout council consisting of Mrs. Hohmann, Mrs. Beach and Mrs. Clyde Wright met with Miss Pollitt. They discussed plans for all the Walker Scouts to attend summer camp in July and the possibility of sending one of their member to state Scout training camp in September.

Last Friday evening the Walker high school commencement exercises were held. The speaker was Dr. Howard Taylor of the University psychology department. He gave an address on "Inferiority Complexes." Katherine Wright furnished the music for the occasion. The diplomas were presented to the following by Mr. Wolfard, chairman of the school board: Phyllis Johnson, Donald Hankins, Clara Belle Hankins, Fern Fry, Lewis Conley, Delbert Walkley, Gene Witcher, George Lindsay, Donald Brown, Violet Sears, Dorothy Clark and Orville Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Trout attended the annual initiation banquet for the Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi at the John Straub Memorial hall in Eugene Saturday evening. Mr. Trout is a member of Sigma Xi, national science research honorary society.

The negro minstrel show, directed by Mrs. Cora Moore Frey, was presented for an appreciative audience Monday evening. On the program there were solos by Vernon Nichols, Donald Hankins, Esther Jones and Jessie Fox and a duet by Katherine Wright and Clara Belle Hankins as well as many songs by the entire chorus.

School closes Friday with the distributing of report cards to the students.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Trout will leave for a short visit with his folks at Oregon City. Miss Pollitt will move into Eugene the same day to spend the week prior to her and Mr. Kidwell's wedding after which they plan to go to California for the summer.

Walking Papers Ready For Kamm

CLEVELAND, June 1.—(U.P.)—Willie Kamm, veteran third baseman who was pushed off the Cleveland Indians by Manager Walter Johnson and then failed to persuade Kansas Mountain Landis, baseball czar, to overrule the manager, probably will be given an unconditional release today.

He was to meet with President Alvin Bradley of the Cleveland Baseball company for the final act in the intra-club drama which began when he was sent home from Philadelphia on charges of misconduct and alleged "Bolshevik" tactics on the club.

ON McDONALD SCREEN!

Rosemary Ames, Shirley Temple and Joel McCrea, shown above in a scene from "Our Little Girl," at the McDonald.

Eighth Graders At Veneta Entertained

VENETA, June 1.—(Special)—Mrs. Paula Seric gave a party Wednesday in honor of the eighth grade graduating class at her home southwest of Veneta. Those attending were as follows: Elma Marshik, Thora Belle Crone, Hattie Crone, Leona and Louise Belcher, Marcella Carnighan, Dorothy Farris, Dorothy Jorgenson, Wilma Crone, June Elliott, George Seric, Archie Marshik, Norton Minglingham, J. H. Crone. Those assisting Mrs. Seric were Mrs. Chester Crone, Mr. and Mrs. John Crone.

The Townsend club and Community club are getting an old fiddlers contest ready which will be presented June 13. Any one wishing to enter the contest may see Wallace Hemmingsway at the barber shop for full particulars. Other numbers will be presented at this time such as tumbling and tap dancing and some numbers by the Kentuckians. The proceeds will be used to pay on the community hall and for Townsend club expenses.

The Townsend club held its regular meeting Thursday night. Jerry Braun, pastor of the Baptist church, gave a speech. Those on the entertainment program were: reading, Mrs. Norton; song, Ralph Wigham; harmonica solo, Mr. Conley; song, Elma Marshik and Wilma Crone; reading, Hattie Crone; a "hoe down" by Joe and Harold Isaacson and Ralph Wigham; duet, Ralph Wigham and Harold Isaacson. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Crone and Mr. and Mrs. George Crone spent Sunday in Jasper.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Buck and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buck were fishing on Brice creek this week.

Miss Mabel Clark, who taught school on Lake creek, is home having closed a very successful term there.

Dorothy Nelson, former teacher of Elmira, was an over night guest at the C. V. Buck home one night this week. Miss Nelson will teach at Noti the coming term.

Mildred Nichols of Eugene was a guest of Jessie Alley Tuesday night. Helen Sutherland of Noti was an over night guest of Marjory Buck one night this week.

Mrs. Myrtle Robinson visited at the home of her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Pickard, in Eugene this week.

Kathleen Shultz just returned from a visit with the Earnest Owens family at Leona.

Archie Marshik and Gregory Ross spent Sunday at Noti with Carlton Sutherland and Marland Withrow. Leona Crone and Frankie Marshik are confined to their homes with measles.

Shorty Reth is boss on the Swenson docks here in Veneta now.

Billy Alley is spending the week in Noti with Lloyd Smith.

Dorena High School Has Busy Week-end

DORENA, June 1.—(Special)—The seniors have been very busy the last week as their school days are about over. On Thursday evening they were guests of juniors at the second annual junior-senior banquet at the women's club house. Decorations were in keeping with the senior colors, blue and gold, the colors being carried out in streamers, floral decorations and place cards. Places were set for the seniors, Alva Bates and Earl Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Lyon Lawrence, and the juniors, Fay Englund, Mary Doolittle, Robert Vaughn, Robert Wagner and Glenn Jennings. The freshmen and sophomores held a dinner the same evening at the home of Alvis Thomason and later joined the upper classmen at club house, where the evening was spent dancing.

Last Saturday evening baccalaureate services were held at Farmers' Union hall with Rev. M. A. Groves of Cottage Grove being speaker. Special musical numbers were offered by the high school quartet. Wednesday evening the students of the high school gave a surprise farewell party for Mr. and Mrs. Lyon Lawrence. The evening was spent in playing games and dancing. After refreshments a handsome pair of bookends was presented to the honor guests by the president of the student body, Earl Cooper, in behalf of the student body.

Eugene High School

Jurid Herbert was elected president of the Archery club at a meeting held Tuesday, May 28. Other new officers elected are Bob Rogers, vice-president, Duane Trosper, secretary-treasurer, and Delbert Lane, range manager.

Three Park Rate and two alumni of the Park Rate took the last trip for this school year to Sunshine Camp at the base of the Three Sisters, Saturday and Sunday, May 26 and 27. Those who went on the trip were Charles Lyle, Howard Swarthout, Lettie Hillman, Albert Kaufman, and Edna McRee. Early Sunday morning, May 26, two of the group, Richard McRee and Albert Kaufman, attempted to climb the Middle Sister and succeeded in getting within 200 feet of the top, but were forced to stop there because the ice was beginning to melt. The group was also able to get some excellent snapshots.

The last edition of the E. H. S. News of the Air was broadcast over radio station KORE Tuesday afternoon, May 28. Helen Judy and Bob Mack, leads in the opera "Bohemia Girl" sang a popular selection from the opera. Dorothy Davis accompanied them. Vernon Russell did a tap dance and was accompanied by Gene White. H. R. Gould, superintendent of public schools, gave a short talk on this school year and next.

Gene White played a piano solo, "Roses of Picardy." A three-act opera, "High School Daze," was put on by Don Bowman as Jimmy, Mary Staton as Betty, Amanda Nelson as the mother, Fritz Weatherford as Ted, and also the janitor.

Wendell Kaufman gave the sports news. Margaret Reid read a poem by Kipling, "When Earth's Last Picture Is Painted."

Bob Mack sang "Sweet Mystery of Life," and was accompanied by Dorothy Davis. Ruth Lake gave the news of the week.

Fritz Kramer, athletic coach, gave a resume of this year's athletic season. Amanda Nelson sang "Object of My Affections," and "You're a Heavenly Thing." Gene White accompanied her.

Russell Callentine, captain of the track team gave a review of their season.

George Skipworth sang "Duna" and "Day Is Gone," and was accompanied by Dorothy Davis. Louise Burneson sang "Among My Souvenirs" and was

Fashion Showings—Nautical Togs!

Edited by LAURA I. BALDT, A.M.

For many years Assistant Professor of Household Arts, Teachers College, Columbia University, New York, N.Y.

They're so practical and childish aren't they? And so simple to sew. This nautical blue pique dress with nautical blue pique trim. Brothers' blouse is exactly like the upper part of sister's dress. His shorts are nautical blue, however, they are also smart made of white pique.

Style No. 3019 is designed for sizes 4 and 6 years. You can have brother and sister pattern for price of one if you order both in same size, but if ordered in different sizes they are 15 cents each. Size 4 requires 1 1/2 yards of 39-inch material with 5/8 yard of 35-inch contrasting dress; and 1 yard of 39-inch material with 1 1/4 yards of 35-inch light material for suit.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in stamps or coin (coin is preferred) for PATTERN. Write plainly YOUR NAME, ADDRESS AND STYLE NUMBER. Be SURE TO STATE SIZE YOU WISH.

Spring Fashion Book Costs TEN CENTS. Send for Your Copy Today! BOOK and PATTERN together TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

Address order to Eugene Register-Guard, Pattern Department.

WINSUM LOTION FOR YOUR SKIN

Stearns' DRUGS

3019

katharine

HEPBURN

charles

BOYER

Break of Hearts

with

JOHN BEAL

JEAN HERSHOLT

Directed by Philip Moeller
Associate Director, Jane Loring
A Pandro S. Berman Production

RKO RADIO PICTURE

BETTER PICTURES

HEILIG

PERFECT SOUND

STARTS TODAY FOR 4 DAYS ONLY!

ALSO

Technicolor Cartoon
"MAKE BELIEVE REVUE"

Another of Those
"DUMB-BELL LETTERS"

Shorty, the Chimp in
"Monkey Shines"

Pathe News of Today

SCHEDULE:

News and Shorts
1:00	3:00	5:00	7:00	9:00
"Break of Hearts"
1:40	3:40	5:40	7:40	9:40

Please Try to See the Feature Picture from the Beginning.