

Metropolitan Fight Followers Expect Joe Louis To Defeat Huge Italian

PUNCHING RECORD OF DETROIT NEGRO SAID KEY TO BOUT

By ALAN GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)
NEW YORK, June 21.—(AP)—The expectation that Joe Louis, sensational negro pugilist, will reduce huge Primo Carnera to a punch-ridicled heap in the ring at Yankee stadium Tuesday night seems to be widespread among Metropolitan fight followers.

It has been prompted no doubt by such headlines as these:

"Joe Louis' Punch Is Magnificent; Brown Bomber Has Had Every Opponent in His Professional Career On Floor."

"Louis Like Black Dempsy; Detroit Destroyer Merciless On Sparring Partners As Was Manassa Mauler."

"Bomber Sees Kayo Victory in Five Rounds."

As far as offering a forecast is concerned, all this can be tossed into the waste basket. It's the logical halcyon for the fight.

It is true that Louis has a great punching record and that the cash customers are being lured by the prospect of modified mayhem. It will be to bear in mind, however, that Barney Ross was confident of knocking out Jimmy McFarlin, and Max Baer was sure he would put Jimmy Braddock to sleep inside a half-dozen rounds. There was not even a knock-down in either fight.

Louis' reputation for administering knockout blows to his opponents is such that he may handicap himself by trying too hard and too soon to bring down the giant Italian.

For all his rapid and spectacular rise, Louis lacks experience. He record of 18 knockouts in 22 professional fights within a year is impressive until the list is examined. It does not include many victims with familiar names.

Carnera, of course, is a difficult target to miss inside the ring. He is apt to become flustered under heavy fire, and his chin has a manifest weakness when solidly hit. But for all his erratic pugilistic course, Primo has impressed his defensive ability and shown rare gameness. Max Baer had the Italian on the floor 11 times but could not keep him there.

Carnera does not carry a heavy enough punch, for all his bulk, to win by a knockout. His best chance is to evade the negro's punches sufficiently to keep his feet and pile up a margin on points with his huge left hand. Carnera's job is his best and only scientific weapon.

The hopes of a "gate" of upward of $300,000, fifty per cent more than the Baer-Bradlock title fight drew, is based largely on the attraction of the Louis knock-out punch. The customers like to see big fellows tumble.

Portland Youth Is Favorite to Bring Tennis Trophy Home

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—(AP)—Wayne Sabin, 19-year-old Portland star, today became the favorite to take to Oregon the 1935 men's singles championship of the California state tennis tournament.

The black-haired Portland youth bounded into favoritism through his performance in eliminating Edward (Bud) Chandler, seeded No. 1 in a quarter-final match on the Berkeley tennis club court yesterday.

Using a cannonball backhand drive mixed with left lobbing, Sabin eliminated the early favorite by scores of 4-6, 12-10, 6-4. Chandler, an almost perennial state champion, bowed before a combination of better strategy and stronger legs. He was puffing badly at the end while Sabin finished with a pair of badly blistered hands.

So close was the match that in the last set seven of the ten games played went to deuce.

While Sabin was resting today for his semi-final match Saturday against Howard Blethen, San Francisco's Alvie Harbelle held the center of the stage in the tournament.

Launched on a comeback campaign after a year's absence from competition, Miss Marble was scheduled to meet Gussie Raegener, rising young star, in a semi-final match in the women's singles competition.

HANDSOME DAN IS WINNER OVER DEL KUNKLE THURSDAY

"Lovely to look at, delightful to know"—Danny McShain, middleweight champion of the Pacific coast, broadcasting, Danny McShain, conqueror of Dynamite Del Kunkle, pride of Herb Owen's stables, and as tough a cookie as there is in the business.

Mr. McShain, who arrived in Eugene Thursday with a boast on his lips, a swagger in his walk, and an eye for the ladies, more than made good on his previous assertions Thursday night in the main event of the armory mat card, defeating Kunkle and assuming the role of the man to beat for "top dog" honors of local grappling.

He Likes It

McShain, billed as a "ladies' man," and delightfully admitting it, spills falls with Dynamite Del, but won the second tumble with such gusto that Kunkle was unable to return, and the laurel wreath of victory automatically went to the Son of Erin.

Before a small crowd, McShain and Kunkle battled through 37 thrill-filled minutes, with each displaying speed, ability and flash. McShain, fast as lightning and clever in his wrestling, showed the best combination of skill and rough stuff since a former adonis, Sammy Cohen of New York, and his victory over Kunkle was no fluke.

The supporting bouts were also hot, with Thor Jensen, the Elkton Thunderbolt, returning to Eugene after a trip to California, and celebrating his homecoming with a one-fall victory over Dorry Detton, and Sailor Trout blasting out a 2 out of 3 falls decision over Ray Lammpan, San Francisco meanie.

The main event topped the show, however, despite the brilliance of the prelims, and for brilliant wrestling coupled with smashing rough stuff was one of the best bouts staged at the armory in some months.

Kunkle won the first fall in 28 minutes, following a rope-flip and a thundering Australian plectrifier. The opening moments of the bout were clean, but McShain soon cut loose with his fists, and from that point on the battle ranged from high-speed science to barroom roughhouse.

McShain immediately went to work on Kunkle's injured knee, hurt in a bout at Corvallis Wednesday, and won the second fall in 9 minutes with a steppover toe hold. He kicked and slugged the injured knee throughout and it was so badly banged up that Kunkle, after a three minute rest, was forbidden to return by the wrestling commission.

McShain, who was roundly booed the moment he stepped in the ring, drew the crowd's enmity almost to the point of hostile throwing before the match was over, and promises to become one of the state's most hated meannies.

Sailor Trout won over Ray Lammpan in the semi-windup, which was largely fought with fists and hammerlocks. Lammpan took the first tumble in 13 minutes with a "step on" hammerlock, and Trout returned with his arm in bad shape. After the referee had repeatedly warned Lammpan, Trout gave up hope of a scientific triumph, and laid the newcomer low in 7 minutes with 7 beautiful right smashes to the button.

Trout won the third fall by the same method, after Referee Elliott had "fouled up" the newcomer following a tangle between the two.

Jensen and Detton staged a merry fray in the first bout, with the Thunderbolt, utilizing his old "hand shake" gag, first used on Yagui Joe, to amuse what proved to be the only fall, with 18 minutes gone, the referee warned the Thunderbolt, who promptly apologized to Detton and offered the hand of good fellowship. Dorry, touched by the display, shook hands and Jensen gave him three vicious whiplocks for the fall.

Record to Crash In Swimming Meet

PORTLAND, Ore., June 21.—(AP)—More than 78 contestants today had entered the Pacific northwest amateur swimming and diving championships to be held Saturday at Jantzen beach park.

Miss Olive McKean, Washington Athletic club, is expected to lower the record time of 1:10.6 in the 100-meter free-style race for women. She has been timed as low as 1:06 for the event.

Jack Medina, holder of more world records than any other swimmer and another Washington Athletic club entrant, will concentrate on the 500-meter and the 100-yard free style events. Winfield Needham, junior national distance titlist, probably will press Medina in the 800-meter swim.

Fred Rossiter, Herbert Eisenhardt, Roy Jeffcott, Audrey Halfenden and Nancy Lewis, all of Multnomah club, Portland, are prospective record-breakers.

NEW YORK TEAMS PILING UP LEADS IN MAJOR LEAGUES

NEW YORK, June 21.—(AP)—The two major league pennant races are developing into runaways.

The New York Giants lead the National league by 6½ games and have won five straight games. The New York Yankees lead the American league by 5½ games and have captured six in a row.

The two leaders are fattening percentages on their closest rivals. After taking three in a row from the St. Louis Cardinals, the Giants knocked off the second-place Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday, 6-2.

For the third straight time the Yanks turned back the Tigers, 5-2. It may have been a costly victory for New York, inasmuch as Bill Dickey was hit in the back of the head by one of Joe Sullivan's wild southpaw pitches. X-rays failed to show fractures but it may be several days before he will return to the lineup.

Cleveland replaced Chicago in second place in the American league by splitting a double-header with the Athletics. Philadelphia won the first game, 5-3, in 10 innings when Jimmy Fox hit Homer No. 12 with Johnson on base. Singles by Radcliff, Hayes and Hans gave the White Sox the second game, 2-1, in 12 innings.

Dizzy Dean held the Phillies to 5 hits in pitching the Cardinals to a 3-1 victory over Philadelphia. Camille's 12th homer was the only run made off Dean.

Brooklyn divided a double-header, the Reds taking the first game, 6-1, in 11 innings, and the Dodgers winning the second, 7-1.

SEALS BEAT DUCKS 7 TO 5 THURSDAY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

San Francisco and Portland settled their baseball differences by a score of 7 to 5. The Seals took the measure of the Ducks by that score last night to forge one game ahead in the series standings.

Win Ballou, who gave out 17 hits, was saved from defeat by the trusty arm of Walter "The Great" Mills. Mills entered the game in the ninth with the bases bulging and only one out and struck out the side. Gil English, Portland third sacker, led the Ducks' attack with a homer, two doubles and a single.

Los Angeles scored twice on two hits and an error in the seventh to defeat Seattle 2 to 0. Howard Graebner allowed only three other hits in the game. Mike Meola of the Angels was reached just seven times but was in hot water twice when the Tribe loaded the bags.

Sacramento unlimbered a pair of long burl rifles in the persons of Paul Gregory and Manuel Salvo, two lanky right-handers, who effectively knocked off Hollywood 3-1. Heavy-hitting Gene Desautels, star catcher, was chased to the showers early in the game, by Umpire Jack Powell.

Wayne Osborne, young right handed Mission Red flinger, turned in another fine performance to beat his transbay rivals from Oakland 5 to 2. Only one of the Oak's runs was earned. The other came on an error by Oscar Eckhardt.

FRIDAY'S PROGRAMS

HEILIG: "Party Wire," with Victor Jory, Jean Arthur, plus "Fighting Shadows," with Tim McCoy. Ends Saturday.

MCDONALD: "In Caliente," with Dolores Del Rio, Pat O'Brien, plus "Vagabond Lady," Ends Saturday.

REX: "Mark of the Vampire" with Lionel Barrymore and "Clive of India" with Ronald Colman and Loretta Young. Ends Sunday.

STATE: "Life Begins at 40" with Will Rogers. Ends Saturday.

"Mark of the Vampire" the new mystery film opening at the Rex theater Friday is said to eclipse any shocker ever presented on the screen. The star-studded cast includes Lionel Barrymore, Elizabeth Allen, Bela Lugosi of "Dracula" fame, Lionel Atwill, Jean Hersholt and Henry Waitsworth. Co-featured is "Clive of India" with Ronald Colman and Loretta Young, a mighty fine picture.

"In Caliente" musical offering with Dolores Del Rio and Pat O'Brien at the McDonald, has three big and big dance numbers by Busby Berkeley, "In Caliente," "Lady in Red," "Mueh-acha" which are worth taking time out to see. "Vagabond Lady" also showing.

"Tim McCoy has never appeared to better advantage than he does in "Fighting Shadows," his latest rip-roaring, two-gun adventure romance now at the Heilig. McCoy plays a Royal Mounted and deals out justice in the frozen north. "Party Wire" featuring Victor Jory and Jean Arthur is also showing.

Picture fans who find Will Rogers' brand of humor irresistible (and their number is legion) should hit themselves straight to the State theater and see "Life Begins at 40." Among the high spots in the picture are Will's efforts at hot-calling, and his pistol duel which he wins through wisecracking.

BIG TRACK MEET STARTS ON FRIDAY

By BOB LETTIS
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
BERKELEY, Cal., June 21.—(AP)—On the point-scoring possibilities of two great stars Ohio state's chance of snatching victory from the Southern California's powerful Trojans in the national collegiate A. A. track and field meet which gets under way here today.

Jesse Owens, dusky record-breaker of the Buckeyes, will be entered in four events, and on past performances ranks favorite in each. His teammate Class, Beetham, is a standout in the 880-yard run.

It is possible that these two men alone can account for 40 or 50 points, a lead which even the large, brilliant and well-balanced Trojan squad would have difficulty in overcoming.

As 251 athletes from more than 80 schools throughout the nation lined up for the first day's trials, Owens, through Coach Larry Snyder of the Buckeyes, made it definite that he planned pitting his speed and endurance against the nation's finest in the 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 220-yard low hurdles and the broad jump. Some doubt previously had existed whether he would run the barrier race.

The last-minute withdrawal of Bob Fowler, University of California two-miler who placed second in the I. C. A. A. 3900 meter run, left the third place situation wide open. Louisiana State, led by the great Glenn "Stats" Hardin, and Stanford, long a national threat, were California's chief worries.

Warm weather was expected both today and tomorrow, the United States weather bureau predicted, and most of the 25,500 seats were expected to be filled.

Carnera Works On Punches to Body

OWASCO LAKE, N. Y., June 21.—(AP)—Indications that Primo Carnera intends to concentrate on Joe Louis' body in their 15-round bout in Yankee stadium Tuesday night have been evident in the former champion's training the past few days. In yesterday's 5-round drill he applied himself to body punching to a great extent.

After looking bad against Nat Brown on Wednesday, Carnera showed a much better defense in a 2-round bout with Brown yesterday. Only once was Brown able to get over a hard punch.

The lemon was introduced into the United States by Spanish adventurers.

YALE TAKES TWO RACES ON THAMES

REGATTA COURSE, New London, Conn., June 21.—(AP)—Yale swept both morning races of its 73rd annual regatta with Harvard on the Thames today, winning the freshman race by eight feet and the junior varsity by little more than six feet.

It was the most exciting morning program in the history of Yale-Harvard rowing rivalry which dates back to 1852.

The Eli captured the two mile upstream freshman race with a magnificent sprint finish after Harvard had led practically all the way from the start to within a few yards of the finish line.

The junior varsity engagement, rowed over the same course, was even closer but in this case Yale gained a lead in the first few hundred yards and held it all the way to the finish at Bartlett's Cove. The Eli Jayvees led by almost three quarters of a length with a hundred yards to go when Harvard began a finishing spurt that just failed to nip the blue at the line.

It was the second successive year in which Yale captured both morning races.

Heading the spectators was President Roosevelt, here to watch his son, Franklin, Jr., row with the beaten Harvard junior varsity.

The climax of the regatta, the four mile down stream varsity brush, will be rowed at six p. m. (eastern standard time) this evening.

Tiny Tennis Star Defeats Champion

CHICAGO, June 21.—(AP)—Bryan "Bibby" Grant, mighty little man of tennis from Atlanta, advanced to the quarter-finals in defense of his national club court singles crown today by defeating Bernard Welsh, star amateur public parks champion from Washington, D. C., in straight sets, 6-4, 6-3.

The tiny champion, standing only five feet four and weighing but 120 pounds, moved down his six-foot rival with comparative ease, leading all the way and out-steadying his more inexperienced rival. Welsh's best moment, a pretty whip shot, gave Bibby a little trouble but the Atlanta, one of the game's greatest retrievers, mastered that and beat him.

Jensen and Detton staged a merry fray in the first bout, with the Thunderbolt, utilizing his old "hand shake" gag, first used on Yagui Joe, to amuse what proved to be the only fall, with 18 minutes gone, the referee warned the Thunderbolt, who promptly apologized to Detton and offered the hand of good fellowship. Dorry, touched by the display, shook hands and Jensen gave him three vicious whiplocks for the fall.
