

WAR MANEUVERS INVOLVE TROOPS AT CAMP MURRAY

CAMP MURRAY, Wash., June 21.—(AP)—"Over the top" went the 41st Division, national guard troops, just before dawn today in a driving attack on "enemy" forces entrenched near Bor, Wash.

Infantry brigades advanced behind artillery batteries in the big battle, featured maneuver of the first north-west divisional national guard concentration since the World war.

Ahead of the infantry were tanks to rout enemy machine gun nests while enemy ground troops were being "strafed" by airplanes. Other aircraft dropped bombs on enemy supply dumps and communication centers.

Action was typical of modern warfare in every detail. The "war" ended this afternoon with staff officers, under Major General George A. White, adjutant general of the Oregon national guard, holding a "general check-up" critique tonight.

Heavy guardsmen—about 7400 including officers—will hold inspection Saturday for Major General Paul A. Malone, commandant of the ninth army corps unit. General Malone and Governors of Oregon, Washington and Idaho will review the troops Sunday morning.

The annual national guard band concert will be held Sunday morning between hands representing the 148th field artillery, Tacoma; the 140th field artillery, Seattle; and the 161st infantry, Spokane.

THESE TROOPS WILL FACE ITALIANS, MAYBE!

Here is a typical outfit of Ethiopia's bravest, marching through the dusty streets of Addis Ababa. Small chance against Mussolini's modern legions, you may think, but high mountain ranges protect the African kingdom, and forty years ago the soldiers of the "King of Kings" repulsed an Italian invasion with appalling slaughter. That is why Il Duce says Italy "has some debts to pay."

destructive effort by labor leaders is being made in the face of the fact that the 4-L organization, by joint action of employers and employees, in 1917 instituted and has since maintained the highest wages and the best labor standards of the lumbering industry anywhere in the world.

"The 4-L believes the time has come for concerted action.

Movement Coming Long Time "Ever since section 7 (a) gave standing to collective bargaining some students of labor problems have predicted that the official recognition of collective bargaining would result in a powerful national movement in which labor organizations of a conciliatory and cooperative nature would amalgamate to oppose not only the communistic unions but also the American Federation of Labor union."

He predicted collective bargaining authority "is certain to result in the long run in the predominance of employees' groups whose purpose is to procure improvement of labor conditions by pacific evolution instead of destructive agitation and strikes."

"The 4-L looks to me like a healthy pioneer on a new frontier," Ruegnitz said, "that of amicable and satisfactory industrial relations. In the past many have said the 4-L is fine in theory but in reality ahead of its time. That may have been true once, but right now it is in its time."

Lane C. E. Plans Picnic Saturday

The Lane county union of the Christian Endeavor society is sponsoring a picnic for all C. E. members of the county, Saturday, in Dilley's Riverside park. Sports and entertainment will start at 3 p. m. The picnic supper will be at 6:30 p. m. Sports will include baseball, swimming, and horse-shoes. The supper is a potluck event, each group to bring its own basket of lunch and table service.

After the supper there will be a campfire service with impromptu skits and other program features, including group singing and a worship service. All Eugene C. E. members without transportation are asked to meet at the Central Presbyterian church between 5:30 and 6 o'clock. Those whose cars are not filled also are asked to stop at the church to care for those without transportation.

PETITIONS FILED ON M'KENZIE DISTRICT

A public hearing at which opinions on the establishment of a "people's" utility district in the upper McKenzie valley will be the next step in the move to electrify the area, following filing of the petitions asking such a district with the state hydro-electric commission in Salem Friday.

Petitions, taken out here a few days ago by Frank Taylor, McKenzie Bridge, and Harvey Cooley, Blue River, were completed and sent to Salem Friday. The commission is expected to announce the date of the hearing in the near future. Following this hearing, if sentiment is in favor of the district, the commission will order a survey of the project to determine its feasibility.

The proposed district would extend from Leaburg to the summit of the Cascades and if formed, power would be purchased from the Eugene electric utility. The district comprises 374 square miles, has a population of 800 and an assessed valuation of $1,869,003.

Freighter Awaiting Tide to Leave Port

The freighter, Bertie M. Hanlon, was loaded with a full cargo of lumber Friday ready to start the return trip to San Francisco, according to word received at the Eugene chamber of commerce.

The lumber cargo weighed over 500 tons and caused the ship to ride lower than is normally desired, it was said. For this reason the boat was forced to await the highest tide in order to clear the bar at the harbor. Her time of departure was not known here Friday afternoon.

Wheat Inspection Work Completed

Field inspections for wheat contract compliance have been completed in Lane county, it was announced Friday by O. S. Fletcher, county agent. Acresages will be checked at the county agent's office in the next few days. Following the field inspections it is permissible for growers who wish to abandon wheat for any reason to do so without calling upon an inspector first, Fletcher announced.

Packed like silks..it takes patience and care to prepare Turkish tobacco for Chesterfield Cigarettes

Size, color, texture, condition... all these have something to do with aroma and flavor

Leaf by leaf, the sun-ripened Turkish tobacco is selected or rejected to get just the right kind for Chesterfield's milder, better taste. And just as much care is taken to pack the tobacco to preserve the delicate aroma during its 4000 mile journey to this country.

So important is the preparation of Turkish tobacco in making Chesterfields, that Liggett & Myers have their own modern leaf handling plants in seven important tobacco centers of Turkey and Greece.
