CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, July 5.—(AP)—All future deliveries of wheat in Chicago plunged downward 5 cents a bushel late today as compared with Wednesday's close.

Announcement that the price of wheat at Winnipeg today had tumbled to the minimum permitted by the Canadian government led to fresh outbursts of distress selling in Chicago and other leading markets. A statement from Premier Bennett of Canada that there would be no sacrificing of grain from that country in international trade was ignored as market influence.

Wheat closed semi-demoralized, 5 to 5 1/8 under Wednesday's finish. Sept. 1, 7-8, corn 1 3/4 to 2 3/8 off, Sept. 7-8, 1-2, oats 1 3/8 to 2 cents down, and provisions unchanged to 25 cents lower.
