Obituaries

James Newman
MONROE, July 20.—(Special)—James Newman who died Saturday at his home 2 miles north of Monroe was buried Tuesday in the Crystal Lake cemetery in Corvallis. Rev. Father E. J. Murnane of Astoria was in charge. Mr. Newman, a native of Oregon, was born May 4, 1879, at Forest Grove. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sadie M. Newman, four sons and one daughter, Bernard, Claire, Riley, Harold and Miss Jauanita Newman, all of Benton county; his mother, Mrs. Rose Newman and two brothers, Lee and Tom Newman, all of Corvallis, and one sister, Mrs. Finnegan of Eugene.

Creswell School Teachers Named

CRESWELL, July 20.—(Special)—Two new teachers were elected last night to complete the teaching staff of the local high school and grade school. Miss Martha Angle, Corvallis, was named to take charge of the commercial department of the high school; and Miss Anderson, Colton, was chosen to take the place of Mrs. Verma Hazel as teacher in the first and second grades.

The addition of Miss Angle to the high school staff brings the total of teachers in the high school to four. For the past two years three teachers have been able to carry the teaching load here, but increased enrollment is expected to make the new addition necessary.

Kostka, Scooter In All-Star Lead

CHICAGO, July 20.—(P)—With two days of voting left, only two players, Irvine (Cotton) Warburton of Southern California, and Stan Kostka of Minnesota, had apparently safe leads today in the college all-star football poll.

Kostka, the huge Gopher fullback, led Izzy Weinstein of Pittsburgh, by 14,923 votes—94,326 to 79,403. Warburton's 87,642 gave him a margin of 11,748 over Miller Munjas of Pittsburgh, who had 75,894, in the quarter-back battle. Jack Beynon of Illinois, was third with 72,578.

Springfield News Items

SPRINGFIELD, July 20.—(Special)—The wedding of Miss Irene Opie and Freeman Squires was solemnized at the Christian church Saturday evening at 7:30. Miss Opie came to Springfield from Boise, Idaho, three years ago, and has worked at McKee's Bakery of Springfield. Mr. Squires graduated from Springfield high school in 1930, and has also been connected with McKee's Bakery. The couple plan to make their home in Springfield.

Mr. W. K. Barnell, manager of the Springfield unit of the Mountain States Power company has left for Ocean Lake on vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Louk of Greenfield, Iowa, left Saturday for the East, via Portland. They plan to stop in Corvallis Sunday to visit friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Verne Louk also left Springfield Saturday, and plan to visit in Corvallis.

The regular business meeting of the Rebekah lodge will be held Monday evening. No special program has been arranged.

Several members of the Springfield I. O. O. F. are planning to attend the East-West I. O. O. F. picnic at Lost Creek Ranch Sunday.

Mrs. S. Jacobson is entertaining for Mrs. A. Manwaring at the home of Mrs. G. A. Brown. The program includes music by Betty Jacobson, Joan McFarlane, and Marie Hollister, violins; Laura Montgomery, piano. Guests are as follows:

Mrs. Joan Manwaring, Mrs. Cecil Mathis, Mrs. Edgar Louk, Mrs. P. J. Inman, Mrs. John Lehnart, Mrs. Bob Johnston, Miss Jeannette Brown, Mrs. Ren Holybiter, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Orentze, Mrs. McFarlane, Mrs. Jacobson, all of Springfield; and Mrs. Emma Lee Rose, Mrs. Bob McCall, Mrs. Laura Montgomery, Mrs. Lloyd Elliott, all of Santa Clara.

A meeting of the Townsend club of Springfield was held Friday night at Taylor's hall. Ren Hollister of Springfield and Dr. James of Portland were the speakers. After the meeting a social hour was held, and pie and coffee were served. About 200 were present. The next meeting will be held August 2.

As a climax of Red Cross summer classes in swimming, a program featuring demonstrations by the beginners, intermediates, and life-saving classes was held Friday evening at Willamette Park, and awards were presented.

The beginners' project was "How We Learn to Swim." It included dodging the ball in the water, and swimming.

An interesting social was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. N. Dow. Mrs. Dow invited members of the Ergatha Sunday school class for a lawn party at her home on Emerald heights. Rev. and Mrs. J. D. McCormick were guests of honor, and Rev. McCormick made a short talk. Members of the class recited poems. Assisting Mrs. Dow were Mrs. George Prochnow, Mrs. Elvin May and Mrs. R. L. Drury.

Potato Cultivators See Demonstration

Four-H certified seed potato growers met Saturday afternoon at James' Gardens to hear of the proper methods of cultivating and weeding their crops. O. S. Fletcher, county agent and Professor G. R. Hyslop, head of the farm crop department at Oregon State college, demonstrated the most efficient potato growing control.

Later, Hyslop and Fletcher made an inspection of the Highland bent grass areas west of Eugene with an eye to their development on a harvesting scale. Will Ford, living on the Crow road, has harvested this seed for several years, and recently neighbors have found the grass abundant on their properties. Approximately 300 acres were examined.
