Showers Are Held This Week For Miss Hunt

MISS LOIS MARGARET HUNT, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Hunt, whose marriage to Harold A. Thomas of Corvallis and Newport will be an event of August 2 at the Congregational church in Eugene, has been the inspiration for a series of bridal showers this week-end.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. H. R. Gould and Mrs. C. P. Tillman entertained at the Tillman home for Miss Hunt at two-thirty o'clock. The guests embroidered tea towels during the afternoon and an interesting "shower" centered around Japanese umbrellas was held.

Friday Mrs. C. B. Clark and Mrs. R. W. Rundlett entertained at the Clark home with a miscellaneous linen shower and a dessert bridge party asking Miss Margaret Nebergall, Miss Florence Nombalaz, Miss Frances McDermott, Miss Margaret Ellen Hill, Miss Alice Tillman, Miss Helen Tillman, Miss Lucille Stewart, Miss Lorraine Hunt, Miss Mary Hunt, Miss Mae Schnellbacher, Miss Rosalind Grey, Miss Roberta Moody, Miss Lois Margaret Hunt and Mrs. C. E. Hunt.

Miss Margaret Nebergall was hostess Saturday evening at her home at seven-thirty with a linen shower honoring Miss Hunt. Those present included Miss Margaret Ellen Hill, Miss Lorraine Hunt, Miss Virginia Howard, Miss Doris Gilek, Miss Wanda Veatch, Miss Mae Schnellbacher, Miss Dagmar Haugen, Miss Thelma Nelson, Miss Florence Nombalaz, Miss Mary Hunt, Miss Lois Margaret Hunt and Miss Margaret Nebergall.

County Clubwomen Plan Thursday Reception

THURSDAY evening at eight-fifteen o'clock at Gerlinger hall a large reception which all clubwomen of Lane county are invited to attend, will be held honoring the caravan of prominent Portland club women headed by Sallie Orr Dunbar, first vice-president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs who was elected to that high post at the general convention in June at Detroit.

At the reception, Mrs. Dunbar will speak on "Today's Trends in Club Work and the Place the Oregon Club Woman Holds." Mrs. Dunbar, who is well known to club women throughout the county, will also give an account of the general convention telling of the recent developments which will be of great interest here.

A special invitation has been extended to presidents and officers of all Lane county clubs, but all interested women are invited by the committee to hear Mrs. Dunbar.

Among Portland women coming will be members of the "Flying Squadron" a group of prominent Portland women who are working on a subscription campaign for The Oregon Club Woman. Headed by Mrs. Olin J. Howford, president of the Portland City Federation, the others are Mrs. C. W. Robinson, Mrs. Harold Dickson Marsh, Mrs. Eugene Condon, Mrs. Opal Hagenbach, Mrs. C. H. Morton and Mrs. P. S. Kaadt.

Mrs. Belle Lydick, president of the Lane county federation, Mrs. J. O. Holt, state Doerbachsch president, Mrs. Effie Knapp and Miss Jeannette Calkins, editor of the Oregon Club Woman, are on the committee making arrangements for this reception.

In the receiving line will be the Portland guests, Dean Hazel P. Schwering of the University of Oregon and Mrs. J. O. Holt.

Rathbone-Simons Wedding Is Friday

MISS GLADYS SIMONS, youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Simons of Eugene, was married to Edwin D. Rathbone, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Rathbone of Palmer, Massachusetts at a ceremony performed Friday evening at eight o'clock at the home of Rev. R. E. Clark on the River road. Rev. Mr. Clark read the service in the presence of a few close friends and family members.

Attending the couple were Miss Ruth Carlson as bridesmaid for Miss Simons and Jack Simons as best man for Mr. Rathbone.

The couple will reside in Eugene until September when they will leave for Kirksville, Missouri, to make their home. Mrs. Rathbone is a student at the osteopathic college here and Mr. Rathbone is a graduate of the college.

day at the beach. The trip was under the direction of Peggy Wright who is working for her first class. Fifteen girls made the trip, led by Junko (Gertrude Brantworth) and Bidaban (Ellen Lood). The party returned in time for afternoon swimming. General camp fire was held again in the evening, with the counselors providing the entertainment. Those participating were Tommy Reid, Dolphin (Ella Reikley) and Bidaban. Names were exchanged for the Christmas party which will be held on Friday, while refreshments were served by the Chickagams.

The evening was ended with the singing of Taps.
