McLemore's Sport Parade

By HENRY McLEMORE
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, July 29.—(U.P.)—Of all the editors in sports magazines I have ever read, the one printed in the current "Der Boxsport," official organ of Germany's boxing authorities, wins the all-time prize for smugness, prejudice, and cocky confidence of attitude.

Here's the editorial:

"It's more than doubtful whether Joe Louis is qualified to fight a boxer of Schmeling's significance. There is the same degree of uncertainty in boxing as in ball games. Then if Schmeling should lose, who would profit? Sports as such? Not at all.

"We do not want champions to shoot up like mushrooms. They ought to be selected on the basis of a long, unquestionable record. Thus far Louis has only a victory over Primo Carnera to his credit. He alone would profit from a victory over Schmeling. However, Schmeling is not interested in facilitating Louis' rise to the championship."

That's the honey, isn't it? Of "Schmeling's significance" my eye! What significance? Max is the only heavyweight champion from Jim Figg down to Braddock who ever won the title sitting down and lost it standing up. And he wouldn't have even won it sitting down had it not been for his manager, Joe Jacobs, who raised so much hell as Jack Sharkey hit him low that the judges were glad to give Max the title to shut Joe up.

And speaking of Jacobs, what is Max now trying to do to the man who led him from nowhere to a million dollars? He's trying to shake him loose without a penny. You have read that Schmeling, in all his dickering for a fight over here, demands his share of the purse be deposited in advance, and in a foreign bank. Why do you think he demands this? Because he's afraid of not being paid off. Not a bit. Out of the United States his contract with Jacobs is not binding.

And why does he ask such tremendous sums as $100,000 and $150,000 be deposited? Simply because he's afraid his per centage will run over that and Jacobs will take his money. Jacobs will take his money out before he can get it out of the United States. It's no secret that on his recent trip to Berlin Jacobs, finding himself without enough money for return passage, had to cable here for it. He couldn't get $500 from Max, whom he had gone over to see in order to offer him a fight worth $250,000.

To read dear old "Der Boxsport" one would believe Schmeling was the greatest fighter who ever lived. Maybe he is, but when old Paulino can stay with him 12 rounds without once hitting the deck, one has a perfect right to have doubts.

And don't you just love that part of the editorial asking who would profit by a Louis victory, and ending with the query "Sports as such? Not at all." From what's been going on over there the past few years, I'm surprised they can still spell the word "sport."

In my boxcar, 100 against 1 never was sport.
