Beardsworth (Margaret Wetterstrom) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Wetterstrom, who was married at a home ceremony performed Tuesday, August 6.

Miss McKinnon Is Married at Home Ceremony

ON Saturday afternoon at five o'clock at the home of her parents, Miss Janice McKinnon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, became the bride of Richard Eastman Odell, son of Mrs. Lena Odell, in a ceremony performed in the presence of relatives and close friends of the families.

Preceding the ceremony, a violin solo, Cadman's "At Dawning" was played by Miss Vivian Malone.

Miss Eleanor Lewis of Marshfield was the bride's only attendant and Gordon Murphy of Portland acted as best man for Mr. Odell.

The bride wore a silk crepe suit in a soft violet shade trimmed in gray and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses and lilies of the valley. Her hat and accessories were of matching shades of gray. Miss Lewis wore a navy blue crepe suit with hat and shoes to match. Her bouquet was of pink roses.

Gladioli and other fall flowers were used in decorating the rooms. Small colorful French bouquets were used on the supper tables.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Odell will make their home in Eugene.

Mrs. Odell attended the University of Oregon where she is affiliated with Delta Delta Delta. Mr. Odell attended the University of Washington and is a member of Phi Gamma Delta.

These are the four winners in the Annual Pretty Baby contest of the Eugene Country Club. First place was awarded by popular vote to (upper left) William King, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Haviland, 359 Mill street; second place (upper right) to Navarre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Kerr Davis, 193 Pearl street; third place (lower left) to Carl, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Graves, 1868 Fairmount, and fourth place (lower right) to Billy Glenn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Flatness, of Cottage Grove. Next Sunday the four honorable mention winners will be shown.

Hardman-Terrill Wedding Is Held On Saturday

MISS LUCILE TERRILL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Terrill and Ray W. Hardman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hardman, were married Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Clay E. Palmer reading the service at two o'clock.

Miss Violet Nelson was maid of honor and Vernon Wiscason acted as best man for Mr. Hardman.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Eliza Hardman, sister of the groom, played the Lohengrin wedding march.

The bride wore a dress of blue crepe and for her flowers carried a bouquet of sweet peas and raptures roses. Miss Nelson wore a dress of pink crepe and she wore a corsage of sweet peas and roses.

Only members of the two families were present for the ceremony and the informal reception which was held following. After a short trip to the coast, the couple will leave for Naselle, Wash., where Mr. Hardman is to teach at the Naselle high school.

Music Education Radio Programs Popular

THE radio programs identified with the Music Education series and broadcast over KORE are receiving an enthusiastic response according to the general committee on Music Education of the County Federation with headquarters at the Osburn hotel.

These programs are sponsored by local merchants who are supporting the movement for better music and encouraging local students.

Each student presented must be registered with a local teacher of music, either voice, piano or instrumental, and are required to have an audition before a committee before appearing over the air. The money earned by these radio programs is paid to the student and is applied on the tuition of the student. Students of local teachers who wish to enroll as contestants for these radio programs may write to the general chairman, Music Education Series, Osburn hotel.
