Safeway, Oregon City Softballers To Meet

SALEM, CORVALLIS, PORTLAND ADVANCE IN TUESDAY GAMES

(By United Press)

TONIGHT'S GAMES

Rotary Bread (Portland), vs. Milwaukie.

Eugene vs. Oregon City.

TUESDAY NIGHT'S SCORES

Salem 9, McMinnville 3.

M. and M. Woodworkers (Portland) 10, Toledo 0.

Corvallis 3, Lebanon 2.

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 21.—(U.P.)—The third annual state softball tournament went into the quarter finals today.

Salem, defending champions, advanced into the next round last night by eliminating McMinnville, 9 to 3. M. and M. Woodworkers, Portland, shut out Toledo, 10-0, and Corvallis squeezed out a 3-2 victory over Lebanon in the best and tightest game of the tourney to date.

New Whiff Record

Berlant, M. and M. moundsman, set a new strikeout record for this year's playoff when he fanned 17 men. Gilmore, pitching for the Salem champs, whiffed ten men. Lee, Chinese southpaw on the mound for Corvallis, showed a surprising fast ball.

Salem started off with four runs on four hits in the first inning to show championship form against McMinnville. Andy Petersen, ex-Portland Beaver pitcher in the Pacific Coast league, was found for 11 hits.

Franklin Falls

M. and M. went on an 11-hit spree in blanking Toledo, and seemed sure to advance into the semi-finals.

Norman "Red" Franklin, Oregon State college All-American football star, proved himself a better gridiron than diamond expert when he struck out twice—once with the bases full.

The scores:

McMinnville	3	4	4
Salem	9	11	3

Petersen and Denson; Gilmore and Schnuelle, Elliott.

Toledo	0	4	4
M. and M.	10	11	0

Louden and Post; Berlant, Allard and Gette.

Lebanon	2	3	2
Corvallis	3	5	3

Larson and Reeves; Lee and Van Valin.

HIGHCLIMBER looks 'em over

By RICHARD JOHNSTON

Stories coming in from here and there state that the Safeway softball team may have a tough time reaching the finals in the meet at Salem because of weak hitting.

The seven safeties they garnered against Silverton Monday evening are pointed out as evidence of futility at the bat, and the railbirds believe it will take mightier stickwork to blast through the mid-way rounds.

Since we haven't seen any of the title games, and all too few of the local tilts, we probably have no business commenting. But when you consider the fact that Steinbock, who pitched Pade's to state title last year, was on the mound for Silverton, that batting average doesn't look so bad.

Safeway has a wonderful defensive club, a fine pitcher, and the ability to hit 'em when they're needed. We feel that the experts are a little previous when they rule the locals out this early in the game.

Eugene baseball enthusiasts have a real "battle" coming up for them this evening. Gilbert Sprague, manager of the local playgrounds, is staking the 1935 inter-playground championships on the nightball field Wednesday and Thursday evenings, with two games slated.

Should Skinner's Butte beat Lincoln in the first tilt, at 7:45 p. m., a postponed game, a three-way tie with Condon and Willard for the league title would result.

Condon and Willard play off at 8:45 in the first tilt of a championship series. Thursday night Springfield will play the loser of the Condon-Willard battle in the 7:45 game, while Skinner's Butte will meet the winner, provided they defeat Lincoln tonight.

Eugene hardball fans who wonder as to the caliber of the Van Dyke House of David colored stars coming here Friday need only inspect their record within the state. Since they arrived within the boundaries of Oregon, they have licked Astoria and the Portland All-Stars—the latter club made up of outstanding players from the various Rose City leagues.

ELKTON THUNDERGOD TO BATTLE MARCUS

"I want four ounce gloves!"
"Make 'em eight ounces!"
"I said four ounce!"
"Eight ounce!"

And so the battle rages. Sailor Trout, Eugene grappler who was done dirt by Lightning Rod Fenton in the semi-windup of last week's mat card, and who subsequently challenged the Canadian to a four round boxing match this week, is holding out for four-ounce gloves in the battle, while Fenton insists that the mitts be eight-ounce.

"I figure the four ounce gloves will make it just that much quicker for me to knock him out," the Sailor explains. "Nuts," says Fenton. "I can knock him out with a pillow on each hand, but I'd like to cut him up a little first, and if I get those four ouncers on, I'm liable to KO him in the first round."

Promoter Herb Owen will rule as to the size of the gloves sometime between now and match-time, but in the meantime he has announced the opener of the Thursday card. Thor Jensen, the Elkton Thunderbolt, has been matched with Jerry Marcus, New York Jew, in the 30-minute special.

Marcus made a sensational showing in Portland Monday night, but Jensen states he has little fear of the New Yorker, and promises to show him a few Western methods of subduing an opponent.

The complete card, as announced today, will pit Jensen and Marcus in the 30-minute opener; Fenton and Trout in the four-round boxing semi-windup; and Herb Parks, middleweight champion of Canada, against Danny McShain, former coast middle titlist, in the main event.

Nichols Medalist Of Gearhart Meet

GEARHART, Ore., Aug. 21.—(U.P.)—Les Nichols, Portland, shot a 70 yesterday to become medalist in the men's 32-and-over division while Art Ulmer, Gearhart, carried a 71 for medalist honors in the 32-and-under division in the men's qualifying round of the annual Oregon coast mid-summer golf tournament.

Women favorites won all first round matches yesterday. They qualified Monday.

Miller Wins Easy Decision Tuesday

CINCINNATI, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Freddie Miller, recognized by the National Boxing association as featherweight champion of the world, rocked Roger Bernard of Flint, Michigan, through ten rounds last night to show 6000 howling fans just how he did it through a year of fight campaigning in Europe.

The bout almost ended in the second round, when Miller rifled a straight left to Bernard's chin. Bernard fell to the canvas. He took a count of nine but staggered to his feet. His eyes stared glassily and his guard was down, but he kept moving. From the fifth round to the finish, Bernard rallied enough to make a creditable showing but he was obviously outclassed.

MISSIONS WALLOP PORTLAND 9 TO 2 TO MAINTAIN LEAD

(By United Press)

Gabby Street was willing to be quoted today as saying that his Mission Reds are "in" so far as the pennant in the current Pacific Coast league race is concerned.

Street based his confidence on the club's success against Oakland last week and the fine start they got last night in opening a crucial series with the Portland Beavers.

Old Hollis Thurston hurled his eighth straight victory in lifting the Missions to the top of the league, breaking a tie with the San Francisco Seals and cheating Portland of a chance to climb into the control seat.

Thurston set down Moose Clabaugh, Gil English and the other Beaver sluggers with seven hits and gave them single runs in the second and eighth innings while 7,000 fans begged the Beavers to come on.

Slugging by Ossie Eckhardt, Roy Mort and Fred Berger of the winners routed Radonits and Schulz and bruised Spurgeon Chandler. The walloping dropped Portland to a game and a half behind the pace-setters.

The San Francisco Seals slid back a game out of first place by losing to Sacramento, 2-1, in a hurling duel between Tom Flynn and young Kenny Sheehan.

Flynn triumphed when the Senators scored two runs for him in the seventh.

Seattle and Los Angeles remained deadlocked in fourth place by winning their games last night.

Dick Barrett, Seattle ace right-hander, held Hollywood helpless while his mates pounded out a 9-1 victory. The attack fell heaviest in the third when four runners crossed and in the sixth when three more came home. The Indians batted Arch Campbell and Lefty Hebert for 12 hits and Hollywood helped the enemy by contributing four errors.

Timely batting by Gene Lillard and Jim Oglesby gave Los Angeles a 9-4 win over Oakland.

The Oaks started out like winners, scoring four runs off Lou Garland in the first inning. The Angels scored three in the second. They caught up in the seventh when Lillard doubled to score Statz with the trying run and Oglesby brought Lillard home with another single. In the eighth, with the bases loaded, Lillard doubled again to score three and Oglesby chased him home with another single.

TILLAMOOK CHEESE PRICE HAS RAISE

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 21.—(AP)—Tillamook cheese was up 1c lb. here as a result of a similar advance made by the Tillamook Creamery association. The new price of triplets at Tillamook is 18c for triplets to wholesalers and 19c for loaf which means a selling price to Portland retailers of 20c for the former and 21c for the latter. Everywhere cheese prices were firmer. Tillamook continued the highest priced cheese market in the world for like type.

There continued a firm tone for butter generally throughout the country. There is continued short supply as compared with a year ago but demand is increasing from the recent low point and prices were being generally well maintained. In fact in spots actual sales are netting ½c better than quotations.

There remained a firm tone and price on butterfat with the former spread of 1c generally continued both by centralizers and at some country points. Reports suggested that some of the interior points are actually paying a premium over the Portland basis, so shart are current offerings.

Trading in the egg market was generally of favorable character locally for top grades but there was an absence of activity for offgrade. Receipts of current lay continued light.

There was a light run of live chickens in the local trade. The price list continued to firm up but there was no radical changes in either buying or selling figures.

Situation in the country killed lamb market continued to show gaining strength with prices firm at the latest advance along the wholesale way. Other meats were steady to firm.

Better grade Gravenstein apples were being offered from Mosier, with wrapped and packed combination grade being offered to retailers here around $1.50.

Firm prices were continued for cantaloupes here as a result of better primary prices than the basis here with resulting shortage of offerings.

Theatres

By R. W. J.

HEILIG—"The Black Room," with Karloff. Ends Wednesday.

McDONALD—"Broadway Gondolier," with Dick Powell, Adolphe Menjou, Joan Blondell. Ends Wednesday.

MAYFLOWER—Double bill, "Air Hawks," with Wiley Post, plus "Desirable," with Jean Muir. Ends Tuesday.

STATE—Double bill. "One Frightened Night," with Wallace Ford, plus "Six Day Bike Rider," with Joe E. Brown. Ends Tuesday.

"Broadway Gondolier," playing at the McDonald, is fast, funny and tuneful. Story of a New York cab-driver who goes to Italy after being turned down by a radio station, is brought back as the "Flagenheim Cheese Gondolier." Dick Powell in his best voice. Joan Blondell more attractive than before.

* * *

"Black Room," Heilig attraction, is the best horror-thriller of the current season. Filmed with accuracy of detail, well developed suspense and a feasible plot, the picture is vastly superior to the preceding crop. Karloff excellent in a dual role.

* * *

"Six Day Bike Rider" and "One Frightened Night," ending today at the State, are hilarious comedies—the first straight laughs with Joe E. Brown furnishing the amusement—the second a dizzy combination of thrills and ha-has.

* * *

Mayflower's "Desirable" is a comedy drama, with interspersed moments of tenseness and comedy relief. Jean Muir and Ricardo Cortez have important roles. "Air Hawks," same bill, stars Wiley Post.

Alfalfa Hay Higher; Stock Market Higher

BUYERS PAYING $13 TO $14 A TON FOR LANE COUNTY HAY

The buying price of alfalfa hay in Lane county is a dollar a ton higher at present than it has been for some time past, buyers offering $13 and $14 for it. Cheat and clover hay is about off the market and there is not a great deal of oats and vetch coming in but the price of these three kinds remains about the same.

Tomatoes are coming in fast and local buyers are offering 80 cents a flat for them. Peaches are cheaper and are plentiful, growers getting 60 cents for a 20-pound flat or $1.35 a bushel for them.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—(AP)—War talk accompanying European political developments sped about the grain pits today but its bullish effect on prices, if any, was obscure. Wheat rose more than two cents a bushel despite scattered profit taking.

Trade developments supporting the buying side of the market included further pessimistic crop advices from spring wheat territory featuring a report of frost damage in northern reaches of the Canadian belt.

A let-up in hedging operations relieved selling pressure.

Wheat closed 1 5-8 to 2½ cents above the previous finish, December 91 7-8 to 92, and corn was unchanged to 3-4 higher, December 56¼ to 3-8. Oats gained 7-8 to 1 1-8, rye 1 3-8 to 1½, and barley 1-8 to 1½. Provisions were 25 points off to 33 points up.
