HEAT WAVE HURTS
RISE IN BUSINESS
DURING PAST WEEK

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Irregularity in the national business situation was reported today by Dun & Bradstreet in its weekly review.

"Evidence of the effect of seasonal influences became mildly apparent in the retail division during the week.

as the prolonged heat wave was unbroken in many parts of the country, thus interfering with distribution of early fall goods," said the report.

"In wholesale markets, on the other hand, the previous improvement was extended, as fresh price increases appeared and outlook for broadening consumption brightened, accompanied by the impressive industrial expansion and the stronger flow of cash into agricultural districts."

It was stated that trade in some districts was 15 to 30 per cent above the preceding week. The estimated gain for the country over 1934 was 4 to 25 per cent.

"With fewer trade conventions and exhibits," it was found, "the number of buyers in the leading wholesale markets was not so large as a week earlier, but the volume of orders was increased by the more numerous mail
