Miss Wheeler Wed At Church Event Saturday

ONE of the prettiest wedding scenes in the August pageant of nuptial ceremonies was that of last evening when Miss Virginia Wheeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Wheeler, and Glenn A. Byrnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Byrnes of Kelo, Wash., were married at the First Congregational church, the service being read at eight o'clock by Rev. Cecil F. Ris-tow, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church.

The setting was a candlelight one, a tall candelabrum with seven lighted tapers standing at either side of the altar while a lighted candle was in each window. Masses of gladioli in pastel shades and white, palms and other greenery decorated the church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She made a most attractive picture, wearing a floor length dress of white silk crepe and lace, made in Empire style. With it she wore a graduated veil of white tulle with coronet cap of tulle and pearls, and a necklace of pearls. For her flowers the bride carried a bouquet of Tulleman roses and bon vardia tied with tulle matching the veil.

Miss Elaine Wheeler was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a floor length dress of pale green net with cap of pleated net matching the dress. Her bouquet was a Colonial nosegay in pastel shades.

Kenneth Decker of Kelo was best man for Mr. Byrnes. The ushers were Raymond Byrnes, Merlin Tollefson, and Carl Johnson, all of Kelo, and Rex Hamaker of Eugene.

Mrs. Austin Ery played the wedding music and accompanied James Doyle who sang "Calm as the Night" and "Beane" preceding the ceremony.

A reception for close friends and relatives was held at the Wheeler home following the church service.

Mrs. Perry Buchanan of Kalamo, Wash., and Mrs. Frank Senn of Eugene cut the ices, and Mrs. Gordon Goodpasture and Mrs. Robert V. Betts presided at the punch bowl. Assisting in serving were Misses Lucille Skele, Susan Hurley, Ernestine Gilstrap, and Peggy Reynolds.

For her going-away costume, the bride wore a dark blue wool suit with white quilted scarf and blue felt hat.

Following a wedding trip to Victoria, Mr. and Mrs. Byrnes will be at home in Kelo where he is in business. Mrs. Byrnes is a graduate of the University of Oregon with the class of 1935 and is a member of Alpha

Monthly Supper At Club Friday

Fifty attended the monthly supper and social of the Country club, Friday evening. Seven foursomes played in the tournament. Mrs. Dorothy Ford winning low net for the women, and L. B. Stewart and Robert Bronson tying for the men. In the feature hole, in which all played with their putters on the ninth, Mrs. W. D. Abel won for the women, while Wallace N. Wintler, L. B. Sigwart, and Dr. Will E. Moxley tied for the men.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn S. McCready, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Abel, and Mr. and Mrs. William G. East were in charge at the dinner. Another supper and get-together is planned for the fourth Friday of September for all men and women of the club.

For Mrs. Getchell

Honoring Mrs. S. Getchell, who is leaving soon with Mr. Getchell to spend the winter in Washington, D. C., with their son, Myron Getchell, members of the Women's League of the First Congregational church are giving an informal afternoon sewing party at the home of Mrs. H. F. Richardson, Thursday. The affair will be at two-thirty o'clock.

Is Your Home

As you want your friends to look at it this Fall and Next Winter?

Is the outside well painted?

Has the trim been brightened up recently?

Does the porch floor look like you care?

Is the front door varnished and shining?

Does the interior say "Welcome"?

While the weather is still good, make the outside of your home attractive with SUN-PROOF, brighten the trim with our permanent trim colors, "FLORIDE" the porch, "WATERSPAR" your front door, then decorate the interior with WALLHIDE; and you will have a home to which you will be proud to invite your friends.

A. A. U. W. Plans State Meeting In Eugene

AMONG local organizations starting early plans for an active year is the Eugene branch of the American Association of University Women.

The big event of the year for the local group will be the two-day state conference to be held here some time in October, the dates yet to be set. Highlights of the conference will include lectures by Mr. Hiraide, noted Japanese lecturer who is to be on the campus this fall, and by Mrs. Gertrude Bass Warner, these addresses to be given in connection with a tour of the Murray Warner Oriental Art museum and in connection with the program to explain friendly relations through art.

A tea is to follow the program at the museum. An international relations dinner and several other features in addition to a business session are planned for the conference, too.

Program details will be announced later by Mrs. Virgil D. Earl, state president.

Mrs. Nelson F. Macduff, president of the Eugene branch, soon will have announcement regarding the first meeting of the local group. This meeting will be in September at which time final plans for the state conference will be made.
