

Early Summer Finds All Communities in Eugene Area Very Active

BALLADEERS AT COTTAGE GROVE PRESENT CONCERT

COTTAGE GROVE, June 20.—(Special)—One of the best concerts of the season was presented Thursday night by the Balladeers and Carollers at a large and appreciative audience at the high school gymnasium. The concert was directed by Mrs. Edna Pearson of Eugene with Mrs. Ruth Stewart Caldwell and Mrs. Helen Egan as accompanists. Frederick K. Davis, violinist of Eugene with Dorothy Davis as accompanist and Mildred LeCompte Moore, dancer of Eugene, were assisting artists on the program. This will be the last concert of the season in Cottage Grove. The Balladeers and Carollers are to sing in Eugene Tuesday evening at the Undertakers' convention. The motion picture film, "The Life of Christ" and the "Passion Play," depicting the story of Jesus, from Nativity to Ascension, will be shown at the Baptist church Saturday evening. An appropriate musical score will be played throughout the entire film on special sound equipment, reproducing orchestral organ and choral music by famous composers, blending in with the scenes, which portray in authentic and historic fashion, the life, crucifixion and Resurrection of Jesus. The public is invited and tickets are not required for admission. A silver offering will be taken to assist in defraying expenses.
