Mrs. William James Gilmore, Jr., (Helen Neal) daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Neal, whose marriage occurred Saturday afternoon at her parents' home here.

Miss Helen Neal Is Bride Of Mr. Gilmore

MISS HELEN NEAL, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Neal, and William James Gilmore, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gilmore of Washington, D. C., were married at a beautifully arranged ceremony held at the home of the bride's parents, Saturday afternoon, June 20, at two-thirty o'clock.

Rev. Cecil F. Ristow read the service in the presence of more than fifty guests.

The ceremony was performed before the fireplace which was banked with greenery, and with baskets of flowers and palms placed on either side. Miss Lucy Norton sang "Oh Perfect Love" and "Because," preceding the ceremony, and Harold Ayres played the wedding music.

The bride wore a white taffeta dress made with a long train and a long lace and net veil. The veil had a juliet cap embroidered with seed pearls. Her flowers were pink rapture roses, white carnations and lilies of the valley.

Miss Roberta Moody was maid of honor for Miss Neal and wore pink organdy and carried a mixed bouquet of blue delphinium and pink roses. Miss Betty Jean Neal was bridesmaid and wore a floor length peach taffeta dress and carried an old-fashioned nosegay. Dorothy Ann Edblom was flower girl, wearing a yellow flowered organdy dress and carrying a basket of pink Dorothy Perkins roses.

Trist Davis of Corvallis was best man for Mr. Gilmore.

For the reception which followed, Mrs. P. J. Bartle presided at the tea table and serving and assisting about the rooms were Miss Lois Greenwood, Miss Helen Row, Miss Lucile Williamson, Miss Ruth Carlson, Miss Edith Ernsberger, Miss Ruth Griswold, Miss Alice Hessler, Miss Helen Platt of Portland, Miss Lilian England and Mrs. Helen Martin.

Out of town guests for the wedding included Mrs. Mabel Rogers of Portland, grandmother of Mr. Gilmore, and his father, W. J. Gilmore of Washington, D. C.

Following the reception, the couple left for an extended motor trip to Washington, D. C. They will reside at 212 Valley Vista apartments, Washington, D. C. For her going away costume, Mrs. Gilmore wore an ensemble of brown and yellow linen with yellow accessories.

Mrs. Gilmore is a graduate of the University of Oregon this spring and is a member of Alpha Xi Delta. Mr. Gilmore attended Oregon State college and is affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Miss Winnard Is To Be Married Wednesday

MISS CHARLOTTE WINNARD will become the bride of Robert H. Lemon, son of Mrs. C. H. Lemon, in a ceremony to be solemnized Wednesday at noon, at the First Methodist Episcopal church, with Rev. Cecil F. Ristow reading the service.
