FRENCH STRIKES AFFECT ROYALTY

PARIS, June 22.—(AP)—A general strike of hotel and restaurant workers closed the doors of fashionable Riviera resorts in Cannes over the week-end and forced a prince to hunt for his lunch.

The Riviera strike coincided with the first move by Paris rightists to eject idle workers occupying their place of employment. The rightists, numbering 20 under the leadership of Deputy Gaston Salaber, smashed into a restaurant, threw seven strikers into the street and occupied the place themselves.

Salaber said it was the start of a "counter-revolution."

The labor occupation strike movement hit the Cote d'Azur just as Cannes heard King Edward VIII of England would arrive late in July for his summer vacation.

It also provided a bad day for Prince Andrew of Greece, uncle of King George, who is living at one of the affected hotels.

The prince had a hard time finding some luncheon, finally obtaining a snack in a small cafe on a back street.

The strike spread elsewhere in the province, halting street car and bus transportation in Bordeaux and closing hotels and restaurants in Nancy as the workers sought the same benefits won for labor in the Paris region.

Springfield M. E. Conclave Monday

SPRINGFIELD, June 22.—(Special)—The quarterly conference of the Methodist church will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the church.

This meeting will complete the church business for the conference year.

Dr. J. D. McCormick, pastor, will leave Tuesday for Corvallis, where he will attend the state conference which is in session this week. He will be accompanied by Mrs. McCormick. Several other members of the congregation are expected to attend various meetings of the session.

DRILL TEAM MEETS

SPRINGFIELD, June 22.—(Special)—A potluck dinner was held by members of the N. O. W. drill team at the home of Mrs. Sam Richmond Friday evening. Following a handkerchief shower, plans were made for a party July 20, with Mrs. Nellie Helbrecht as chairman of the social committee for the event.

SOVIET JOINS NAVAL "BIG GUNS"

As Soviet leaders announced their refusal to reduce either the Baltic or Pacific fleets, demanding parity with Germany and Japan, respectively, this dramatic new picture of Russian naval strength reached America. Three guns on one battleship anchored in a Baltic port seem to be levelled at other ships.

ALF LONDON AS A BOY!

The boy who became one of Destiny's favorite children—Alfred M. Landon, recalled by playmates as "quiet, easy to know and likeable."

LONDON'S LIFE STORY

framed by the Woodring administration and partly made effective. Landon took up the economy torch, effectively organized and added to the Woodring laws, administered them in such a way as to get results.

Three laws enabled Kansas to put its financial house in order.

They were:

1. TAX LIMITATION—a law which strictly limited the amount of taxes which could be levied by the 11,000 taxing authorities of the state. This was proposed by Woodring as a constitutional amendment, and opposed by Landon as such. Later it became law.

2. CASH BASIS—a law prohibiting local communities from spending more than their assured income, thus putting an end to the issue of tax anticipation warrants. Landon's administration passed it.

3. BUDGET—a law compelling local taxing authorities to make and publish budgets and hold hearings on them. Signatures of 20 per cent of the voters was a mandate for revision. Woodring's administration passed this one.

Landon himself has never claimed exclusive credit for Kansas' balanced budget. He does claim he tightened up the economy laws and administered them faithfully to get the desired results. It is friends and campaigners for the governor who have made more extravagant claims of budgetary miracle-working.

The main fact is undisputed. From 1932-1935 the total cost of govern-

WALTER GARRETT SPEAKS TO CLUB

Highlights of his trip to Havana were given by Walter S. Garrett for the program at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Eugene Kiwanis club, Monday noon. Mr. Garrett was selected from this city for the Philco radio tour. From Portland he went in a special car to New York by train, then on to Havana by ship with the special party of 20 English ship to Havana.

The ship of Havana, the Honolulu, was the only one of the line to be permitted to enter the harbor, and the great event of the city of Havana was the arrival of the ship. The ship was met by the mayor, the governor, and the people of Havana. Mr. Garrett was the only American on the ship.

VICTOR HUGO'S IN LOS ANGELES. The world of fashion calls Victor Hugo's charming Garden Room, "Paris in Los Angeles"! And, as the diners pause to enjoy their Camels, Hugo says: "Our guests know fine tobacco. They have made Camels the outstanding favorite here."

ON THE RYDER CUP TEAM. Henry Picard (right) is rated the best golfer at full iron shots. "I know that Camels set you right!" he says. "Smoking Camels aids my digestion. And Camels never get on my nerves."

"YOU KNOW WHAT nervousness and eating fast can do to digestion," says Claire Huntington, public stenographer. "I find that smoking Camels makes food taste better and helps digestion."

Camels stimulate digestion in a pleasant, natural way... increase alkalinity

The human digestion responds unfavorably to nervousness and strain. It is definitely encouraged by smoking Camels.

Scientific studies show clearly the manner in which Camels aid digestion. Using sensitive apparatus, it is possible to measure accurately the increase in digestive fluids—alkaline digestive fluids—thus follows the enjoyment of Camel's costlier tobacco.

For a cheery "lift" and for digestion's sake, enjoy Camels. They never get on your nerves. They are gentle on your throat. You'll like the firmness of Camels too—no loose shreds annoy you.

COSTLIER TOBACCOS!

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand.

GOLD-CUP WINNER! George Reil won the trophy three times! "I'm a Camel smoker," says this outstanding speed-boat driver. "I eat heartily, smoke Camels, and enjoy that feeling of well-being that goes with good digestion. Camels set me right!"

MRS. WM. I. HOLLINGSWORTH, JR., popular Californian, well-known in New York and London society, says: "Camels are so mild. They please my taste and aid digestion."
