Baughman, and great, great granddaughter of the late Elisha Bristow, was married to Donald Kabler, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Kabler of Crow, at a pretty church wedding at the Christian church at Trent, Tuesday evening, June 16 at 7:30 o'clock, (one year from the day her two sisters were married at a double wedding). The service was performed under pink and white crepe paper decorations leading back from a large pink bell, and leading down the back into a hedge of wild orange blossoms, with bouquets of old fashioned pink roses. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Willie White, a brother-in-law of the bride. Miss Lucetta Baughman, daughter of Sam Baughman, was bridesmaid, and Douglas Kabler, brother of the bridegroom acted as best man. The bride was given away by her father, R. S. Baughman. Betty Joy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Kimball, was flower girl.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Clayton Kimball and Mrs. Claude Kime sang "Love You Truly." Mrs. Clayton Kimball played the Mendelssohn march. The bride wore a floor length dress of white lace organza with three quarter length all white veil, and wore a cluster of orange blossoms that had been worn by her grandmother, Mrs. W. L. Wheeler, on her wedding day (in 1886), and carried a bouquet of pink and yellow rosebuds, white pees and fern. The bridesmaid wore a floor length dress of peach color organza and carried a bouquet of pink sweetpeas. The flower girl wore a green organza dress, and carried a green trimmed basket with pink rosebuds. The ushers were Lloyd Wheeler and Max Baughman.

A reception was held at the Baughman home following the wedding. A large bride's cake was baked by Mrs. Clayton Kimball.

Mr. and Mrs. Kabler left for a camping trip and will later go to Woodland, Wash., where Mr. Kabler has a school for the coming year.
