DEERHORN FOLK
HAVE BUSY WEEK

DEERHORN, July 2.—(Special)— Douglas and Laverne Beck, aged eight and seven years, arrived at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs.
 John Sloan Sunday forenoon from Bowbells, North Dakota, their former home. The little boys made the entire journey by themselves on the train.
 Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roman Beck, expect to arrive the latter part of this week to make their home in Oregon if they can find a suitable location. They report a "total crop failure from drought and pests at their home in North Dakota."

Mrs. Roland Woodruff and children Roland Jr. and Marilyn of Portland are visiting at the home of Mrs.
 Woodruff's parents, Mr. and Mrs.
 Fred Smith. Mr. Woodruff, who accompanied his family and remained for a short time has returned to the city.

Visitors Reported
 Miss Violet Potter of Salem visited here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Potter returning to her work Sunday. She was accompanied by Miss Jean Hawkins of Salem who also visited Mary Trotter at Wal-terville.

Mrs. E. E. Potter has received word from her sister, Miss Grace Farnham, missionary at Tokyo, Japan, that she is sailing for Victoria, B. C., July 3 and will arrive July 14 for a summer's furlough. Miss Farnham is well known here. Her last visit was in 1930.

Mr. and Mrs. George Conklin, recent arrivals from Wichita, Kansas, have moved to Yoncalla where they will camp for the summer where Mr.
 Conklin is employed.

Mrs. H. A. Morris and Mrs. Fred Holland find a ready sale for loganberries and wild blackberries when they make regular trips up the river three times a week with the fruit which is of fine quality this year and plentiful.

Organize Sunday School
 A group of local Seventh Day Adventist church members drove to Lower Camp Creek church Saturday afternoon to help organize a Sabbath school there. Mrs. Salter was elected superintendent. Mrs. Ronald Chase assistant and Miss Francis Bradley, secretary. Elder Burden, foreign missionary, was present to help organize.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Allison, recent arrivals from Green county, Iowa, but now of Springfield, were Sunday visitors at the Glenn home.

Miss Florence Odell of Roswell,
 New Mexico, Mrs. Jessie Stephens, Mrs. Helterbrand and daughters, Pearl and Jewel, of Springfield, were guests of Miss Odell's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Odell and family.

From Bend
 Mrs. Norman Ellingson and children, Lucilla and Louis, of Bend, who have been visiting the past week at the Putnam home here returned to their home Sunday. They were accompanied by Mrs. S. H. Putnam, mother of Mrs. Ellingson and Darrel Odell who will remain until after the Fourth, and Monroe Parrish of West-fir, who was going to Bend for a load of household goods. Mr. Parrish stopped here for a short visit while enroute to Westfir.

Stephen Erickson of Portland was a guest Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wearin. He left Tuesday for San Francisco.

J. H. Dever writes to relatives here that the drought, grasshoppers and beetles have caused a crop failure at Sheridan, Wyoming, where he is spending the summer.

Lyle and Robert Shrode found an old turtle with the initials C. M. carved on its back while playing by the creek near their home recently.

wood, is the comedy headlined for the Mayflower for Friday and Saturday.
 It is accompanied by "Woman Trap," a combination newspaper and gangster flicker.

The forecast of a naval war in the orient, presumably between Japan and England, is seen on the screen as the State through Saturday, with Marie Oberon and Charles Boyer in eastern makeup. The film has power and restraint. "Red River Valley," on the program with the Asiatic opus, stars Gene Autry, the singing cowboy. Presumably he will sing the title song.

"Bunker Bean," fresh from Hollywood, is the comedy headlined for the Mayflower for Friday and Saturday.
 a combination newspaper and gangster flicker.
