Variation on Waffles. You can add nuts, chocolate or chopped fruit to your regular waffle recipe for a change that your family will like. A sugar and cinnamon mixture for the waffles goes particularly well with chocolate waffles.

Jelly for Frosting. Jelly makes a wonderful frosting for cake that is to be eaten at once. Use any tart jelly, set it in a bowl over boiling water, add one egg white unbeaten and a little salt. Beat until there are no lumps. Remove bowl from boiling water and continue to beat until mixture is stiff. Spread on cake.

Miss Hill Wed At Ceremony In California

EUGENE friends are interested in an account of the wedding of Miss Josephine Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew L. Hill of this city, to Walter Wayne Adams of San Francisco. The ceremony took place at eight-thirty o'clock in the evening, June 23, in the Chapel of the Chimes in Oakland, Cal.

The service was read in the presence of sixty friends and relatives by Rev. Paul Reager of the First Christian church of Oakland. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore an empire style gown of white lace, a pearl brooch at the point of the deep V neck. The dress was designed with a little stand-up collar and long sleeves that ended in points which fell over the hands. It had a long court train and the veil of lace-bordered tulle was five yards in length. The veil was drawn in to form a tulle turban fashioned with lace insets. The bridal bouquet was a shower of white gardenias, jasmies, lilies of the valley, sweetpeas and bouvardia.

The matron of honor, Mrs. C. E. Iyer of Portland, was in sky-blue mousseline-de-soie. A ruffle about the headline of the full skirt formed a slight train and ruffles on the short sleeves gave a puffed out effect. The bodice was fitted and the neck cut in a square. Matching satin slippers completed the outfit. Mrs. Iyer and all the other attendants carried French bouquets of mixed flowers. The matron and maid of honor both wore little bunches of pastel colored flowers in their hair.

Miss Mariam Hotte of Sebastopol, California, served as maid of honor. She wore peach net made with a V neck and stand-up collar on which were rows of little ruffles. There were ruffles around the bottom of the skirt and on the bow fastened low on the front of the skirt. A sash of peach taffeta was tied about the waist with a bow at the front. Miss Hotte wore satin slippers of peach.

Miss Suzanne Stickle of Eugene and Miss Mildred Turnbow of Oakland, California, both cousins of the bride, were bridesmaids. Miss Stickle was attired in embroidered yellow organdie with matching bell-bow jacket of taffeta. She wore a little yellow bow in her hair. Miss Turnbow was in a pink gown of the same style.

Eugeneans Present. Mrs. Hill, mother of the bride, wore a dinner dress of duchesse lace and a corsage of gardenias and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Frederic G. Stickle, aunt of the bride, of Eugene wore a flower print chiffon; her corsage was of gardenias and bouvardia.

Mrs. Grover Dean Turnbow, at whose home the wedding reception was held, wore a dinner gown of champagne lace and a corsage of gardenias and bouvardia. She is a cousin of the bride.

Mr. Turnbow acted as best man. Orrie M. Annyl of Berkeley ushered. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Turnbow home at Rockridge boulevard, Oakland; the couple receiving before the fireplace which was ornamented with a large bouquet of white gladioli at once, snapdragons, and lace daisies. On either side was a tall candelabrum in which burned seven candles.

The dining room was lighted by candles in pastel colors and decorated with bouquets of early summer flowers in pastel colors. The bride's table of black walnut was covered with heirloom quaker lace. Mrs. Stickle poured and the two bridesmaids and the Misses Virginia and Patricia Kellies of Oakland assisted in serving.

Immediately afterwards the couple left for a honeymoon at Del Monte and Carmel. They will establish their home in San Francisco.

The bride is a graduate of Oregon State college where she is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Mr. Adams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Adams of Tacoma, Washington. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon, and is in business in San Francisco.

Jelly for Frosting. Jelly makes a wonderful frosting for cake that is to be eaten at once. Use any tart jelly, set it in a bowl over boiling water, add one egg white unbeaten and a little salt. Beat until there are no lumps. Remove bowl from boiling water and continue to beat until mixture is stiff. Spread on cake.
