CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, July 21.—(AP)—Corn became the grain market leader today, and soared in some cases to four cents a bushel overnight gain, the extreme permissable limit.

A flurry on the part of previous speculative sellers of July corn was an outstanding feature, because of comparatively small supplies on hand and as a result of a renewal of unfavorable weather prospects. WEDNESDAY'S BILLS

McDONALD — "Three Cheers for Love" and "Public Enemy's Wife." (Tuesday evening, "White Angel" and "Spendthrift").

HEILIG — "M'Liss" and "Blackmailer," (Tuesday evening, same program).

STATE — "Two Sinners," (Tuesday evening, "Ring Around the Moon" and "Reckless Roads").

MAYFLOWER — "Klondike Annie." (Tuesday evening, same program).

Wednesday the McDonald begins its mid-week run with a lighthearted musical comedy starring the "fastest girl on feet," Eleanore Whitney, and Robert Cummings. Titled "Three Cheers for Love," it is spotted with "swing" music, catchy dance ensembles, and the comedy of William Frawley, Grace Bradley, and Roscoe Karns. In "Public Enemy's Wife," the second half of the McDonald's bill, Margaret Lindsay and Pat O'Brien pose the question, "How should a girl feel about the gentleman who has rubbed out her husband, no matter how legally?"

• • •

The State has "Two Sinners," a tale by Warwick Deeping. Otto Kruger has the lead, supported by Martha Sleeper, who was Noel Coward's leading lady in "The Scoundrel." Minna Gombell is cast in one of the poisonous feline roles that have become almost synonymous with her name and succeeds in being uncommonly hateful.

• • •

"M'Liss," the Heilig's offering, is a shy romance set against the rough-and-ready background of the forty-niner's mining camps. John Beal plays the young school teacher and Ann Shirley is the wild backwoods girl. As contrast, the bill is completed by a sophisticated murder mystery, "Blackmailer," with eight suspects, a very unpleasant corpse, and a long-bladed knife. The finger of suspicion points at William Gargan, Florence Rice and H. B. Warner among others.

• • •

Mae West may not be able to rival Lily Pons in the matter of range, but when she trolls a ballad she puts an inflection into it that's all her own. In the Mayflower's current screening of "Klondike Annie" she produces little thing entitled "I'm An Occidental Woman With An Oriental Love for You." Mr. McLaglen melts!

An automobile engine operated on methane gas derived from a sewage disposal process, which in turn is activated by the engine, is the power plant used by Greencastle, Ind., in disposing of its sewage.

At Philomath

PHILOMATH, July 21.—(Special)—The eleventh annual Past Noble Grand club picnic was held Wednesday in the Philomath city park. Ladies were present from Corvallis, Albany, Alsea, Halsey, Brownsville, Alpine, Crawfordsville, Sweet Home, Lebanon, Jefferson and Philomath. About 75 Rebekahs attended the picnic.

The building in which the Philomath postoffice is located has been undergoing improvement and repairs this week. The building is owned by the First National bank.

Aid Groups Meet

The Ladies' Aid society of the College church entertained the societies from Wren and Plymouth Tuesday. A basket dinner was served at noon.

About 70 are in attendance at the annual leadership school of the United Brethren church. Rev. J. R. Overmiller, D. D. president of York college, Nebraska, speaks at the chapel service every morning. Bishop Ida D. Warner of Portland holds vesper service each evening. A campfire and general social time follows.

Rev. Francis Fisher, generally known as "Daddy" Fisher, from Puente, Calif., is visiting old time friends in Philomath.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Probert of Chicago are visiting Mrs. Probert's sister, Mrs. A. R. Hoyt and family.

Buys Property.

Robert Morgan has purchased the Livingston property on A street and are rebuilding it.

Mrs. Ella Scott is enjoying a visit from Lillie Guthrie, an old time friend from Knoxville, Tenn. whom she had not seen for 30 years.

Mrs. Clarence Taylor and children of Portland are visiting her grandmother, Mrs. J. B. Pettitt.

TWICE a month across the Atlantic, and again across the South Atlantic, Germany's newest airship, the Hindenburg, flies passengers and mail between Europe and America. In less than three days, as many as 50 passengers can enjoy the luxury of a smooth flight in comfort equaling that of any fine steamer or hotel. From a windowed promenade, 160 feet long, they can look down upon land and sea, while four powerful Diesel motors propel the big brother to the Graf Zeppelin through the air at 80 miles an hour.

Inaugural flight of this immense airship, recently, was the occasion for the issue by Germany of a set of special stamps, to be used for mail carried by the Hindenburg. The same occasion also gave the little principality of Liechtenstein, below Lake Constance, where the ship was built, reason to issue a commemorative set of its own. One of the two values of this set is shown below.
