

RYKER WED CEREMONY AT HOME ON SUNDAY

BRIDGE, Aug. 18.—(Special) —The wedding of Katherine Ryker and Hugh Eskridge took place at a home wedding, Sunday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Pope of the Methodist Episcopal church, officiating. The couple entered to the strains of the wedding march, from the bride's home, where the ceremony was held. The bride, Katherine Ryker, was attended by her maid of honor, Miss Margaret Haggerty of Portland, and her bridesmaids, Misses Margaret Haggerty of Portland, and Misses Margaret Haggerty of Portland. The groom, Hugh Eskridge, was attended by his best man, Mr. Carl Haggerty of Portland, and his groomsmen, Mr. Carl Haggerty of Portland, and Mr. Carl Haggerty of Portland. The ceremony was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the couple were joined in holy matrimony. The wedding was a private affair, with only close friends and family members in attendance. The bride wore a floor-length gown of white tulle, and the groom wore a tuxedo. The ceremony was a simple and beautiful affair, and the couple was pronounced man and wife by Rev. Joseph Pope.
