

ANNUAL HOMEMAKERS CAMP AT LAKE CLEAWOX ATTRACTS FIFTY LANE COUNTY WOMEN

Year's Camp Termed Most Successful

Forty-five women from all parts of Lane county, during its annual session, the most successful annual Home Makers vacation yet to be held, was concluded at Lake Cleawox in western Oregon. The camp was held from August 11 to 16 by the Lane County Home Makers association, which has a demonstration agent, and women were registered, an average of forty-five each.

Activities enjoyed were copper ore, lectures in modern art, indoor reading, and Osoild craft, fishing, boating, music and hiking were enjoyed. The program for the camp was an organized one. Women were permitted at the camp Sunday when eighty husbands and children of women present had Sunday dinner.

Outdoor church services were conducted by the Home Makers. Miss Rachel Storer of New City played piano accompaniment. Mrs. Lloyd Coleman of Clatsop led the singing.

Women from the farthest distance attending the camp was one from Clatsop, and the ages of women present varied from six to seventy-two years.

The committee arranging this camp were Mrs. Truman A. Storer, of the Willamette district, Mrs. E. Wheaton, Springfield; Mrs. J. S. Crow, St. George; Mrs. H. C. Crow, Junction City; Mrs. R. C. Eugene, and Mrs. Ruby Mat-tress.
