Zelma Mathers Is Married Here August 23

MISS ZELMA MATHERS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Mathers and John Devine, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Devine, Sr., were married at a ceremony held in the garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Holland, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, Saturday evening, August 22, at seven-thirty o'clock.

The service, read by Rev. Milton S. Weber in the presence of fifty relatives and close friends of the couple, was performed before an altar of shrubs, baskets and candles.

Preceding the ceremony, Milo Jeffries sang, "I Love You Truly," Mrs. John McCollum, sister of the bride, accompanied on the piano and also played Lohengrin's Wedding March.

The bride wore a floor-length dress of white tulle with a wreath of orange-blossoms in her hair. She carried an arm bouquet of Tallman roses and sweet peas.

Miss Jessie Mathers was maid of honor for her sister and wore a floor-length dress of pink georgette. Her flowers were a corsage of blue delphinium and sweet peas. Delores Graham, wearing a dress of pink crepe, acted as flower girl.

Edward Devine was best man for his brother.

For the reception which followed in the house, Mrs. Sterling Boehne presided at the refreshment table and those serving and assisting about the rooms were Miss Mildred Devine, Miss Lillie Bell Webster, Mrs. Regis Graham and Mrs. Bob Dery.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. James Parker and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Parker and William Devine of Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Henry of Myrtle Point.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Powers, Oregon. For her going away costume, Mrs. Devine wore a gray suit with darker gray accessories.
