Plans for Weddings of Popular Eugene Girls Announced

PLANS for the wedding ceremony of three prominent Eugene girls who are to be married this coming week have been announced.

Miss Susan Hurley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George I. Hurley, will become the bride of William A. Barker, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Barker of Santa Clara, at a ceremony to be solemnized at the First Congregational church at four o'clock the afternoon of September 17. Rev. Cecil M. Ristow will read the wedding service.

Miss Margaret Hurley will be her sister's only attendant and Robert P. Booth is to be best man for Mr. Barker. Ushering will be Donald Hurley, brother of the bride-elect, and Robert I. Downey of Portland.

Mrs. Winona Calkins will play the wedding music on the organ. A reception at the Hurley home will follow the church ceremony. Mrs. A. T. Cockerline will pour and Mrs. H. G. Talbot will cut the loaves. Serving will be Mrs. Rex Hamaker, Mrs. Robert V. Betts, and Mrs. Willard Eberhart (Ernestine Gilstrap) of Ashland. Mrs. Robert P. Booth and Mrs. Lloyd Griggs will assist about the rooms.

The couple will leave following the reception for Medford to reside. Both Miss Hurley and Mr. Barker are graduates of the University of Oregon, Miss Hurley being a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority and of the Eugene Spinners club, and Mr. Barker affiliated with Sigma Nu fraternity.

A number of parties have been arranged to compliment Miss Hurley prior to her marriage. Last week Miss Helen Vebien entertained with a luncheon and shower. Miss Betty Anne Macduff and Miss Dagmar Hansen entertained with a dessert party and shower at Miss Hansen's home Wednesday evening and on Thursday afternoon, a tea and a kitchen shower was given by Mrs. Robert V. Betts and Mrs. Rex Hamaker at the home of Mrs. Robert M. Betts during the hours of three-thirty to five-thirty o'clock.

Mrs. George I. Hurley poured for the tea and present were Miss Susan Hurley, Mrs. O. L. Skele, Mrs. William Barker, Mrs. George I. Hurley, Mrs. H. S. Durgan, Mrs. Robert M. Betts, Mrs. Lloyd Griggs, Miss Dagmar Hansen, Miss Betty Anne Macduff, Miss Gyle Buchanan, Mrs. Gordon Goodpasture, Mrs. Edward Walker, Mrs. Robert Booth, Miss Margaret

Barnett-Bennett

Another wedding of importance is that of Miss Mary Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bennett, of Lebanon, and Arthur Barnett, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Barnett, which will occur Thursday evening, September 17, at eight-thirty o'clock at the First Congregational church.

The Right Reverend William P. Remington of Pendleton, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of eastern Oregon, will read the marriage service.

Mrs. Russell Humphreys, sister of the bride, will sing "Still As the Night" preceding the service, and Robert Gould will play the wedding music.

The bride's only attendant will be Mrs. Chester Anderson, matron of honor. Hugh Jackson of Dayton, Washington, is to be best man for Mr. Barnett and Woodson Bennett, brother of the bride, and Duncan McKay of Bend, will be the ushers.

Miss Bennett is to be attired in Mrs. A. F. Barnett's wedding gown. A reception will follow in the church parlors, and Mrs. John Jay Rogers and Mrs. Charles D. Byrne will pour. Serving will be Miss Lois Lutz, Miss Theresa Kelly, and Mrs. Russell Humphreys.

McMullen-Curtis

Miss Claire Curtis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Curtis, is to be married to John McMullen, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. McMullen, at an informal ceremony to be performed Tuesday morning, September 15, at ten-thirty o'clock in the rectory of St. Mary's Catholic church, in the presence of relatives and a few close friends.

Miss Jean Curtis is to be her sister's only attendant and Dale Cooley is to be best man for Mr. McMullen. A wedding breakfast will be held at the Curtis home for members of the immediate families of the couple. Mrs. Vern D. Seibert will assist Mrs. Curtis at the breakfast.

Out of town guests coming for the wedding are the bride's aunts, Mrs. Ernest Gilstrap of Medford and Mrs. I. B. Lowe of Portland.

The couple will leave for a wedding trip to Seattle and Vancouver, B. C., and upon returning will reside at 547 Sixth avenue west.

On Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Frey entertained with a party for Miss Curtis and Mr. McMullen, inviting members of the choir of St.

Mary's Catholic church and their husbands and wives.
