

Glassman-Edinger Marriage Held September 5

THE wedding of Miss Mary Louise Edinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Edinger, of Centralia, Wn., and Milo Gustaf Glassman of Eugene, son of Mrs. Albert Glassman of LaPorte, Indiana, was solemnized at four o'clock the afternoon of September 5, at St. John's Episcopal church in Centralia.

Attending the rites were immediate relatives and close friends of the two families, together with members of St. Margaret's Guild of St. John's, of which the bride was president the past year.

Rev. Edgar M. Rogers, rector of Trinity church of Everett, Wn., who performed the marriage ceremony of the bride's parents, was assisted by Rev. Frederick Lake of the Centralia church, in the marriage service.

High standards at the chancel held branching sprays of salmon gladioli, and on the altar were lavender single asters. Other bouquets in the church were of greenery and aster.

"At Dawning" and "Because" were sung by Mrs. Reta T. Dunn, accompanied at the organ by Miss Elinor Holmes, who played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's recessional.

The bride wore a yellow taffeta gown made with long skirt and high bodice. She wore matching sandals and a wide-brimmed hat of the same color, and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Her sister, Miss Gail Edinger, was maid of honor and wore self-trimmed jade net, matching hat and silver sandals. She carried a colonial bouquet of single asters.

Mrs. Edinger, mother of the bride, wore a black crepe dress and black hat, with a corsage of yellow roses. Winfield Atkinson of North Bend was best man for Mr. Glassman, and John B. Edinger and John M. Benedict, Jr., of Centralia were ushers.

A reception at the Edinger home was held following the church ceremony. Receiving with the wedding party were Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Glass of Eugene, cousins of the bridegroom.

For her going away outfit the bride wore a brown tweed suit with beaver collar, and brown accessories. After a short wedding trip, the couple came to Eugene to reside and are now at home at 162 Fifteenth avenue east.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Glassman are graduates of the University of Oregon. Mrs. Glassman is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority and of Theta Sigma Phi, women's national journalism honorary. Mr. Glassman is a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity.

The wedding party was held at the home of Mrs. Wesley Haines, 1155 Polk street.
