Cottage Grove News Notes

COTTAGE GROVE, Dec. 21—(Special)—The combined glee clubs of the high school, consisting of 140 voices and the 30-piece high school orchestra, thrilled a large audience Friday evening with a concert under direction of James Lewis, supervisor of music at the high school gymnasium. This was the first concert of the kind given here, and was pronounced a success both from a musical standpoint and from the large attendance. Each number showed long and careful practice and training. The boys' and girls' glee clubs and the mixed choruses were all worthy of praise and of a high standard. Following is the program given:

I Orchestra, "Stony Point March," L. P. Laurendean. Overture "Mignonette," J. Bauman.

II Boys' glee club, "Night," Franz Liszt. "Home on the Range," Guigon-Kloger. Baritone solo, Allan Ferrin.

III, Violin trio, Vera Gilham, Phyllis Monson, Frances Ellsworth, "Jesus, Tender Shepherd Hear Me." Soprano solo, Ruby Allen.

IV, Girls' glee club, "Seraphic Song," Rubinstein. Contralto solo, Dora May Scott. Violin obbligato, Marie Gilham. "The Sleigh," by Kounts-Baldwin.

V, Girls' octet, Dora May Scott, Margaret Leum, Mildred Cellars, Millicent Lewis, Louise Lukens, Margaret Stoneburg, Kathleen Moore, Gayle Tennis, "Oh Holy Night," Adams- Seymour.

VI, Mixed chorus, "Listen to the Lambs," R. N. Dett. Soprano solo, Margaret Leum.

VII, Mixed chorus and orchestra, "Away in a Manger," "The First Noel."

VIII, Mixed chorus and orchestra, "Good King Wenceslas," "Silent Night," "Oh Come All Ye Faithful."
