

City News Notes:-:

WHAT'S DOING
Thursday
12 noon—Active club luncheon at the Eugene hotel.

Courtesy Cleaners Open
Eugene's newest cleaning and pressing establishment, the Courtesy Cleaners, located at 107 Seventh avenue west, is now open for business. The shop is being installed and operated by Ivan Beeson, who has been interested in this line of business for several years. Mr. Beeson has recently returned from Portland where he was connected with Homeyer's Cleaning establishment.

County Engineer Returns
P. M. Morse, county engineer, has returned from a vacation trip to San Francisco where he visited his daughter, Miss Katherine Morse. He was accompanied by Mrs. P. M. Carter, who visited her children. Mr. Morse said the weather was stormy in San Francisco and that they found snow all the way from a point near Redding, Cal., to a point several miles south of Ashland, Ore.

Dance at Wintergarden
The New Year will be ushered in with a carnival dance at Wintergarden ballroom Thursday, Dec. 31. Plenty of horns, serpentine and noisemakers will be on hand to accommodate the large crowd expected. The regular Saturday night orchestra will furnish the music and dancing will continue until 12:30 or 1.

Watch Party at Church
All members and friends of the First Christian church are invited to the New Year's eve watch party given by the young people's groups of the church. The party will be held in the basement of the church Thursday evening, December 31, from 8 p. m. to 12 p. m. A variety of games has been planned by the committee in charge. There is no age limit as it is for all members and friends of the church.

Watch Party at Wendling
The Epworth Leaguers of the Wendling Methodist church will hold a New Year's eve watch night party in the church annex Thursday starting at 8:30 p. m. All young folks of high school age are invited.

Leave from Visit
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swenson of Hopkins, Minnesota, left Wednesday for their home after spending the Christmas holidays with Mr. Swenson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Swenson of Elmira. They also visited Mrs. Orse Buck of Veneta and Mr. Swenson's brother and family, Roy Swenson of Swisshome.

Fletcher at Junction

Charles Devereaux Speaks at Junction
This week offers an active program for the First Baptist church of Junction City. The mid-week prayer service will be held as customary, Wednesday evening, from 7:30 to 8:30 o'clock. Charles Devereaux of Eugene will discuss "Forgetfulness—Vice or Virtue?" as set forth by Paul's letter to the Philippians. Young people are especially invited to attend and to get acquainted with the young people who come each week from Eugene.

Mr. Devereaux announces that Friday afternoon, New Year's day, starting at 1 o'clock, the church and all its friends will hold a potluck dinner in the Sunday school classrooms. The afternoon will offer a program of interesting quartet music, community singing and humorous skits. The young and old people will mix in a series of games of all kinds.

News of Harrisburg
HARRISBURG, Dec. 30.—(Special)—Albert Windell, now teaching at Forks, Wash., spent the Christmas holidays here at the home of his father, Albert Windell, Sr.
Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Brady of Eugene spent Christmas day at the home of Mrs. Brady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Yerian.

Claid Davis and sons, Clifford, Jim and Bruce, and James Bond of Albany were guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore.
Dr. and Mrs. S. M. Bain and daughters Barbara and Betty of Portland and J. H. Holt of Salem visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Murphy.
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Murphy of Reedsport were Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Scott.
Return from Trip
Mr. and Mrs. Lester Coate and baby son returned Sunday from a trip to Trout Lake, Wash., Camas, Portland, and Oregon City where they had spent several days visiting.
Mr. and Mrs. George Pugh of Brownsville were guests at the Dr. D. G. Clark home Christmas.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Chastain and Lois went to Eugene Christmas and visited with Rev. and Mrs. Erven Harris. The latter is a daughter of the Chastains.
The Harris school, situated east of Harrisburg, will give a basket social at the school house Saturday night. It is a community project and the public is invited.

Error Corrected
An error was made a few days ago in reporting the theft of blank checks from C. A. Martie. The item said that an employee of the turkey co-operative was suspected of taking them. Officers of the co-operative say that their employees are all above suspicion and the thief must have belonged to an independent organization. At any rate he is said to have taken about $80 from Eugene merchants and is still at large.

Miss Nina Clarke, Rowland school teacher, went to Ashland to spend the holidays with her mother.

Mrs. W. W. Cook returned to Ashland Friday with her son Claude for a short visit.

Dale Nixon and family of Eugene spent Christmas day with Mr. Nixon's mother, Mrs. J. C. Martie.

Jesse Willoughby of Brownsville visited Christmas day here with his brother, Jim Willoughby.
