

January 1, 1937.

City News Notes:

UNUSUAL NEW TRAIN
ANNOUNCED BY S. P.

Embodiment of a number of unique features in travel service, a new train, the "California," consisting entirely of chair cars and tourist sleeping cars, will be established by Southern Pacific on its Golden State Route between Los Angeles and Chicago, effective January 3, according to announcement by J. A. Ormandy, general passenger agent, Portland.

The train will consist of modern air-conditioned chair cars, dining car and tourist sleeping cars, with a separate reclining chair car exclusively for women and children. There will be free pillow and porter service in the chair cars. A new "Economy" meal service will be introduced in the dining car, and off-tray service of sandwiches, coffee and similar items will also be offered.

The new train will leave Los Angeles at 8:10 p. m. daily and arrive at Chicago at 8:45 a. m., the third morning. With inauguration of the new train the Golden State Limited, on this route, will be made an all-Pullman train and the schedule cut 35 minutes.

January 3 will also see inauguration of a new coffee shop service in the dining cars of the Apache between Los Angeles and Chicago. The schedule will be shortened 35 minutes. Also effective the same date, the Sunset Limited, between San Francisco and New Orleans, will be reduced 50 minutes each bound and one hour and 25 minutes west bound.

AFTERMATH to terror in the sky which brought death to twelve persons when a United Airliner crashed near Los Angeles is this tragic scene. Rescue workers are packing the bodies of eight men and four women on horses down the steep slopes of the mountain peak into which the plane crashed in ceiling zero weather.

"BREAK" EXPECTED
IN KIDNAPING CASE

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

naping at any hour now"—was interpreted generally as meaning that definite contact had been effected with the kidnaper.

Whether the ransom already had been paid was not known but indications all pointed to the certainty that the kidnaper had been told that the $25,000 he demanded was ready. On the basis of the newspaper advertisement, which followed the directions left in the kidnaper's note except for the signature, the arrangements were complete for payment or for release of the boy.

Persons who have been in constant touch with the Mattson home believe the ransom has been paid and that it is only a matter of hours until Charles is returned to his parents.

Gone Five Days
Today the boy had been missing for five days. The family has endured an agonizing silence. The father, a well-to-do but not wealthy physician, was at first most concerned about the lad's safety but yesterday and today he seemed to feel even cheerful compared to his earlier attitude.

Last night Dr. Mattson, Mrs. Mattson and their two other children held a strange watch party. Before a fireplace, quiet, comfortable, they awaited news of the missing member of the little family circle.

Five telephone lines to the home in an exclusive residential section were open. Outside there were federal agents, local police authorities and friends who hoped they could be of assistance. Dr. Mattson's friends helped raise the ransom demanded by the kidnaper.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

for the past few days. They left on Friday for home, over the coast route.

Leave for California
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dare and Miss Eleanor Dare who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Dare's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Walter B. Jones, left for their home in Arcata, Cal., on Thursday.

Car Stolen
A car belonging to John Campbell was taken from in front of the Elks' club some time Thursday evening, he reported to city police. The license number of the machine is 75-292 Oregon.

Dr. Soderholm Leaves
Dr. L. G. Soderholm, veterinarian who has been here for the past 18 months, inspecting dairy herds for the federal government, will go to Tillamook where he will engage in private practice.

Monthly Dinner
Members of the Community Liberal church will hold their monthly church dinner following the morning service Sunday, Jan. 3.

Arrested For Drunkenness
W. H. Ellison was arrested Thursday night and held in the county jail. City police charged him with drunkenness.

Mr. and Mrs. Bjorset Here
Mr. and Mrs. Georg Bjorset of Cottage Grove were Eugene visitors Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomson Here
Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Thomson of Thomson's lodge were in Eugene Thursday.

Bert Vincent Here
Bert Vincent was in Eugene from Redside on the McKenzie Thursday.

C. D. Hale Here
C. D. Hale of the Noti section was in Eugene on business Thursday.

Records
MARRIAGE LICENSES
Richard A. Fuhs of Springfield and Mary M. Barnes of Eugene.

BORN
HILDEBRAND—At the family home, Dec. 27, 1936, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hildebrand, near Junction City, a daughter.

WILFORD—At the Sacred Heart hospital, Jan. 1, 1937, to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wilford, 245 Pearl street, a daughter.

KELLY—At the Eugene hospital, Dec. 31, 1936, to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kelly of Wendling, a son.

BOUNTY
Bounty collected by A. E. Harper, Eugene R. F. D. 2, on five coyotes and five bobcats.

Obituaries
Dr. H. E. Stevens
YONOCALLA, Jan. 1—(Special)—Dr. H. E. Stevens died Wednesday morning at the veterans hospital in Roseburg. He came to Scotts Valley to make his home about a year ago from California. Funeral services were held at Roseburg Thursday at the veterans cemetery. He had been in poor health for a long time.

opposed any change in the pension age limit until 1939 or until a source of revenue is found to meet the additional cost. Heretofore, grangers strenuously opposed a sales tax for any purposes.

Tractor Goes to Aid Indian and Youngster
GANADO, Ariz., Jan. 1—(AP)—A government tractor left here today to battle its way through deep snowdrifts to the aid of Arthur Hubbard, a Navajo Indian, who left Steamboat Canyon yesterday to bring a sick child to Sage Memorial hospital.

He has not been heard from since early yesterday. Steamboat Canyon is about 23 miles west of here. Reports said the child was critically ill.

"First Lady" Member Of Newspaper Guild
NEW YORK, Jan. 1—(AP)—The First lady is a member of the New York Newspaper Guild, the guild made known today.

Mrs. Roosevelt signed her application Eleanor Roosevelt, gave her occupation as a columnist, and her residence as the White House. She joined as a member at large.

Mrs. Roosevelt writes a syndicated daily column, "My Day."

Flogging as a punishment was discontinued in the United States navy and on merchant vessels in 1850.

For every pound of silk produced in the world, there are 50 pounds of wool and 200 pounds of cotton.

QUALITY THINGS in
• Fountain Pens
• Pencils
Kuykendall Drug Co.
870 Willamette St.

For Schick Shaver Service
Call
Glendon H. Dotson
11th at Oak Phone 202

ZENITH RADIOS
Rubenstein FURNITURE COMPANY

Good River Grange Approves Sales Tax
GOOD RIVER, Jan. 1—(AP)—A committee from Good River county granges favored a modified sales tax at an age relief today. The group for the past few days. They left on Friday for home, over the coast route.

Leave for California
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dare and Miss Eleanor Dare who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Dare's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Walter B. Jones, left for their home in Arcata, Cal., on Thursday.

Car Stolen
A car belonging to John Campbell was taken from in front of the Elks' club some time Thursday evening, he reported to city police. The license number of the machine is 75-292 Oregon.

Dr. Soderholm Leaves
Dr. L. G. Soderholm, veterinarian who has been here for the past 18 months, inspecting dairy herds for the federal government, will go to Tillamook where he will engage in private practice.

Monthly Dinner
Members of the Community Liberal church will hold their monthly church dinner following the morning service Sunday, Jan. 3.

Arrested For Drunkenness
W. H. Ellison was arrested Thursday night and held in the county jail. City police charged him with drunkenness.

Mr. and Mrs. Bjorset Here
Mr. and Mrs. Georg Bjorset of Cottage Grove were Eugene visitors Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomson Here
Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Thomson of Thomson's lodge were in Eugene Thursday.

Bert Vincent Here
Bert Vincent was in Eugene from Redside on the McKenzie Thursday.

C. D. Hale Here
C. D. Hale of the Noti section was in Eugene on business Thursday.

Records
MARRIAGE LICENSES
Richard A. Fuhs of Springfield and Mary M. Barnes of Eugene.

BORN
HILDEBRAND—At the family home, Dec. 27, 1936, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hildebrand, near Junction City, a daughter.

WILFORD—At the Sacred Heart hospital, Jan. 1, 1937, to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wilford, 245 Pearl street, a daughter.

KELLY—At the Eugene hospital, Dec. 31, 1936, to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kelly of Wendling, a son.

BOUNTY
Bounty collected by A. E. Harper, Eugene R. F. D. 2, on five coyotes and five bobcats.

Obituaries
Dr. H. E. Stevens
YONOCALLA, Jan. 1—(Special)—Dr. H. E. Stevens died Wednesday morning at the veterans hospital in Roseburg. He came to Scotts Valley to make his home about a year ago from California. Funeral services were held at Roseburg Thursday at the veterans cemetery. He had been in poor health for a long time.

opposed any change in the pension age limit until 1939 or until a source of revenue is found to meet the additional cost. Heretofore, grangers strenuously opposed a sales tax for any purposes.

Tractor Goes to Aid Indian and Youngster
GANADO, Ariz., Jan. 1—(AP)—A government tractor left here today to battle its way through deep snowdrifts to the aid of Arthur Hubbard, a Navajo Indian, who left Steamboat Canyon yesterday to bring a sick child to Sage Memorial hospital.

He has not been heard from since early yesterday. Steamboat Canyon is about 23 miles west of here. Reports said the child was critically ill.

"First Lady" Member Of Newspaper Guild
NEW YORK, Jan. 1—(AP)—The First lady is a member of the New York Newspaper Guild, the guild made known today.

Mrs. Roosevelt signed her application Eleanor Roosevelt, gave her occupation as a columnist, and her residence as the White House. She joined as a member at large.

Mrs. Roosevelt writes a syndicated daily column, "My Day."

Flogging as a punishment was discontinued in the United States navy and on merchant vessels in 1850.

For every pound of silk produced in the world, there are 50 pounds of wool and 200 pounds of cotton.

QUALITY THINGS in
• Fountain Pens
• Pencils
Kuykendall Drug Co.
870 Willamette St.

For Schick Shaver Service
Call
Glendon H. Dotson
11th at Oak Phone 202

"BREAK" EXPECTED
IN KIDNAPING CASE

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

naping at any hour now"—was interpreted generally as meaning that definite contact had been effected with the kidnaper.

Whether the ransom already had been paid was not known but indications all pointed to the certainty that the kidnaper had been told that the $25,000 he demanded was ready. On the basis of the newspaper advertisement, which followed the directions left in the kidnaper's note except for the signature, the arrangements were complete for payment or for release of the boy.

Persons who have been in constant touch with the Mattson home believe the ransom has been paid and that it is only a matter of hours until Charles is returned to his parents.

Gone Five Days
Today the boy had been missing for five days. The family has endured an agonizing silence. The father, a well-to-do but not wealthy physician, was at first most concerned about the lad's safety but yesterday and today he seemed to feel even cheerful compared to his earlier attitude.

Last night Dr. Mattson, Mrs. Mattson and their two other children held a strange watch party. Before a fireplace, quiet, comfortable, they awaited news of the missing member of the little family circle.

Five telephone lines to the home in an exclusive residential section were open. Outside there were federal agents, local police authorities and friends who hoped they could be of assistance. Dr. Mattson's friends helped raise the ransom demanded by the kidnaper.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

CARES of state shutting between his two famous uncles—the Duke of Windsor and King George VI—could not erase the smiles from the face of Prince Edward of England, above, son of the Duke and Duchess of Kent. This photo of the 14-month-old baby prince was made in the gardens of Belgrave Square, London, opposite his parents' home.

MYRTLE B. BEARD

Thank You For 1936

We wish to thank everyone for the marvelous patronage they extended to us in 1936. We appreciate it and in return promise, if possible, to give even better values and better fashions in 1937.

FRED L. BEARD

And Best Wishes
For 1937

It is our wish that every one of you have a most prosperous and healthy New Year.

BEARD'S
Women's Apparel of Distinction

957 Willamette Phone 1996

Mrs. Cora Hepler
Dies December 30

Mrs. Cora M. Hepler of Dexter, died at the Sacred Heart hospital December 30 at the age of 77 years. She was born Nov. 28, 1859, in Bremen, Indiana, and came to Oregon in 1920.

She is survived by her husband, Paul M. Hepler, a sister, Mrs. Bernice Bellman of Bingham, Indiana; two brothers, Bryson Martin of Bremen, Indiana, and Clyde Martin of Sioux City, Iowa.

Funeral will be held at the Veatch Funeral home Saturday at 2 p. m. with Dr. S. E. Childers officiating. Interment will be in Rest Haven memorial park.

The Sphinx is the most ancient example of independent sculpture extant.

Antipater of Palestine is thought to have made the selection of the Seven Wonders of the World about 200 B. C.

In 1931, U. S. government inspectors condemned and destroyed enough tubercular cattle to fill 16 trains of 50 cars each.

Care of a baby is a full-time job for 5 hours and 41 minutes every day, and a part-time job the rest of the day, it is estimated.

In early days the weapon hand was bared and held out as a symbol of peace. This is believed to have been the origin of handshaking.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

Mrs. Cora Hepler
Dies December 30

Mrs. Cora M. Hepler of Dexter, died at the Sacred Heart hospital December 30 at the age of 77 years. She was born Nov. 28, 1859, in Bremen, Indiana, and came to Oregon in 1920.

She is survived by her husband, Paul M. Hepler, a sister, Mrs. Bernice Bellman of Bingham, Indiana; two brothers, Bryson Martin of Bremen, Indiana, and Clyde Martin of Sioux City, Iowa.

Funeral will be held at the Veatch Funeral home Saturday at 2 p. m. with Dr. S. E. Childers officiating. Interment will be in Rest Haven memorial park.

The Sphinx is the most ancient example of independent sculpture extant.

Antipater of Palestine is thought to have made the selection of the Seven Wonders of the World about 200 B. C.

In 1931, U. S. government inspectors condemned and destroyed enough tubercular cattle to fill 16 trains of 50 cars each.

Care of a baby is a full-time job for 5 hours and 41 minutes every day, and a part-time job the rest of the day, it is estimated.

In early days the weapon hand was bared and held out as a symbol of peace. This is believed to have been the origin of handshaking.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

The G-men and police were not so confident. Several privately expressed the belief the boy met with foul play. Their assumption was that the kidnaper had not been heard from, and that because he was not responding to the appeals of the Mattsons he was not so confident.

WILD CELEBRATIONS
BRING SMALL TOLL

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

up for hours and the horns of stranded automobiles joined the infernal din already raging.

All amusement houses reported that spending was prodigious. In the old-town area, long before midnight bartenders began refusing to mix drinks and patrons were forced to take their beverages straight, all places were charging top prices.

It was estimated that a million out-of-towners poured in to aid the city's joy-makers. Harlem and Greenwich village reported the same hilarious celebrations as marked downtown Manhattan's. The New York pace was followed closely by cities throughout the nation.

At one time, Cardinals were a favorite cage bird in southern United States.

Red grouse is the only species of bird confined solely to the British Isles.

Butter-Krust
Famous for its Flavor
Baked by Williams

In Full Swing!

Come In SATURDAY—Stock Up While Prices Are Low!

● A suit—a pair of pajamas, a topcoat . . . or a handkerchief . . . whatever you need, come in Saturday . . . Buy it and save money at this big storewide sale of men's clothing.

JOE RICHARDS
MEN'S STORE

873 Willamette

Phone 422

Wards January Sales

HARDWARE CLEARANCE

Wards Master Quality Stainless Steel Pipe Wrenches. Three sizes.

14-in. Pipe Wrench . . . $1.29
10-in. Pipe Wrench . . . 98c
8-in. Pipe Wrench . . . 89c

Stick-on Soles (men and boys') . . . 8c

Wards Lakeside Quality Thin-nose Pliers, 6-in. long . . . 30c

Wards Lakeside Quality reg.-nose Pliers, 6-in. long . . . 25c

Boys' Knife and Compass Set . . . 49c

Boys' Knife, Chain, and rabbit's foot. Complete set for . . . 19c

Wards All Steel Tool Boxes, ideal for mechanics or electricians.

Single Tray Type . . . $2.25

Double Tray Type . . . $2.75