ECONOMY AND SMARTNESS COMBINE IN JOLLY HOUSE FROCK

PATTERN 4311
By ANNE ADAMS

Slim, crisp, and fun to wear—this house frock's one of those easy-to-make, smart styles for which Anne Adams is famous! Making this character is a matter of economy, too, for your major costs are those of inexpensive fabric and a few bright buttons. If you haven't already discovered it—cutting sleeves and yoke to one routine practically no time at all, and before you know it, you're ready for the next step. A simple panel and pleats in the skirt give you the fullness required for a truly comfortable frock—and patch pockets provide a place for morning memo or hankie. A color-fast percale or pre-shrunk broadcloth will make you feel bright and chipper on even the darkest morning, so order Pattern 4311, and get busy on it.

Pattern 4311 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44. Size 16 takes 3 1/2 yards 36 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

From the Headlines
By Deacon Richmond

Captain Kingman Dies
When the war broke out in '31 and Lincoln called for men, he joined up with the army; he was strong and youthful then. He served the country that he loved, through those four trying years and helped to save the Union, with Wisconsin's volunteers.

He loved the Union veterans, and he loved the Army blue. He loved to hear the stories of the campaign, they'd been through; he loved to join the comrades, when they gathered at the Post; but he loved his native country and its starry banner most.

He was faithful to his country and faithful to his God, and his soul has gone to Glory, though his body's "neath the soil; and his spirit's in communion with his comrades over there, where there'll be no war nor trouble, neither sorrowing nor care.

His loved ones here will miss him, but they'll get a ray of cheer to know his work was finished for the ones who linger here; and the comrades there were lonesome for the Captain that they know; for they've mostly gone before him, and their number here is few.
