GOITRE NOT A DISEASE

Milwaukee, Wis.—It has been brought to light by scientific research that goitre is not a disease and is not to be treated as such. Dr. A. A. Rook a prominent goitre specialist for over 30 years perfected a different method of treatment which has proven highly successful. He opposed needless operations. Dr. A. A. Rook Products have published a copyrighted book at their own expense which tells about goitre and this treatment and will send this book free to anyone interested. Write today to Dr. A. A. Rook Products, Dept. 1109, Box 737, Milwaukee, Wis.

Mr., Mrs. W. P. Lower, Above, Celebrated their 60th Wedding Anniversary this Week. They Live at Creswell. A Family Reunion Observed.

CRESWELL, Feb. 20.—(Special)—The sixtieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lower, old time residents of this community, was observed by their children at their home Thursday. Gifts and flowers were presented the honored couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Lower were born in August and November respectively of the year 1835 in Walnut Grove, Iowa. They spent their childhood days together and attended the same schools. They were married in 1877 and came to Creswell ten years later and have since made their home in this community. Ten children were born to them. A daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Olson, died in 1931. The others are Jess Lower, Martin M. Lower, Harry S. Lower, Ralph Lower and William W. Lower, local postmaster, all of Creswell. Mrs. Wyatt Schmitt of Knights Landing, Cal., Mrs. Mae Fries of Junction City, Mrs. Carrie Schneider of San Rafael, Cal., and Mrs. Nellie Henderson of Gardiner. There are also fourteen grandchildren and four great grandchildren. Those present Thursday were Jess, Martin and Ralph Lower, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Lower, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lower, Mrs. Schmitt and Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Fries.

Mr. Lower operated a blacksmith shop in Creswell for several years, later purchasing a large farm east of town where he has lived since. Aside from lameness caused by an injury of some years ago, Mr. Lower is hale and hearty. Mrs. Lower has been confined to her home for a number of years but was able to spend a very happy anniversary.
