Seeks Confirmation Of Feltre Purchase
PORTLAND, June 10.—(AP)—The Pacific American Fisheries company asked the federal court today to confirm the sale of the Italian motorship Feltre, rammed and sunk in the Columbia river last winter.

The firm purchased the vessel this week at a public auction for $55,000. Claims against the ship totaled about $300,000.

Judge James Alger Fee said he would expedite action so the firm could make the motorship seaworthy.
