A LOVELY HOME

If you tire of looking out at paved streets and house tops, you can now easily have a home where there is clean cool air, a view in every direction through leafy frames to real beauty, a roomy comfortable nearly new house and the many other features that create that most desirable mind condition so necessary to a pleasant life. And you do not have to be wealthy to have these things as we are offering such a place for about half what you would take for it.
The large elevated site is a natural park with lovely trees, lying right for terraces, rockerries, flowers, trails, and the many other possible features in which you may take an interest to have a daily vacation during spare time.
The house has four bedrooms, one down, three up, a bath on each floor, two fireplaces, 40 foot living room with view over the river and hills, a second living room, hot water heat, oil burner, full floored attic.
The place is not at the coast, not hours up the river, but it is, believe it or not, in Eugene, in a little world all its own, five minutes from Broadway and Willamette, at 2550 East 15th. The number is at the driveway entrance. Drive out. Attractive price and terms. Consider small modern place as down payment.
