Wheat Declines 2 Cents

VEGETABLES ARE EXPECTED TO BE HIGHER IN EUGENE

Wheat was down two cents in the Eugene buying market Monday, the quotation being $1.06 cents for both red and white.

There was a slight change in the buying prices of poultry, but little else doing in the local market situation.

Vegetable prices are expected to be higher as a result of the damage by the continued rains. Most varieties are still plentiful but they are expected to be scarcer soon if the rain continues.

SLOW TRADING MARKS DECLINE ON STOCK MART

NEW YORK, June 21—(AP)—In the slowest trading in about two years, the stock market sagged irregularly today.

Most of the session steels were resistant. They had the aid of hopes of a peaceful settlement of strikes and the estimate of a steady production pace. In late trading, however, this group slipped a cog and joined the rest of the list for moderate declines. Transactions approximated 450,000 shares.

CLARK WILL SPEAK AT PIONEER PICNIC

Dr. R. C. Clark, professor of history at the university and noted authority on Oregon history, will be the principal speaker at the annual picnic of the Lane County Pioneer association Saturday, at the Lane county fairgrounds.

Plans for the annual event are progressing rapidly, it was announced by Miss Ann Whiteaker, president of the association. This year, pioneers who crossed the plains in covered wagons will be honored guests and all surviving pioneers are specially urged to be present.

Those who do not have transportation will be picked up and taken to the event in special cars, it was announced. Other speakers will be W. M. Tugman, managing editor of the Register-Guard, who will discuss plans to convert the old postoffice building into a pioneer museum; Cal M. Young, who will outline the part pioneers are to play in the Oregon Trail pageants; and Sid King, news editor of the Register-Guard, who will relate incidents of the emigrations westward, as obtained in interviews with those who actually crossed the plains by "ox express."

WITH the Columbia River at spring stage, millions of gallons of water a minute are pouring against stout piers of Bonneville Dam, great hydro-electric and reclamation project on the Columbia River, 43 miles above Portland, Ore. This view, taken from the downstream side, shows water surging through the piers of the dam.

WHEN a wife returns home there usually is an affectionate reconciliation with Friend Husband, but this was not the case when Mrs. Adolph B. Spreckels, Jr., wife of the San Francisco sugar fortune heir, as shown above, arrived in that city after a Hawaiian vacation. En route to New York, she refused to discuss a possible reunion with her husband, now in Arizona. The couple separated in April.

MONDAY BILLS

McDONALD: "Cafe Metropole" and "23½ Hours Leave."

HEILIG: "Affairs of Cappy Ricks" "Night Key."

STATE: "Trail of the Lonesome Pine" and "Hollywood Boulevard."

MAYFLOWER: "One in a Million" and "Go West, Young Man."

REX: "The Thirteenth Chair," and on the stage, "Bell's Hawaiian Follies."

A prize-winning comedy, "Cafe Metropole," continues its merry way at the McDonald Monday. Tyrone Power, Loretta Young and Adolph Menjou in featured roles. Story concerns romantic doings of Power and Young on the Continent. "23½ Hours Leave" is an amusing story of army life.

• • •

One of the most beautiful color pictures of all time, "Trail of the Lonesome Pine," continues at the State, with Sylvia Sidney, Fred MacMurray and Henry Fonda starred. Taken form novel. "Hollywood Boulevard" completes the bill.

• • •

Big three-star program at the Heilig: (1) Boris Karloff in his newest thriller, "Night Key"; along with Warren Hull and Jean Rogers; (2) Walter Brennan, Academy award winner for 1936, in "Affairs of Capp Ricks"; (3) "A Day with the Dionne Quintuplets", a film depicting the adventures of the World's Cutest Babies.

• • •

Back at the Mayflower is "Go West, Young Man," the Mae West comedy that has 'em rocking in the aisles. Mae, hips and all, is starred along with Warren William, Randolph Scott and Alice Brady. "One in a Million" is the Sonia Henie musical. Ritz brothers are in the cast.

• • •

"Bell's Hawaiian Follies" are much better than you would ordinarily expect them to be. High grade singing and routine, even for a rodeo troupe. Baby Joy, juvenile Hawaiian version of Shirley Temple, is a wow. "Thirteenth Chair" is a good murder mystery with Dame May Whitty in a featured role.
