

City News Notes :-:

WHAT'S DOING
 Wednesday
 Weekly luncheon at the Eugene Lions club at the Eugene hotel.
 10 p. m. —Pageant parade, starting at the corner of Fifth and Washington streets.

Myers to Portland
 Walter L. Myers, Oregon Christian Endeavor field secretary, left Tuesday morning for Portland to attend the fellowship banquet of veteran Christian Endeavor workers. The banquet is sponsored by C. E. workers in the vicinity of Portland, whose connections with the movement began at least ten years ago.

Return South
 Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fudem have returned to their home in San Francisco, after spending a week in Eugene at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al DeBoi. Mrs. D. J. Cullen of San Francisco is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. DeBoi. She plans to remain here for two months.

I Saw
 The show wagon parked in front of a local theatre 2 days and 2 nights without a police tag.

Meetings Announced
 Rev. Warren Hull, who has been speaking at Open Door Mission, 251 Eighth avenue west, will continue every night this week. A special feature will be a "mandolin" which will be played by Rev. Hull.

Attends Portland Meeting
 C. A. Paddock, secretary to the Willamette district council, Lumber and Sawmill Workers' union, was in Portland Tuesday for a conference with C. W. Hope, regional director of the national labor relations board.

Plan Rummage Sale
 The Women's Missionary society of the First Christian church will have a rummage sale Wednesday, June 23, from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m., in the Seibert building, 63 East Broadway.

Apply For WPA Money
 The city has made application for WPA labor to construct a wire fence about the deer and elk corral at Hendricks park, with the cost coming to $1200.

Fined By Recorder
 James A. Hargreaves was fined $50 by City Recorder Cal M. Bryan on a charge of being intoxicated on a public highway. He was arrested in Eugene late Monday.

Scott Fined $25
 Leo Scott was fined $25 by Justice of the Peace John Bryson Tuesday on an intoxication charge and all but $5 of the fine was suspended. He was paroled to L. L. Hirtzel, state police officer.

From Minnesota
 Miss Elvira Hribar of Naskawauk, Minn., is in Eugene to spend several weeks as the guest of Mrs. B. A. Stark. Miss Hribar visited here last summer, and enjoys this section of the country very much.

Troop to Meet
 Troop four of the Girl Scouts, will have its regular meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the captain, Mrs. Zola Barton, 608 Jefferson street.

Here From Los Angeles
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pearnley and their daughter, June, of Los Angeles, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Travis at 1736 Broadway west.

Holland at Grove
 Walter J. Holland, county commissioner, was in the Cottage Grove section Tuesday, looking after road work.

Going to Michigan
 Charles H. Phillip left Eugene Tuesday afternoon for Three Oaks, Mich., where he plans to remain for some time.

From Cloverdale
 The Dick farmer of the Cloverdale district, transacted business in Eugene Monday.

From Trent
 E. Jacobs, well known farmer and station operator at Trent, is in Eugene on business Monday.

Kennedy Very Ill
 J. Kennedy, who lives at the Sacred Heart hospital, is very ill at the Sacred Heart hospital.

From Junction
 Mrs. R. W. White of the Junction City district, transacted business in Eugene Monday.

Medical Program
 Mrs. and Miss Jensen, children and Mrs. Lawrence Jensen, will present the musical program over KORE Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock for the American Legion auxiliary.

School Clerks Here
 A number of district school clerks called at the office of County School Superintendent Moffitt Tuesday to file their annual reports. Among them were Mrs. Rose France of Fir Butte, H. G. Rieck of Crow Union high, Ernest Schreck of Pleasant Hill union high, G. K. Gry of Sassa Clara, Anna-belle Gilchrist of Hebron, Verla Halligan of Bethel, R. L. Stumberg of Coburg, Mrs. Florence Cook of Oak-ridge and Grover Mack of Franklin.

Myers to Portland
 Walter L. Myers, Oregon Christian Endeavor field secretary, left Tuesday morning for Portland to attend the fellowship banquet of veteran Christian Endeavor workers. The banquet is sponsored by C. E. workers in the vicinity of Portland, whose connections with the movement began at least ten years ago.

Return South
 Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fudem have returned to their home in San Francisco, after spending a week in Eugene at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al DeBoi. Mrs. D. J. Cullen of San Francisco is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. DeBoi. She plans to remain here for two months.

I Saw
 The show wagon parked in front of a local theatre 2 days and 2 nights without a police tag.

Meetings Announced
 Rev. Warren Hull, who has been speaking at Open Door Mission, 251 Eighth avenue west, will continue every night this week. A special feature will be a "mandolin" which will be played by Rev. Hull.

two or three months as an extended visit.

M. D. Harpole Here
 M. D. Harpole of Junction City, R. F. D. 2, was a Eugene visitor Monday.

Dr. Helms in Office
 Dr. F. T. Helms is back in his office after a week's illness.

Junction Farmer Here
 P. H. Peterson, farmer of the Junction City section, was in Eugene Tuesday.

In Records

BUILDING PERMITS
 Louis Applegate, permit to erect garage, 2545 Main, $50.

Battle, Sweeney and Co., permit to remodel apartments, 188 Eleventh avenue east, $50.

E. H. Hall, permit to remodel store, 931 Oak, $50.

Stanley Easy, Corvallis, permit to repair residence, $50.

E. D. Curtis, permit to remodel residence, 745 Tenth avenue east, $125.

C. A. Welterstrom, permit to remodel residence, 951 Patterson, $45.

W. H. Stretch, permit to repair residence, 1372 Patterson, $10.

Fred Crosby, permit to build greenhouse, 2065 Garden, $1000.

Circuit Court

Evangel Chirramonte against J. J. Chirramonte, suit filed for divorce.

Harold Rosserman against L. C. Rosserman, suit filed for divorce.

Bush F. Larsen against Barney M. Larsen, suit filed for divorce, plaintiff seeking $800 alimony.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Gordon A. Wright and Rita Naomi Abercrombie, both of Wendling.

Phillip Reese of Van Nuys, Cal., and Thelma Louise Hawley of Eugene.

TRAFFIC FINES

V. P. Miller, Robert Nye, J. R. Walker, D. D. Henry and F. Ray Dewey, all $1 for overtime parking.

PROBATE COURT

Vella M. Wilson appointed administrator of estate of Loretta P. Simonson, deceased.

NOTARY PUBLIC

Notarial commission of Fern Fletcher filed.

BORN

HANSEN—At Thompson Convalescent home, Monday, June 21, 1937, to Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hansen of 140 Sixteenth avenue west, a son.

RENIUS—At Thompson Convalescent home, Friday, June 11, 1937, to Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Renius, 170 High street, a son.

FENDER—At the Eugene hospital Tuesday, June 22, 1937, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fender of Creswell, a son.

Obituaries

Charles F. Kendrick
 Charles F. Kendrick of Blachly died Monday morning at the Sacred Heart general hospital. He was born in Springfield, Mo., October 16, 1894. He was a foreman at the Triangle Lake CCC camp, and prior to that was construction foreman for the Flora Logging company at Carlton, Ore. Mr. Kendrick was a member of the Catholic church.

Surviving are his wife, Eva, and two daughters, Gertrude and Mrs. F. O'Neill of Portland.

Interment of Rosary will be at the Triangle Lake CCC camp near Blachly at 5:30 o'clock Tuesday evening. Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, at St. Mary's Catholic church, with Rev. Francis P. Leipsig officiating. Interment will be in Calvary cemetery. Branstetter-Simon chapel will be in charge.

Eugene Oard
 COTTAGE GROVE, June 22.—(Special)—Eugene Oard died suddenly Monday evening at his home, 237 Eleventh street in Cottage Grove. He was born May 21, 1870, at Sigourney, Iowa, and was married to May Tate on May 2, 1898, at Kerrington, N. D. Mr. Oard was a member of the Masonic lodge and Royal Arch Masons. He resided in Cottage Grove for ten years, arriving here from Moosejaw, Sask.

Surviving are his wife, May; his mother, Mrs. Nancy Oard of Sawyer.

Karoline Alstad
 Karoline Alstad died Monday evening at her home, 1235 Charnellton street. She was born Feb. 8, 1859, in Pierce county, Wis. She came to Eugene from Canby in 1924. Surviving are one nephew and three nieces.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at the Branstetter-Simon chapel, with Rev. R. Bogstad officiating. Interment will be in Rest Haven Memorial park.

Mary Rabenau
 Mary Rabenau, infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rabenau, died at the Sacred Heart hospital Monday. The funeral home of Springfield is in charge with burial expected to be Wednesday at Laurelhill cemetery.

THE late Jean Harlow is starred in "Suzy" which comes to the Rex Friday. Franchot Tone has the male lead.

N. D.: three sons, Verne of Cottage Grove, Gordon of Hoodport, Wash., and Maurice of Wendling; one daughter, Mrs. Margaret Wampler of North Battleford, Sask.; three brothers, Russell of Greenfield Center, N. Y., Ira of Sawyer, N. D., and Ralph of Seattle; one sister, Mrs. Ed Krause of Fergus, Iowa; also seven grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the Mills chapel in Cottage Grove, with Rev. Arwood Foster officiating. Interment will be in the Masonic-Odd-Fellow cemetery.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Martha E. Turner
 Martha E. Turner, 84, died at her home in Marcola Tuesday morning. She was born June 30, 1853, at Johnston, Pa. Mrs. Turner had lived at Marcola for the past 28 years where she was a member of the Baptist church and active in the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Turner was married in Conway, Mo., 37 years ago. She had five children, none of whom are living, but is survived by six step-children, namely, Mrs. Cordia O'Neill and George Turner, both of Seaside; Mrs. Anna Harris, Conway, Mo.; Mrs. Cora Preston, Medford; Mrs. Rose Tennell, Wilder, Ida, and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Eugene. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral home of Springfield is in charge of arrangements. The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, interment in the Laurelhill cemetery. Rev. Emerson will officiate.

Wendling, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cook, Westfir.

STAYS AT HOSKINS
 SPRINGFIELD, June 22.—(Special)—Harley Crut spent the week-end in Hoskins visiting his mother, Mrs. Ed Scott. He plans to remain there permanently where he has found employment.

VISITING FATHER
 SPRINGFIELD, June 22.—(Special)—Mrs. Henry W. Chessum, Portland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sellers, arrived in Springfield Monday night to visit her father who