local factories, said normal operations had been resumed. Sunlight employs about 850 persons.

No Limit

Asked whether the mill force was being increased, an official of the Warren Republic plant said there was no agreement or legal order to limit the number of men who may return to their jobs.

"Judge Lynn R. Griffith in his (civil) court order Monday limiting picketing provided for free access to the plant by all men who wanted to work," the official declared.

C. R. Wheeler, assistant to the district manager, said 2500 of a normal force of 4500 were on the job and that all departments were operating except the hot mill.

Three explosions sent fresh alarm through the city last night. The explosions were near the Republic Steel plant which hundreds of self-intending non-strikers have kept operating despite the strike.

First it was reported an attempt had been made to blow up the plant, but C. R. Wheeler, a plant official, said he believed the explosions were caused by giant fireworks hurled toward the plant from the Malheur river or from the opposite bank.

The explosions caused no damage. In the face of the complications that a general strike here would bring, President Roosevelt's three-man mediation board at Cleveland redoubled its efforts to bring truce.

MARTIAL LAW LIFTED

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 24.—(AP)—Governor George H. Earle today announced that martial law would be lifted in Johnstown at 7 a. m. tomorrow and that the strike-bound plants of Bethlehem Steel company which he had closed might reopen at the same hour.

"Apparently the emergency in Johnstown has passed," the governor said. "I therefore decree an end of martial law at 7 a. m., Friday morning."

Earle placed the strike district under martial law last Saturday and ordered closing of the Bethlehem Steel mill where a committee had been declared by the Committee for Industrial Organization.

The governor said that Col. A. S. Janeway his personal representative and Mayor Lynn G. Adams, superintendent of the state police, and all forces of the state police and highway patrol will be ordered out of Cambria county, except 200 state police under command of Captain William A. Clark.

Johnstown's business leaders carried before the nation today in full page newspaper advertisements their fight against the closing of the $50,000,000 Bethlehem Steel mills here by Governor Earle's martial law order.

"We protest," stated advertisements costing $60,000.

"We are not arguing for or against unions or steel companies, but in defense of two fundamental American liberties—right of local self-government and right of every worker to pursue occupation peacefully and within the law."

assurance of the Willamette valley council that it would remain loyal to the A. F. of L.

His decision to cancel his appearance was expected to provide C. I. O. leaders with a "talking point" at Thursday night's meeting.

Already, a referendum is under way throughout the northwest on whether the Federation of Woodworkers, unofficial organization of lumber unions in the northwest would bolt the A. F. of L. The Willamette valley locals, while professing loyalty to the Brotherhood, also indicated that they would remain loyal only as long as its interests deemed loyalty necessary.

First of the delegations to arrive Thursday was Al Hartung, president of the Columbia river district council, who has been supporting the C. I. O.

Rev. Nelson to Talk At Townsend Meeting

A Townsend meeting will be held Friday at 8 p. m. at the club headquarters, Eleventh and Olive streets, according to an announcement made Thursday by Charles L. Paine.

The main talk will be delivered by Rev. Roy Nelson, Portland, Mrs. Nelson and daughter will join him in a musical program following the talk. The public is invited.

said he caused the rift in collaboration of Europe's four great powers. But the tone was calmer than before.

Canada's prime minister, Mackenzie King, arranged to talk to Adolf Hitler next week—officially, but perhaps about peace.

Patrol Spanish Coast
German and Italian warships patrolled the coasts of Spain on their own initiative today, their commanders acting in apparent concert.

Italian vessels were under orders to strike back immediately at any "attack" from the Spanish government. The German battle fleet, about to be reinforced by the pocket battleship Graf Spee, was told to "protect German interests."

A fear still pervaded Britain that the joint Italian-German withdrawal from the non-intervention pact designed to isolate the Spanish war was the forerunner of an attack against government Spain as "punishment" for an alleged attempt to torpedo the German cruiser Leipzig.

But the German cruiser Köln arrived unexpectedly at Gibraltar and whereabouts of the rest of the German fleet went unreported. Reports from Tangier, Morocco, said Italian and German warships had sailed from there.

France Backs Britain
From Paris, meantime, came word that France and England would look askance at any Italian-German attempt to blockade the Spanish government coast.

Germany blamed Russia and Great Britain for the new European crisis, which resulted when France and Britain refused to accede to German and Italian demands for a naval demonstration against the Valencia government.

An official Berlin communiqué declared "Bolshevik Moscow" seeks to make Spain "a section of the communist international."

Meanwhile, a new cabinet crisis was reported in autonomous Catalonia, ally of the central Valencia government. There also were many press arrests there.

On the northern Spanish front, government forces merged into a single army to strengthen resistance to the insurgent threat to dominate the entire Basque and Asturian regions.

tion, the latter partly attired in black hats, red pageant shorts and frontier boots, gave snap and color to the parade.

Eugene's youth had its part in the parade too, many boys and girls marching in their western outfits.

Volchok is M. C.

At the armory, Zollic Volchok acted as master of ceremonies and introduced pageant officials to the crowd that jammed the floor and balcony. In the whistler contest, the fact of agreement committee awarded Orel Rogers the prize for the longest crop. He won by a whisker.

The old-time fiddlers' contest stole the show however. Broadcast over KORB through courtesy of the Townsend club, who donated their time, the fiddlers scraped and bowed to the intense delight of the crowd which stomped and clapped hands in time to the strident old music.

W. I. King's old-time "swing" proved the most popular and he was adjudged winner by tumultuous applause. He used a violin and bow of his own making and was accompanied by Waldo Davis. Other contestants were Mrs. Lann Black, Frank Warner, J. W. Iverson, Louis Braven, J. R. Cruzem, O. R. Rose, H. L. McIntyre and L. L. Miller.

Winners Listed

Other winners chosen by the crowd were Mary Cruvan, winner of the prize for the oldest person in costume; Helen Smith and Ruth Snell, co-winners of the award for the best child's pioneer costume; Mary Louise Vreeland, winner of the prize for the best little girl's pioneer costume; Ivan Seymour, best boy's pioneer outfit; C. R. Seaver, bushiest red beard; Gayle Chesboro, 13 months old, smallest girl in costume; John Harbison, smallest boy in costume; Joe Johnson, dressed in buckskins and a long black wig, best pioneer costume for men.

only hope that the 200 that are still astray will soon come into the fold."

The request for a copy of the "Driver's Song" issued yesterday by Doris Smith was promptly answered. Last night, during the "Kick-off" celebration, a man stepped up to Mrs. Smith and gave her a copy of the song, clipped from a 1926 newspaper, then went off without leaving his name. Gratitude to the unknown donor is expressed by Mrs. Smith.

Rehearsal of the pageant singing chorus will be held at the armory Friday night, instead of at the Methodist church as usual. Hal Young, director, has announced. All those in the chorus, and those interested in joining are asked to meet at the armory at 7:30 for practice.

Many voices are still needed for the chorus, according to Mr. Young, and any one who likes to sing is asked to enroll either at pageant headquarters, or at the armory Friday night. No try-outs are necessary, except for the solo parts. Solo try-outs are held before rehearsal, from 7 till 7:30. A special appeal for singers is issued by Pageant Director Doris Smith.

office committee to answer charges made against Republic by Murray. Girdler made his assertion in answer to a question by Senator Bridges (R-NH). The senator asked whether Murray's statement was true that the only issue was the question of reducing an oral agreement to writing.

Bridges said Senator Guffey had suggested the same thing at an earlier meeting of the committee. Girdler's caustic answer came immediately after he had finished reading a prepared statement in which he told the committee the basic issue of the steel strike "is the right of American citizens to work free from molestation by a labor organization whose apparent policy is either to rule or ruin American industry."

Girdler said, in answer to questions, he was complying with the national labor relations act "in every particular" and that he had been dealing "with representatives of our employees" ever since the act became effective.

problems now facing the state will also be depicted by moving pictures and by a number of graphic displays provided by the state planning board. C. W. Reynolds, executive assistant for the planning board, will precede the party and erect the displays in a window of one of Eugene's stores. He will also speak briefly at the chamber of commerce forum luncheon at noon Friday.

Members of the Lane County Game Protective association will cooperate with the chamber of commerce in sponsoring the meeting, it is announced by David B. Evans, president, and all members are urged to attend.

Bot hbanquet and the speaking program will be open to the public. Each speaker will present a phase of the wild life situation, and the motion pictures are of special interest. The meeting is one of a series to be held in various parts of the state in the interests of wild life conservation.
