JUST YOUR LUCK
By Half-A-Buck Buchanan, Jr.

His quite a guy, this councilman. His face tanned too thin with hair is Carlson, Fred. His face a bit red. He now owes four bits to the fair.

This one will be a surprise. To at least a couple of guys. Tough editor dead-end. Our friend William Tuckman. We'll frame his four-bits as a prize.

Mr. Carlson is quite a pal. Until you get a ticket. Fifty cents will recompense. Because he has no ticket.

Ed Turnbull is always full. Of pep and vim and vigor. His recent friskers without whiskers. Makes us pull the trigger—50 cents.

We took one look at Kenny Lawrence. And for his beard we hold abhorrence. It's worse than gags by old Buck Benny. So come send in your half-buck Kenny.

Joe Hayward, of Williams' Store fame. We certainly hate to frame. But a half-a-buck. And it's just your luck. For looking so dog-gone tame.

DEXTER NEWS
DENTER, June 30.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tate, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gillette and son of Hart, Mich., are visiting in this locality. They are former residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Andrus and son of Richmond, Cal., and Mrs. Resie Vaughn of Oakland are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wes Neat.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Andrus, Mrs. Ruby Tate, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Neat and Gail visited with Ashur Veach last Friday at Kistson Springs.

Obituaries

Lars Pearson
Lars Pearson of Roseau, Minn., died Wednesday morning at the home of his daughter at Westfir. He was born March 5, 1859 in Sweden, and in 1892 went to Winnipeg, Canada, then to Roseau in 1894, where he resided the remainder of his life. He was married to Erika Carlson in 1892. He arrived at Westfir two weeks ago.

Mr. Pearson is survived by his wife, Erika; and six children, Anna Demaris of Hibbing, Minn., Axel Pearson of Pomer, Minn., Albert Pearson of Virginia, Minn., Lawrence Pearson of Klamath Falls, Ore., Ella Trotter of Westfir, Ore., and Signe Merrilees of Klamath Falls, also 8 grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are in charge of the Poole chapel.

W. G. Hill
W. G. Hill died suddenly at Newberg Monday, at the age of 73. He was born in Portland, Maine, later moving to Marion, Minn., where he spent many years. He was also a resident of Springfield, leaving there in 1923, going to Newberg.

Surviving are his wife, Nora; four daughters, Mrs. O. W. Hays of Portland, Mrs. M. N. Pengra of Eugene, Mrs. Florence Easton of Rio Vista, Calif., and Miss Jean Hill of Portland; and one son, Lester Hill, of Eugene.

Funeral services will be held in Newberg Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, with interment about 2 p. m., at the Laurel Hill cemetery near Springfield.

The average year-round centigrade temperature at the South Pole is 25 degrees below zero.

Free! IRONING SCHOOL Thursday Afternoon

At Rubenstein's

Arleta Johnson will demonstrate the ease with which you can iron everything with IRONRITE--be sure to come.

Don't Buy Any Ironer Until You Try

Ironrite
In Your Own Home Without Obligation

Phone 690

Don't let anyone tell you that all ironers are alike. Only Ironrite has two open ends so that the entire ironing shoe can be used instead of one end. And both ends of the ironing shoe are pointed, the same as a hand iron, so that ruffles, pleats and folds can be ironed without difficulty. More economical, too—Ironrite costs less to operate and it's cheaper to own because you can't wear it out. Phone for a demonstration in your own home at once!

Get Ready.

No matter where you plan to go it is only a sensible precaution to see that your car is properly prepared for the trip. Take your car—now—to your nearby General dealer. Have your spark plugs and light bulbs tested and cleaned. Your fan belt and oil filter checked. Your battery cleaned and serviced. Your tires examined and properly inflated. Your crankcase, transmission and differential drained and flushed. There is no charge for these services except for materials used. Of course, you will want a complete lubrication job with Mobilgrease and Mobil Lubricants. And, to be certain you get the gasoline and motor oil that will give you the best performance under all conditions, be sure to use
