THE NEW

Cascade

Only half a business day enroute

A first-class schedule and a first-class train—that's the new Cascade, covering in one of the fastest schedules in history between here and San Francisco. Leave tonight—there tomorrow at 1:32 P.M.—only half a business day enroute!

Complimentary accommodations, the new Cascade carries standard Pullman's (600,000, compartments drawing rooms) bedroom car, lounge car and dining car of latest design. First-class accommodations only but no extra fare.

Former Cascade now Oregonian

Former Cascade is now the Oregonian—same fast schedule—same fine equipment. Other fine trains of our air-cooled fleet to California—the Klamath, Shasta, West Coast. These trains provide coach and tourist as well as standard accommodations. For reservations, schedules, fares see—
