Runaway Gal Likes Circus Life; Wants To Stay In Tights

NORFOLK, Va., Aug. 10.—(AP)—Doris Major, pretty blonde equestrienne girl who turned circus equestrienne "to get away from it all," broke down in her father's arms late today and tearfully admitted she really isn't Dale Sargent at all.

"I just wanted to get away from it all," she told her father, Bill Major, when he arrived here from Washington to investigate a report that Dale Sargent looked exactly like his pretty daughter who disappeared eight days ago.

"Please don't take me back," she pleaded, explaining she felt she had made good with the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus and would rather ride horseback in the sawdust ring than sell cigarettes in the Shoreham hotel. Major said he would let the girl stay.

READ THESE RULES CAREFULLY

- 1—Think of your suggestion for naming the little Snowdrift men pictured here. "Bake and Fry," for instance, or the "Frolicsome Twins," the "Creaminess Boys," "Snow and Drift" or "The Goodness Team." Write your suggestion on any kind of paper or on the entry blank. Print plainly your name and address, and name and address of your grocer.
- 2—Buy a can of Snowdrift. Unwind the metal strip that says "We lock in all its goodness." Enclose this piece of strip in envelope with your name suggestion and address, and mail to "Award Editor, P.O. Box 994, New Orleans, La." That constitutes an entry. Entries will not be considered unless metal strip accompanies each name suggestion. For example, "Bake and Fry" needs one strip; "The Creaminess Boys" one strip.
- 3—Every entry, duly accompanied by metal strip, will be acknowledged, and in appreciation we will mail you a coupon acceptable by your grocer as 10c against the purchase of your next 3 or 6 pound can of Snowdrift. Because of the large number of suggestions, we cannot enter into any further correspondence with any entrant. No entry will be returned.
- 4—Closed classes September 15th, 1937. All entries must be postmarked prior to midnight of that date. All entries become the property of the Wesson Oil and Snowdrift Baking Company. Judging will be directed by officials of the Calkins & Holden Advertising Agency, New York, and of the Fitzgerald Advertising Agency of New Orleans. Decision of the judges will be final. Anyone may submit suggestions, in conformity with the rules, except employees of the Wesson Oil & Snowdrift People, their advertising agencies, or their families.
